

Tuesday, July 13, 2021

APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Behold the Mother of the helpless and of all refugees. See under My Mantle those who most suffer the chaos of these times.

I am the Mother of the immigrants and the exiled. Through My Heart, I am with each one of them, at this moment.

Behold the Mother of the cultures and of the original peoples. I have come to be with each one of their origins, their races and their cultures so that they may recover, through the spirit, the Divine Project that the Father thought of at the beginning, and which was painfully transgressed throughout times.

Behold the Mother who cries out for those who are exiled and for those who take refuge in far-away places, losing their homes, families and all life, seeking a safe place, a place of peace where, after having lost everything, they may have the hope to begin again.

This is why I am here, for those who suffer, for those who need to find their true destiny, for those who need to rehabilitate their lives and find the meaning of being in this world, in spite of suffering.

Behold the Mother of the refugee camps, of those who are marginalized and forgotten, the Mother who deeply knows the heart of each exiled and of each family; of those who expect from those who have more, that they can do something for them, with plans of solidarity, of charity and of help to relieve the suffering.

A refugee should be understood with love in order to understand their lives and also their past, because what God mostly hopes for in this time is that those who serve the ones who are most in need may have a deep sensitivity and a very broad compassion to understand, internally, the suffering of the refugees.

As a part of one universal family, I also come as a Mother who escaped persecution in the times of My Son, a Mother that was a refugee in Egypt and that on the path of this great and arid exile I came to know, in the depths of the heart, what it is to feel disposed of, repudiated, humiliated, and, above all, omitted by their brothers and sisters, by their own people.

Therefore, My children, I know what it means to be a refugee, I know what it means to be in a land that has never belonged to me and I know what it means to lose the values of human dignity and love.

Therefore, today I invite all the servers and those who postulate to be missionaries of Love, Mercy and Charity, to first feel, within their hearts, the importance to relieve suffering before solving the problems, deeply understanding the wounds of the refugee and of the repudiated, of the one who has lost everything, and today has nothing.

But also, I am the Lady of the Oceans, of the great Universal Womb, which holds within it all the essences of this Creation: especially, the souls that risk to cross the oceans for an opportunity and do not reach the goal they have proposed to themselves. Therefore, I am the Mother of the helpless, of those who are not accepted.

I am the Mother of those who are alone, from every point of view, of the ones who do not have the opportunity to recover their human dignity. For this reason, I call those who serve the refugees, in every corner of this world, to sensitize, to go beyond the forms, methods or even the projects. To feel the refugee as a brother and not as a problem that no ones wants to assume.

Until humanity solves this situation of considering those who suffer with love and not only with science, the wars in this world will not stop and the triumph of My Immaculate Heart will be limited by those who still do not want to change.

I give thank for the bravery of those who strive and of those who surrender to be little specks of sand in this vast world of problems, little seeds of light that are sown in imperceptible and even unrecognizable places, little spheres of light and of love that are lit in the great darkness of these times by means of the service for the refugees and of the needy so that the Divine Pity of the Heart of My Son may descend to Earth.

In reverence, My children, I invite you to meditate on My Words. This is how I call you to the apostolate, not only of the heart but also to the apostolate of the definitive service, of the conscious and immediate surrender before the great need of this humanity.

Do not forget what I have told you, a little time ago, that until the refugees are considered as brothers, and not only as persons or problems, the wars in the world will not stop, and the triumph of My Immaculate Heart will be limited by those who do not want to change.

Today, what I present to you is one of the so many urgent needs, which you must discern with the consciousness and with the inner senses, and not only with the mind or with what you believe you know. There, you will find the path of sensitivity and also of compassion, you will find the path that will lead you to the answer of the Divine Wisdom and to the immediate answer to all the needs that are present in the world today.

Today, I also ask you within this context, My children, to pray for the oceans, not only for what lives within it, but also for the whole Circle of Fire of the Pacific.

The world, with its actions, rebellions and conflicts, attracts towards itself the most unknown hells that dwell in the greatest depth of the Earth.

Do not allow this to happen, My children, may the small sacrifices and surrenders repair these situations of the world so that the Angel of Grace may descend and not the Angel of Justice, so that all the essences, especially the most lost, may be considered by the Celestial Universe in the great plan of rescue that everyone is called to experience with Me.

I want to thank all those who have adhered to the call yesterday, to all those who readily responded to My maternal invitation, I hope and wish that this may keep happening, because, still, My maternal Heart and My whole Divine Consciousness must keep intervening in this humanity and on this planet.

I not only need that you be the prayer of the heart itself, but I also need you to be bridges that build in unity and in brotherhood so that the spiritual Hierarchy may help this world.

My Hands, full of Grace, of Mercy and Love, not only wish to pour out these attributes upon you, but also wish to pour them out upon the world, upon the places that most need them at the moment: upon the refugee camps, places that have been taken over by chaos.

Through the Work of Mercy of the humanitarian missions, many of you, beloved children, have learned about fraternity, a felt, not artificial fraternity; a fraternity that comes closer and even offers tenderness and compassion to relieve suffering.

I want all those who serve in a humanitarian way, and those who someday will postulate to serve in the needs of this world, not to forget to be tender in fraternity so that they can be compassionate with others.

I come to ask the world to contemplate the humanitarian situation so that great catastrophes may be avoided in humanity, like those that have happened this last year.

In August, I will come to ask the world, for the last time, for the reconsecration of My Immaculate Heart so that the majority of souls, especially those most lost, condemned today to hell, may have the Grace of rescue and of liberation. But also in August, I will come to ask for fasting and sacrifices, to avoid and reverse the situation of this pandemic, which still keeps taking souls to eternal condemnation.

I will come to re-establish, in the month of August, what I once asked for in Fatima; not only that Russia may be consecrated to My Immaculate Heart in a definitive way, but also that all nations, through the devoted and prayerful souls, with their fervent prayers, may reconsecrate the world to My Immaculate Heart because in the month of August, for the last time, I will have the door of My Heart open so that all consciousnesses and essences may find refuge and the path that will take them to God.

I know that you cannot be gathered with Me like in other times. The memory of these moments and of the meetings with all the pilgrims was the great impulse that used to move Me to be here, and, as a Mother, I know that many are in need of this. But while this may not be possible, My children, gather in My Immaculate Heart. There lies the Temple that takes you to the encounter with God, with His eternal Love.

Today, I ask you to gather in My Heart as souls, but also as praying souls, because it will be in your spirits where the Grace of God will be, Grace that will strengthen you in this time to live your tests and your deserts.

It is for this reason, but also for other reasons, that today I still come here, to this sacred house of the Sacred Tree of Figueira, so that you may remember every day from where to pick the fruits of conversion, in this Tree of spiritual abundance and infinite knowledge.

Children, My arms are open to you, My Heart is exposed to you. When you need, come to My arms, but be like children that lose fear of suffering. In My Heart you will always find Peace, you will always find God. Never forget this.

Today I come to celebrate, together with My priests of this congregation and of all congregations throughout the world, so that My intentions, which I have exposed and expressed to you today, may be heard by the Eternal Father. Because if humanity loses its sensitivity of the heart, it will lose peace, it will lose its innocence; and this, children, must not happen.

Also for this reason, I am here, so that you may be more sensitive in heart and less indifferent.

Before the angels of transubstantiation of the Celestial Church of Christ, let us celebrate, in simplicity, as in those times when My Son re-appeared after His Passion to announce that He had resurrected in victory and in Love within the human heart.

Let us celebrate.

Today I have called the guardian mothers of the inner Cenacle of the priests of this Order so that they may share with Me, in the name of Our Lord Jesus Christ, this moment of ceremony and supplication to Our Creator Father so that, through the spirit of sensitivity, the principle of Maternity may give an impulse and awaken within hearts the ardent need to serve and relieve human suffering.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

Lord Jesus, we offer this wine to You, with all of Our Hearts so that, like at the Wedding of Cana, You may transubstantiate and convert our human condition. Amen.

Lord Jesus, we offer this water to You so that You may also transubstantiate it with Your Spirit and, just like in the Baptism of the River Jordan, we may renew Our Sacrament of Baptism, and, by means of Your Spirit of consoling Love, all of us may renew our vows of service and of adherence to the Plan of Love. Amen.

At that night, when Jesus was gathered with His apostles, He surrendered and offered Himself to the world in this great Sacrament of Love and Redemption. This is why, moments before he was handed over, Jesus took the bread, elevated it and offered it to the Father so that it might be converted into His Body. Then He broke it, and, offering it to the apostles, He said, "Take it and eat, because this is My Body, which will be surrendered for you, for the forgiveness of sins."

"We Praise You, Lord, and we bless You. Amen." (three times)

Before finalizing the supper, Jesus took the Chalice into His Hands, and, offered it to God, so that it might be converted into His Blood. Then He passed it to His disciples, saying to them, "Take it and drink, because this is the Chalice of My Blood, the Blood of the New and Eternal Covenant, which will be shed by your Lord, for the remission of all faults. Do this in remembrance of Me."

"We praise You, Lord, and we bless You. Amen." (three times)

Mother of the priests and all Christians, of those who have faith and trust in Your immaculate Love, as a part of this humanity, we offer this Sacrament to Your Son, for the conversion of sinners and all situations that urgently need spiritual assistance.

As Your Son taught to us, we offer the prayer of Our Father so that this sacrifice of the altar may be consummated and may be in conformity with the Will of God.

Prayer: Our Father.

May the Peace of Christ be in each one of those present and in each heart that is united at this moment.

And with the same faith that the Roman centurion had, we repeat this deep but simple prayer:

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the Word, and I shall be healed.

Amen.

In reverence and love, before the Glorious Heart of Mary and the Sacred Heart of Jesus, we announce this Spiritual Communion of each heart of this world with the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

*Most Holy Trinity,
father, Son and Holy Spirit,
I adore Thee profoundly.
I offer Thee the Most Precious Body,
Blood, Soul and Divinity
of Jesus Christ,
present in all the tabernacles of the world,
in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences by which He is offended.
And by the infinite merits of the Sacred Heart and the Immaculate Heart of Mary,
I beg you the conversion of poor sinners.*

Amen.

I thank you for having responded to My call!

And I confess to you that, through this recent exercise of Spiritual Communion, My thorned Heart is more than relieved, because the only thing I wish for is that you love as I love you, that you may feel as I feel for each one of you.

So that the aspirations and intentions of your Celestial Mother may be fulfilled, according to the Will of God, I invite you to retreat with a very simple but very significant song, which I invite you to feel with the heart, called "Land of Mary".

I bless you, under the Light of the Sacred Heart of the Lord, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Go in Peace!