

Wednesday, July 5, 2017

Daily Message of Mary, Rose of Peace, transmitted in the city of Santiago de Compostela, La Coruña, Spain, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

From the just and the meek peace will be born.

From the good and the peacemakers fraternity will emerge.

From the humble and the deprived, divine Providence will awaken.

From the empty of self and from the persevering will be built the inner temple of the Church of My Son.

From the simple and loving, Divine Purity will arise.

From those who give of themselves and the selfless, the Work of God will be carried out.

From the silent and the still, all mysteries will be shown.

From those who pray and the consistent the energy of Healing will appear.

And those who always flaunted everything will have nothing more; because God will take away the kingdom from those who call themselves powerful; with His Justice, He will destroy the idolatrous and will give all the treasures to the most unprotected.

That which was misused for decades will be corrected, all assets will reach the hands of the poorest, and God will take away the satisfaction of the rich.

He will show Himself in the simplest and will preach His Sacred Words through humble hearts, for He has recognized the plea of His beloved Servant for all Her sinful children of humanity.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who blesses you,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace