

Monday, May 23, 2016

Daily message received of Mary, Rose of Peace, transmitted in the Marian Center of Aurora, Paysandú, Uruguay, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

Dear children:

As the Mother of Jesus, I lost My son, beloved and glorified by God, during His Passion and Death.

My sorrow was the sorrow of God for seeing so much human indifference. This human indifference that My Son and I, as His Mother, had to transmute from the moment He was handed over to the Pharisees.

Thus, in a profound and heavy pain of a Mother, I had to give to God what I loved the most, and had gestated in My womb of Light.

In that moment, your Mother from Heaven, as a woman and servant of God, trusted in what was happening and at no time did God abandon us, even though the Passion of Christ was extremely harsh and difficult to bear.

When a mother loses a child, it is like losing a part of herself, something the human mother herself generated within, in her heart.

When a maternal bond is broken by the loss of a beloved child, spiritually or physically, there is a moment when the consciousness lives a deep solitude and emptiness, even more when this child is indifferent to everything.

Thus, while still suffering the cross of the world, Christ gave Me humanity as my child, so that new consciousnesses had the Grace of being redeemed by God.

God sends new consciousnesses to the arms of a mother so that they can be attended to and from then on a new cycle is presented to the life of the souls, and the children that have not taken the step or have remained indifferent, go through another school of love and forgiveness, until they are able to achieve true unity.

There are many children who feel forgotten and who are waiting to love and be loved; for this reason, the Father sends them to renew the time and the life of everyone.

I thank you for responding to My Call!

In prayer and faith,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace