Daily Message of Mary, Rose of Peace, transmitted in the city of Boa Vista, Roraima, Brazil, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

When a heart repents and does not stop trying every day, the spirit itself gradually acquires ever-greater virtue.

When the heart repents and confesses to Christ, its soul gains room to be able to banish what for a long time has disturbed it. From this opening, that soul gains new doors open so that, step by step, redemption may be established.

Dear children, purification requires a complete severing from all those codes that do not allow the life of the consciousness and all of its existence to evolve.

My Heart of a Mother draws close to all of Her children to show them the true path of holiness and of consecration.

When the soul awakens to live the Divine Will, it enters into a school that the majority of hearts do not live because of being immersed in the world.

Now, your Mother shows you that the path of consecration is conquered through each vow that life imposes to be able to mature, purify and ascend. This means, My children, that to banish the old codes of humanity is not easy; with the constant help of the power of prayer, everything gradually transforms, when only the spirit of patience acts.

All souls are called to enter this path and thus place themselves on the stairway of the consecration to God, a consecration that will help in the redemption of humanity.

To consecrate the soul means to consecrate the life and all of the consciousness. This needs much peace and serenity to be able to embrace new and more spiritual principles.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who teaches you to walk in faith,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
