Daily Message of Mary, Rose of Peace, transmitted in the Marian Center of Aurora, Paysandu, Uruguay, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

I will be with you every day of your life and after this terrestrial life, because that is the maternal commitment of My pure Heart with each creature of this planet.

I will be with you in the victory of love and in the triumph of transformation, because each consciousness is called to take a step.

I will be with you in meekness and in silence, because each being must know the deepest part of themselves in order to be consecrated to the Plan of God.

I will be with you in loneliness, in errors and in sadness, because each stage of life that the soul goes through is for giving a little more of itself, until it serves completely.

I will be with you in each step of the spirit, because today, consciousnesses today are carried by the currents of the universe into living intense experiences that each day draw them closer to the path of Christic Love.

I will be with you at each decisive moment, because in this cycle, prayer will place each soul in the necessary place to be able to accomplish the Plan.

I will be with you in each gesture of love, because the world has forgotten to love with Divine Love and to bring the Universe of God to the planet.

I will be with you at each stage in life, because the apostles of Christ must wake up and live the mission entrusted to them.

In every human or spiritual experience, My Son will be with you, because souls must learn to conquer the Divine Kingdom in order to abandon the human condition.

The Three Sacred Hearts will be with all those who dare to say 'yes'.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who blesses you,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
