Daily Message of Mary, Rose of Peace, transmitted in the city of Capilla del Monte, Cordoba, Argentina, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

My wisdom is as beautiful as the rosebush, each petal of the roses represents the beauty achieved by the souls in My garden: the beauty of redemption, the beauty of forgiveness, the beauty of conversion, the beauty of Compassion and of Mercy.

My Heart pours out all Graces upon you, so that your lives may go through the path of rehabilitation. Do not allow your inner realities, children, to wither the rosebushes of My garden.

May the beauty and the love that you express in My immaculate garden be the portal that leads you to reencounter, every day, the divine commitment with God, the Creator.

In these times, each prayer offered by your lives opens the doors so that your consciousnesses may purify the heart and free it from all evil.

I leave you the remembrance of belonging to My gardens of Light, so that when you go through the time of purification and of confirmation, you have the devotional strength necessary for walking with courage at the side of your Heavenly Mother.

I bless you, I absolve you, I assemble you all in the powerful Mercy of My maternal Heart.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who leads you toward higher beauty,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
