

Friday, June 2 of 2017

Daily Message of Mary, Rose of Peace, transmitted in the city of Assisi, Perugia, Italy to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

With the blowing of the wind, your Heavenly Mother arrives in the Land of the dear son and master, Saint Francis of Assisi, to remind the world and humanity of the love they are losing for Creation and for the Kingdoms of Nature.

On this day, your Heavenly Mother reminds you of the humility of Saint Francis, so that you may search for it within yourselves, given the lack of innocence in humanity.

Today I remind you of the purity of Saint Clare, so you may find it within yourselves, given the lack of chastity, sobriety and silence there is in the world.

In this phase of the pilgrimage, may these divine virtues of the saints and masters, Francis and Clare of Assisi, inspire the search for a more peaceful, merciful and charitable life with that which is worthy and in likeness to you.

Your Heavenly Mother teaches you and reminds you of these paths of Christian and Franciscan spirituality, since nowadays, the life and continuity of the religious orders, as well as the essence that created them, are being lost.

For this reason, your Lord Jesus Christ comes to aid the souls that have fallen into ignorance and indifference in their religious and spiritual life.

The Lord comes to lift up with His Hands what has fallen to the ground more than a thousand years ago, and which was the impulse that opened the doors for humanity to experience Christic life.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who blesses you,

Your Mother Maria, Rose of Peace