Daily message of Mary, Rose of Peace, transmitted in the Marian Center of Aurora Paysandu, Uruguay, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

My dear children,

Praised be Jesus Christ in your beings and in all souls of the world!

Today I wish to draw your attention to an important point that speaks to you about the spirit of peacemaking and meekness, virtues that are completely unknown to My adversary and through which not a small bit of evil can be sown in the soul that lives these holy virtues.

Therefore, children, your peace and meekness will make you more humble and at the same time more free of yourselves, so that you can serve under the fire of service and plenitude.

The lack of peace and meekness in the souls of the world distances them far from the spirit of premeditation that leads them to sacred wisdom.

Today, for the love of God and your brothers and sisters, observe how your perpetual work with meekness is found.

Imitate My Son. A few days ago you experienced, from the heart, the profound spirit of His Passion. Thus, today you can understand that without peace and meekness, the humility that is necessary and urgent for these times does not exist.

As your Celestial Mother, I come to help you grow in the Love of God and, from this Divine Love, you may take steps in the emptiness of self and the divestment of the old patterns of a precarious and disoriented humanity.

My children, it will not be necessary for you to martyr yourselves with your thoughts and uncertainties for not being humble and grateful. Accept the hand that is extended towards you from the Kingdom of Heaven and thus, live the new attributes that will reform the entire third dimension Earth.

Even though many of My children do not realize that they are so separated from the essence of humble love and meekness, My adversary makes them believe that they already live it and, in truth, it is all an illusion.

Therefore, pray and ask God to remove from your hearts all arrogance and pride, crawling serpents that will lead you through the abysses of the world, far from the paradise of Our Lord.

The first step will be truly taken when you recognize your lack of peace and meekness. With the help of your Guardian Angel, you can renew your steps and you will be called to enter, with determination, into My school of the new disciples of Christ.

In this way, remember, beloved children, that the moment of your purification will help in the recovery of innocence which the denying humanity lost for having separated itself from the Mercy of God.

I thank you for responding to my call!

Who helps you to find the essence of true Love,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
