

Saturday, May 14 of 2016

Daily Message of Mary, Rose of Peace, transmitted in the Marian Center of Aurora, Paysandu, Uruguay, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

Dear children,

One who lives for God and lovingly works for Him forgets about any kind of results and deeply loves the unknown, without knowing if someday they will receive an answer.

For this reason, true missionaries are very few at this time. But the soul that is encouraged to cross the threshold toward the fulfillment of the Will of the Father, will receive everything they need to accomplish their task.

When the consciousness takes some time to respond or delays doing so because of the ordinary matters of life, the Grace of God receives the inner call of that soul that cannot act freely. At that moment, children, between the soul and the universe a late response is generated, and the universe itself will have to wait for a new cycle to be able to send the message or the instructions in some way to that consciousness.

On the other hand, when the soul, blindly and without preconceptions or ideas, spiritually adheres to the Will of God without anything stopping it, the whole universe that surrounds that soul becomes dynamic and invincible, because there is a perfect relationship between that soul and the continuous flow of the universe.

In this time, to respond to the Will of God, for humanity, means to have no limitations nor impose anything, because this is the time of the test of faith and of absolute trust that everything that must be accomplished is within the life and the heart of each human being.

In this definitive time, through their actions, souls will define all things, even their own spiritual destiny.

With the infinite universe of duality being present, souls must choose which path to follow and which experience to have without feeling tied to anything. Everything that happens afterward will be the result of a true choice. For this reason, the call of the universe descends so that the eyes of the soul may be open and not lose the awareness and the opportunity to serve and transform.

As your Messengers, We know that each soul is in a different school. The universe expects everyone to someday become awake and accomplish the mission that My Son has entrusted to you in the end of times.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who is in prayer for all,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace