MESSAGE FOR THE APPARITION IN THE CITY OF OSLO, NORWAY, TRANSMITTED BY THE MOST HOLY MOTHER AND QUEEN OF THE WORLD, THE VIRGIN MARY TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA

Today, you have seen My Glory cross the heavens of this planet and of this nation, in this way to hear and feel, through your hearts, the will of God, that I bring in My Divine word.

I Am the Mother of the World, I Am the Universal Mother. My gaze contemplates each particle of life existing in this universe. My Heart loves and supports all the creatures of God, all the consciousnesses of all the kingdoms of nature, that, with profound love, were gestated in the maternal womb of Creation, in the feminine Source of Life, in My cosmic Heart.

My children, today I come to reveal to you not only with words, but also with the profound feeling of your souls, the true face that today lives My Universal Consciousness. Today I want to make known to you that life does not begin and neither does it end in this world, that life continues beyond this universe; and, after this world, you will discover others that will lead you to new learnings and that will bring you to continue on the path of evolution that you have been treading since your origin in the Heart of God.

Today, I want that you bring My words only to the heart and permit that the codes that I deposit in My word may be imprinted in your lives.

Soon will come the time in which you will be able to confirm for your minds what today you live in your little lives. Soon will come the time in which you will look from Heaven and will be able to contemplate with compassion all that you lived on this world and you will see that, in a planet that was sick and that lived in profound darkness, a new Light came and illuminated the abysses, rescued those who were lost, liberated those who were imprisoned in suffering and ignorance, elevated those who were fallen and made to be born from the old human a redeemed race.

As Mother and Lady of this world, I come with the Mission of conducting all the souls to the Celestial Kingdom and also to transform the heart of those who, with bravery, will persevere and will see descend the Kingdom of God to this Earth, rendering it similar to all the Divine Kingdoms that exist in the universe.

My beloveds, with love recognize that you know nothing about the universal life, that you are, lost in looking, but full of hope, at a heaven that today is opened before your eyes and your hearts. Recognize, in humility, how little you know of and live the Divine Life and in this way, as children, let yourselves be guided by the One that, sent by God, descends to this world to remove the veils that cover your eyes, to remove you from all of the ignorance that you live as humanity and in which you are submerged each day a little more, without realizing what you are living.

Do not fear to recognize Me as Your Mother and Lady, because My love for each being of this world is greater than what your hearts can conceive. So much so My beloveds, that I have come over the centuries to conduct humanity and, each time My presence comes to the world, I bring humanity one step further in its consciousness. And now, I come to your encounter, manifesting all the faces through which you can understand Me, but in the end, I will unite all My manifestations in the world and I will show you the Face that unites all the faces: My Supreme Universal Consciousness.

I only wait and prepare you each day, so that you may receive Me in truth.

I love you and thank this nation, because it called Me in spirit, trusted My sacred help and today it sees, before its life, the answer of My Heart.

Mary, Mother and Lady of the World
