DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

Dear brothers and sisters in My Father the Most High:

It has been a while since I have seen as today, a flock so united to My Purpose.

To those who are tired, I give you My Rest.

To those who are overwhelmed, I give you My Eternal Relief.

To those who suffer in the depths of the heart, I give you My Courage, My Faith, My Mercy.

In this way I want to see My New Soldiers of the end of the times, disposed beyond themselves, surrendered beyond their wills, encouraged beyond any inner concern, because whoever trusts in Me, will prevail in this life and beyond life, whoever trusts in Me, will not fear, will have courage, courage that they will receive from the bravery of the Holy Spirit.

When once I said that My Good News was preached in My Name, I wanted to say that always My Words would be in those who were willing to overcome themselves out of love for others.

Dears, I wish that all at the same time could reach the Light of My Kingdom, because this Kingdom of Peace, Love and Glory is for all, but few servers are willing to abandon their old garments, so that, free, they may find Me as the only refuge of the hearts.

For this I ask according to the readiness of My Flocks, because I know that your lives are weak, but they may become strong as My Spirit, in order to receive always My Call.

I am here to bless you and thank you for the perseverance of the heart.

Dears, prayer moves and liberates the hearts, for this your answer has touched the depths of My Being and in this way, has given comfort to the God of Love. Justice has been lighter for those that would receive it strongly, this means that your seeds of love and prayer have been deposited in My Heart, I was repaired and restored by the love of your spirits.

For this I invite you to follow Me beyond yourselves, because what I want to reveal to you is not from this world, it comes from the Universe to find all My Followers. Guard the love that I radiate in your hearts.

I love you beyond the existence of each essence. I conduct you and I give you My Eternal Peace.

Under the Light and the Grace of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for answering to My Requests with the heart.

Your Lord, Christ Jesus
