Daily Message of Mary, Rose of Peace, transmitted in the city of São Paulo, Brazil, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

Dear children,

In these times, God offers you a purification of consciousness so that you may take the steps toward a definite consecration.

In spite of being unknown to everyone, the purification of these times is the impulse of the universe, which is present to take apart the oldest and most resistant structures.

When souls trust, they adhere to this current process of purification and allow themselves to be renewed. The experience becomes milder for the consciousness that has never learned to be purified and to be freed from its own abysses.

On the contrary, if the soul places an inner barrier so that the purification cannot take place, it must unavoidably face the impact of the impulse of the universe, which fosters that purification in these times. The result of this will be a painful experience.

This is why My Son on the Cross taught you how to yield to Greater Will and how to lose your fear of not being able to control everything.

The impulse of purification comes in these times to the human consciousness to place it at another point in its evolution and awakening.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who unifies you and loves you,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
