APPARITION OF CHRIST JESUS DURING THE 32nd MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

While souls live Me, your hearts ignite with Mercy and that is something real, it is something that I always look for in all the hearts of the Earth.

Today I show Myself to you in Glory.

Just as I Am in Heaven, thus I Am before My Father, Who deserves glory and praise.

Today I come from a very special place of the Universe, to where you may be able to go someday, after My Work in this humanity is accomplished.

Today I want you to not only contemplate My Heart, but also feel it here, present among you, communing with the essence of unity and brotherhood among all the spirits of goodwill that, throughout time, assemble to listen to Me, just as you listened to Me in the Holy Land.

For this reason, My Father has placed you here, on this part of the planet, so that you may once again vivify My Principles of instruction and of transformation.

Today I can definitely stretch out My Hand over you and place it on your heads, as My Mother has requested in Her perpetual prayers.

Today I can definitely say that the Love of God overcomes and transforms all things, when He is truly recognized by the souls that sincerely cry out.

Today My Grace is approaching the dark world to illumine it again in My Spirit; in My Spirit of Peace and of Mercy.

But today, companions, I am not only with you, but also with those who open their hearts and their homes to receive Me in this spiritual communion with the Heart that permanently loves you, without restrictions or conditions; with the Heart that suffered the martyrdoms of the Passion and of the Cross for you; and that at the culminating moment, said: Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.

But today I do not want you to think about what you were in that moment, but rather that you live Me in this eternal present, of which I make you participants at each new meeting.

Today, many of those who are here represent the nations of the planet, their debts and their commitments. I need your hearts, companions, to be My missionaries of peace, like those who have served Me in the Middle East, in the middle of the tribulation and the chaos, fully trusting in the steps of My Holy Mother, Who rejoices in the hearts that love My Heart and My Mercy.

Today I come to give you what the world needs for this end time, which is the Love of God that must renew all things and must redeem the hearts that are still closed to My Call.

But I wait, as I waited in the Garden of Gethsemane, in the absolute solitude of the Heart and of the Consciousness, with the supreme assistance of the angels of Heaven, that consoled My offering on the Cross and in the Passion.

I no longer want to see you asleep.

My Words are codes of light for all.

My Love is the balm for your spirits, it is the consolation for souls, it is deep healing for those who have been wounded through their own actions.

But know, companions, that I still cannot return in Glory, because the hearts that I have chosen must be prepared to receive Me in this moment, to be able to recognize Me and open the doors of their souls to Me, to strongly embrace Me and know Who I Am.

I wish that you could not only see Me, but that you could recognize Me when the moment comes, you and your brothers and sisters of the world, that still sleep in the dream of illusion, of personal realization, and personal power.

Today I am here, in Glory, before the hearts that have said "yes" to redemption. Thus, I will first bless you with My Spirit, which is the Spirit of God, which illumines all forms and exalts the good feelings of souls that are reconciled with God all the days of their lives.

You adore Me, you wait for Me, and you love Me. I also wait for you, I also adore what is real in what you are, and I love what really exists in you, which is the most beautiful thing that God created for his Universe: Unity.

If your hearts were not united when I am no longer here, present among you, what will you do?

How will you wait for Me when I knock on the door of your dwelling places?

How will you transmit My Word to those that should hear it in such a critical hour?

You have no reason to be disturbed, that is something of My adversary.

Those who are distressed in their heart feel that way because they do not love Me, or does not yet know how to live Me; but if I come in Glory for all those who are consistent with Me and for those who have still to wake up in each part of this Earth, what do you fear, if you are in My Light, if you believe you are living in My Heart, which can do all things?

When I fell with the Cross for the second time, My Mother approached, living My pain, because it was something shared under the Purpose of God, to share the pain of the world and of perverted sinners.

She Herself uplifted Me, She picked Me up from the ground when My Body was very tired; because it was the weariness of God suffering in My body for all the ungrateful souls, for the sinners of the world; but it was the love that made Me strong, it was not My Will; because My Will was in My Father.

My Father was in Me, doing His Will. That is what you are to live, just as I lived it, each one in their proportion and to their degree.

At that moment, in the second fall, I thought I would die on the road to calvary. And the look of My Mother was what saved Me; a look of love, of consolation, and of protection. That is when Archangel Michael gave Me the strength to stand up and continue, and at that time I said: Mother, I renew all things, because it is My Father that renews them in Me and in You.

You must allow yourselves to be renewed by My Heart, which is being offered for those who may want to receive it; because there will be no place to go, companions, when the chaos manifests; there will be no refuge, house, or person that will help you. My Heart is your salvation and your eternal faith.

Thus, I will be able to help My children when I am in your hearts all the time, and not only for a few moments.

I need My Existence to expand in you for a longer time. You, companions, are the repositories of an inexplicable grace, of an incalculable opportunity in the face of the debt of the planet and of humanity; for this reason, I persist with you until I get what I want.

We must be in perpetual Adoration for the difficult times. This is what I requested of Faustina in the Most Holy Body of Christ.

In the Shrine is the renewing Strength for all that seek it.

I will bless you and go with you. Make a pilgrimage to My Heart, and do not tire of doing so; in this way, you will understand many things in the coming time.

Now, I have come here so that all may feel purified, for My Light expands like molecules in all those who open their hearts to receive it, in gratitude and love.

In silence, rest your heads upon My Breast and feel My Glorified Heart that consoles and heals all wounds, no matter which it may be, because for the Son of God there is nothing impossible.

If your faith is strong, My Love will be strong in you and will be felt in the hearts that approach to recognize Me in My brothers and sisters.

Today this water will bless you all, as a symbol of the renewal of your first baptism; and those who were not baptized as I was, in the Jordan river, will receive this first blessing that will prepare you for your first baptism, in which all evil will be dispelled, and the Light of My Glory will be established over the souls that may rejoice in My Spirit.

Let us pray as the Father taught us through His Son, so that in Glory, the Holy Spirit may descend and sanctify this water, which is the first sign of the Creation of God on this planet and in the whole Universe, the water that quenches the thirst of souls.

Praised be God, glorious is His Reign, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Amen.

With this blessing, companions, may the Gifts of My Father be able to manifest in you, through the living of the Sacraments and the renewal of your vows with the Most High Project of God.

May your souls be glad and never cease to be so, living all the sacrifices for humanity and the planet, for the final redemption of evil.

My Heart triumphed again today in the world because of your response.

May My Peace be established in those who do not have it.

May My Faith be propagated like the subtle aroma of the Universe.

May My Love expand like the blowing of the wind and may all feel the hope of living in God, forever.

I bless you and those who most need it in this world, as I did on the Mount of Beatitudes, lifting up My right Hand toward My Father, placing My left Hand over My Heart, which is the Heart of God, opening up the Heavens, I have invoked the Holy Spirit.

Thus, I bless you in the Holy name of My Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I have come to the shore, to call you, as I did with the apostles.

Yesterday I heard this song and today I wish you to do it in gratitude to My Father.

You may go in peace.
