DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF SAO PAULO, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN??

Dear children,

As a whisper of the Holy Spirit of God, I have come here to inspire within your lives the search for peace and goodness for the world.

The praying voice of the mothers of the world already resonates in My maternal Heart, and this makes it possible for the spirit of virginity and female purity to be preserved within the world. Even this, My children, is not sufficient, because the debt of humanity is more than spiritual, it has become universal.

Therefore, your Heavenly Mother unites you in the oratory of Her Heart of Light so that, united to all mothers, the planet in these times reaches a higher degree of love, beyond any error.

If the mothers loved as I love, prayed as I pray, and cried out as I cry out, I assure you, dear mothers, that the victory of My Immaculate Heart would be visible in all your hearts.

I only wish to teach you, dear mothers, the simple things of My maternity: to be patient, persevering and to love all My children as I love you, without conditions nor judgments.

If that is the case, your souls will soon be united to Mine, and we will be only one wellspring, only one feminine life expressed throughout the cosmos for the love to God, Our Lord.

Mothers, continue praying constantly and continue walking by My side, together we will pass this transition, and, in the end, the maternal love will triumph, and the planet will heal from the lack of maternal love. The world as a whole must accept the maternal spirit so that souls may find consolation and be reborn in life.

I thank all the praying mothers for responding to My call!

Peace be in the heart of all innocent mothers,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
