

Saturday, March 23, 2013

Weekly Message of the Blessed Virgin Mary, transmitted in the Marian Center of Figueira, Minas Gerais, Brazil, to Mother María Shimani de Montserrat

My beloved children,

Today, I come, after My Son and the Most Chaste Heart of Saint Joseph, to give all of My Love to the servers of the Plan of God on Earth.

Feel, feel My Heart that pours out the Holy Love of God over you, that Love which Our Father allows Me to bring here directly from His Heart.

I have attentively listened to the instruction of My son José Trigueirinho, who speaks to you about the Law of Sacrifice.

Listen to this instruction with the love of your heart, until your consciences understand that this Law, which should govern your hearts of servers in this time, must be received with joy; for it will allow you to transcend your debts to God and will also allow you to balance the debts of humanity.

Listen to the voice of those who speak in the name of My Son, because through them, day after day, He is giving you guidance for your lives.

Be brave, My little ones; I am your Mother and take you by your hands so that you may cross the narrow bridges that move over the abyss. Do not fear anything, for the Paradise on the other side awaits those who dare to pass through those narrow bridges.

Today, in each of your hearts I want to leave a part of My warrior Love, which untiringly fights for the souls of all My children. Carry it in your heart and allow that Love to give you the impulse to always go forward.

I am the Woman clothed with the Sun, who will walk through the desert to give birth to the New Humanity, who will face that which wants to subjugate My beloved children.

Pray, My little souls, pray together with Me, so that the prophecies of the good may be fulfilled; and pray even more so that everything that can be avoided, Our Father with all His Love may convert into peace.

My blessed children, now more than ever, we must unite in the prayer of the heart so that, on the Return of the Redeemer, all the souls of this humanity may be open and awake to the Glory that My Son brings you from the universe.

Know that everything will happen in advance, so that before the enemy hatches its plans, everything will already be happening in the Heart of God.

My beloved Marian soldiers, unite in groups of prayer; pray without ceasing; multiply the soldiers that serve Me, because what will take place in the world will depend on everybody.

Open to the new that the Message of Christ brings to your consciousnesses and do not fear, for He, just like Me, will fight untiringly for you to enter His loving Heart, where you will always be protected.

Forward, little creatures of God; come to Me, run into My arms, for here you will always be in peace.

I again give you My maternal Love and bless you with My Celestial Light; blessed be.

Thank you for responding to My maternal call!

Mary, Mother of humanity, who comes clothed with the Sun