

Monday, April 24 of 2017

Daily Message of Mary, Rose of Peace, transmitted in the Marian Center of Figueira, Minas Gerais, Brazil to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

The Gift of the Fear of God

The Gift of the Fear of God is one of the seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit. It is an inner virtue that God placed in souls from the moment of their spiritual conception in the universe.

And from that point on, the Gift of the Fear of God, as well as love and unity, were small sparks placed in all the spirits created to live and evolve throughout the universes.

The Gift of the Fear of God was conceived in the One Source, and from there, as with the other Gifts, the Holy Spirit took charge of distributing it as awareness among the creatures of the universe. This was possible through the service provided by the holy angels from the moment in which beings emerged from the Reservoirs of Light.

Before each spirit left to experience its lessons in some part of the universe, the angels sowed the Gift of the Fear of God within them so that creatures, in their different schools, would be able to remain united with God.

This Gift, which is up to now still not understood, at some stage of the path of the being, awakens the possibility of perceiving or of becoming aware of becoming separated from God.

The Gift of the Fear of God generates the remembrance in the spirit, as well as in Creation, of our commitment to the Highest and of how much we must reciprocate with our Eternal Father.

In the same way the child is gestated in the womb of their mother and is fed through the umbilical cord, the Gift of the Fear of God is a Principle, and at the same time a state, that reminds us of the importance of remaining united through threads of light to the Supreme Source.

The Gift of the Fear of God manifests when the consciousness separates from the path of God and experiences all sorts of difficulties to the point of not knowing how to re-engage with the path it once abandoned.

The Gift of the Fear of God reminds us that, as spiritual beings, we cannot lose our affiliation with the Father, because if we do so, everything becomes more difficult.

The Gift of the Fear of God always helps us to look for balance and harmony in all things and to remember what our true purpose is.

In these times, many souls experience the Gift of the Fear of God when feeling distanced from the Father because of all the reasons of material and inner life.

The Gift of the Fear of God helps us to not have the human consciousness make decisions in an impulsive way nor adopt triggered actions. This Gift has the First Ray of Willpower as its essence because its purpose is to stir up everything in the consciousness to remove it from the point where it is.

The Gift of the Fear of God makes us aware of our true actions and demands, corrects us and, at the same time, places us on the correct pathway.

When the Gift of the Fear of God appears in the life of a being, it is a sign that something deep, material and spiritual will need to be reviewed in order to straighten it out.

The Gift of the Fear of God elevates the consciousness to a true reality, making evident all that separated it from the Love of the Father.

This Gift must rebuild the ties of love and peace with the universe from the moment in which the surface consciousness recognizes itself as small, humble and in likeness to the neighbor. The Gift of the Fear of God helps us to return to what is true and not superfluous, awakens the spirit of charity and transparency.

The Gift of the Fear of God aligns the consciousness with what is higher. In this way, it feels loved and accepted by something that is cosmic and divine, in spite of recognizing itself as imperfect.

This Gift allows for the reactivation within us of trust in the One so that we may participate in His Source of renewal and healing.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who blesses you,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace