Apparition of the Glorified Christ Jesus for the 51st Marathon of Divine Mercy, in the city of Santa Fe, Argentina, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

Today I come so that you may adore the precious Blood of Jesus and so that, through My Wounds, you contemplate the Mystery of My Resurrection.

These five Wounds, which are like five suns, were given to the world and its humanity to bring the salvation and conversion of souls. They are still an unknown mystery, the five Wounds of your Lord, as is also His precious Blood that was shed on the Cross, to the depths of the Earth, to re-consecrate the world to the Divine Plan of the Creator.

These are the five Wounds that I bring to you today so that your illnesses may be healed, so that your wounds may be closed, so that the very depths of the consciousness may be redeemed by the powerful Light of My five Wounds.

Today, I pour out upon the world, once again, this mystery of My Passion, which has been culminating on the height of Mount Calvary, when the Blood, the Water and the pain of your Lord, in greatest agony, was redeeming the world so as to be able to give it a new chance of being with the Creator in spiritual dignity.

At that time, the holy women, together with Mary, My beloved Mother, were with John and with some others who are not written of in the Bible, at the foot of the Cross, contemplating the mystery of the Passion, of the Death and the Redemption of humanity through the sacrifice of Her beloved Son.

Today I do not come to give you the pain the world makes Me feel in these times.

Today I come to give you the powerful mystery of My five Wounds, which can be venerated and honored by all the creatures of this planet through the Adoration of the Most Holy Eucharistic Body, as well as through the contemplation of and devotion to the five powerful Wounds of your Lord.

In each of the Wounds, and through each one of them, I made a sacrifice for God that, although it was not mine to experience, I was giving with an inexplicable and infinite love, after having preached on this planet and having performed great miracles in this humanity.

Let these five Wounds, which are the symbol of the redemption of humanity, today pour upon you the powerful Blood so that your bodies may be bathed and washed by the divine Source of Reparation and Healing, so that many more souls yield to this mystery through their adoration and love for My Sacred Heart.

Feel how today this spiritual Blood washes you completely. Feel how each particle of your beings and each atom is touched by the spiritual Light of My Blood so that all may be renewed, redeemed and healed by My unfathomable intercession.

When I was on the Cross, I experienced many things that humanity still does not know. That is why I am here, companions, to have you relive the mystery of My Passion and My Death, not as a painful sorrow or an affliction, but rather as a victory, so that each one of you, in these times, dares to die each day to the self so that I may be in you and thus work, to the point that you do not recognize yourselves in a very few days.

I would like the souls of the world to consider My five Wounds as a celestial victory and that, in spite of having suffered them, My Heart did not stop emanating Love, the Love that defeated death, the Love that defeated all pain, the Love that defeated injustices and that transcended the times. The invincible Love of My Heart that is poured out like a flow of Light and that thirsts, thirsts greatly for souls.

I wish all to be able to be a part of My mystery so that you may understand, live and experience the expansion of My divine Consciousness and all that I have yet to infinitely give to the souls of the world that accept being a part of the mystery of My five powerful Wounds and of the perpetual Adoration of My divine Blood once spilled on the Cross.

Feel how today this Blood redeems you and carries all toward the inner void, where why, answer and meaning do not exist, because in the eternal void of God your souls can live the fullness of being merged with the joy of My Spirit and be above all the cruelties of the world, which offend the Heart of God and His Creation.

If you place yourselves in My Wounds, I will be able to place Myself in you, in the space or the place where healing, redemption, and light are needed.

I do not come seeking personal realizations nor individual triumphs from you. I need hearts in this time that are available to live this mystery, for if you are in My Wounds, you will be a part of My Blood and I will make of you something new, something that is so hard for you to achieve and that for Me, because I am your Master and Lord, nothing is impossible.

Today I come to invite you, companions, and also the souls of the world, to become part of My Celestial Congregation that adores My precious and divine Blood, within the consciousness of the Celestial Church, something that is not material, but rather completely non-material, something that comes from Divine Purpose and the emanation of the Source, of which you can be a part while you are here on Earth and can celebrate with Me, not only the Mystery of My Passion through the Sacraments offered, but also adore Me and contemplate Me through the five powerful Wounds and My divine and precious Blood.

I need these Codes of Light that I achieved on the Cross through sacrifice, Death and Resurrection, to be available to the souls of the world. You alone will have a part to play, companions, that of being wholly united to this mystery of the five powerful Wounds and the divine Blood of your Redeemer. This will help the most sinning souls, which are all over the world, to receive, through this mystery and your full devotion to Me, an inexplicable Grace and an opportunity, just as you are consciously having it today.

Do not allow this mystery to move through you today as if it were the wind blowing on your faces. Allow the sowing of devotion to the five Wounds of your Lord and His powerful Blood, Blood that will bring you freedom, redemption and an exorcism from evil.

At the foot of Mount Calvary, not only My enemies were to be found, and I say enemies so that you may understand what I want to tell you. In truth, the power of My Love and of My five principal Wounds unconditionally loved those who punished Me up to the foot of the Cross.

My wish is that through this pain I have felt for the world, in an inexplicable agony until three in the afternoon on a Friday, more than two thousand years ago, you may be able to convert, transfigure and forgive, as I have done, all the suffering caused to My Heart during that time.

But now, companions, what I need is that in the state of your profound awakening, you can forgive what you have still not forgiven and that today, through the Sacrament of Communion and of Reconciliation, you truly do it for Me.

I already know what is in your core, what it is that weighs on you, what it is that causes bitterness, what generates the thirst in you for a profound and true love. But in the mystery of My five Wounds and in those who are devoted to them, all these causes are resolved through the simple act of opening the heart and also the soul so the divine spiritual Blood of your Lord may enter into the depths of your consciousnesses, into the most impenetrable roots of error.

This is one of the many aspects of Christ the Redeemer, mysteries that are unveiled in the Celestial Church and in which blessed souls participate, in perpetual communion, together with the angels.

If souls truly sought My Consciousness, the purification of the world would not be necessary, nor the catastrophes, the wars, or the illnesses that in these times have become conundrums for the human consciousness, for all the human science that is separated from God.

On the height of Mount Calvary, I came to live all these mysteries for you, and to sow them in the consciousness of the planet, to establish them in souls that, throughout the ages and all the events, would be called by Me to become a part of the army of the end of times.

At this moment, you are in the last phase of these times. You are participants in the last great event of humanity. You are part of a transition, of the great change of consciousness and of an inexplicable redemption that the Universe of God is offering to all, without conditions, because there will be no other opportunity. I cannot promise, companions, what will not happen.

For this reason, in a spirit of surrender, of rejoicing, and of adoration, I come to ask the world for devotion to My five powerful Wounds and My precious and divine Blood so that, through many more souls, I can aid the world, banish suffering, and heal the hearts in need of light and love.

Today you are all being called to become part of My Celestial Congregation in devotion to My five powerful Wounds and My divine Blood.

In each part of your body, feel My precious Blood and enter into communion with this mystery. Do not try to understand it, but rather open to this experience of love that is little deserved by the souls of the world, but that My Grace allows all things, so as to erase the pain and transcend miseries.

Let your hearts be washed by this Blood. Allow each corner of your beings to be touched by My divine Blood and leave here feeling different, renewed by this Mystery of My priestly Consciousness.

Today, before the doors of My Celestial Church, make the offering of your souls to God, so that the Father may contemplate them in His divine and infinite Mercy and, on this day of Grace and Redemption, everything, everything may be repaired.

And let us celebrate, companions, through My Divine Blood, the mystery of the Sacraments, divine and cosmic Science that brings souls and lives inexplicable Graces, divine events in the human consciousness, doors that open to redemption.

And today especially, I have come with the Angel in charge of the devotion and the Adoration of My five powerful Wounds and My divine and precious Blood. It holds in its hands, within a crystal tube, the Blood that was spilled at the Cross, especially My right Foot, which is the Foot that came to establish the Will of God in the world; and it was that Will which defeated the enemy and threw it down into its abyss up to these times.

Each part of My Body is a symbol of God, because My Body is now glorified. My Matter has become light, although it continues to be an illuminated human being. My Glorified Body is part of the universe and the new science for future humanity. My Body is the new genetics for the Christs that will awaken in the redemption.

My Heart allows this so that souls may become more aware that here, in this moment and at this hour, not only Jesus, the Nazarene, speaks to you, but the King of kings, Who ascended to the Heavens and is on the right side of God, governing all the worlds.

Let us celebrate this moment, under the spirit of My Celestial Church, so that many more Graces may fill your hearts and lives and each one awakens their gift, the gift that you have come to give in service to God and for this planet.

Feel yourselves to be a part of the newly redeemed and do not be distressed anymore. Celebrate your spiritual resurrection with joy, because you as well as your brothers and sisters of the world that follow Me now, were dead before, but now are alive in your real being, forming part of the first preparatory ranks of My Second Coming.

No longer feel yourselves to be sinners. Feel saved by the divine Blood of your Lord and protect this spiritual state so that nothing and nobody may stain it.

At the foot of My Celestial Church, your divine Master and Lord, in the presence of His five powerful Wounds and the spiritual affluent of His divine Blood, will expand this Mystery of Love and of Redemption, not only to the four corners of the Earth and the five continents, but also to these elements that will be part of the celebration of today's Supper.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

We may stand up, knowing that the Master is present to bless these elements and that, at the doorway of the Celestial Church, we are being recognized, through the intercession of Jesus, as worthy children of God.

Song: "By the Wounds of Jesus."

In this Blood, which was once shed on the Cross, is to be found the essence of Love, the Love that comes from the Source, which is eternal and infinite and brings joy, life, and wholeness to all the souls that drink this Sacrament.

May the divine Alliance of the devotees to the divine Blood of Jesus be established today on Earth until I return to the world.

In My sacred Eucharistic Body is reflected the gratitude to God that I transmit to all souls, because of Him having allowed Me to incarnate in this world and in this humanity so that all spirits, in all times and all ages, may know the grandeur of being worthy children of God.

And at the Altar of My Celestial Church, I tell you again that in that time, when I was gathered together with the twelve, I took the bread, gave thanks to God for that sacrifice; I gave it to them, saying: "Take and all eat of it, for this is My Body that will be handed over by the world for the forgiveness of sins."

In the same way, I took the sacred Chalice into My Hands, gave thanks to God for that sacrifice; I gave it to My apostles and to all those that were on the inner planes, saying to them: "Take and all drink of it, for this is My Blood, the Blood of the New Covenant that will be shed by your Lord for the forgiveness of your sins." Remember to do this in remembrance of Me, until I return to the world.

In the power of My Celestial Church, let the Rays of Mercy expand into the world so that all souls may rise to their spiritual life. Amen.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Song: "You are here."
