MESSAGE FOR THE SPECIAL APPARITION FOR THE ANNIVERSARY
OF THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA
TRANSMITTED BY MARY, QUEEN OF PEACE TO MOTHER SHIMANI

My beloved and little children:

In this time, in which My Maternal Consciousness approaches you more deeply to touch those places of your beings where the light of transformation has never arrived, I ask you to trust in that which My Maternal Spirit needs to do.

When a consciousness is transformed in truth, it lives a period in which all seems to be desert, aridity, desolation and even obscurity. Everything seems difficult and without an end; the souls feel a fear of losing what they considered as their identity, and fear not knowing what to do next. And the mind asks what will become of me when I am no longer myself? What will become of my life?

And I answer to you: wonderful things will happen, that have never happened, because the old man and the old woman will no longer be anymore, and My Son will be able to place the Water of Life, which He comes to bring to the world, in this new vessel that begins to arise.

Never again will you be slaves of your incomprehensions, of your desires, already there will be no way to tempt you so that you fall into the same errors, because the enemy yet will not find where to enter in your consciousnesses.

Peace will start to dwell always in the interior of each one, and it will sustain each spirit when any happening manifests itself in the exterior.

There will come a day in which the consciousness will be permanently united to the spirit and this will be able to bring, from the Heights, the Living Food that God the Father has available for His creatures, and all will share what each one receives from the universe.

But for this to be a reality, in all planes of consciousness, first we have to prepare it, and in this cycle all are being prepared for that which will come.

For this be in peace, trust in who guides you, surrender to the Divine Messengers, to My Immaculate Heart, and to the Immaculate Heart of My Son your uncertainties, your doubts and afflictions, and do not permit that the harassment of the enemy takes you away from the Major Purpose.

Transformation is necessary, difficult, but it brings us to accomplish the aspiration that humanity be converted into this new race that will appear on this blessed Earth.

And remember, My beloved children, that not only do you realize this surrender for yourselves, but for all those who remain asleep and, more than asleep, anesthetized by this poison that the enemy injects in the minds and the hearts of humanity, through some energies that are known as modernities.

Take up again the paths of the holy and fraternal love that My Son has taught all, defending yourself from all that is not pure and do not doubt, not for an instant, to seek for Me to share with Me your needs and afflictions.

In this time, My beloved children, those who enter into transformation need My assistance to maintain themselves firm in the purpose of changing, and I am here, available for all. Do not live alone and be anguished by these inner movements, because it is now when you have to seek Me the most.

Go forward My children. Do not doubt, do not fear, that I am here together with you, protecting your beings from any disturbance.

Be pacific and you will live in peace. Be loving and you will live in harmony. Be cautious and you will live in balance. Trust in Me and all will pass rapidly.

Surrender to the hands of the Great Potter, and permit that He realizes the Great Work, the new being, the fraternal being, the one who looks to God every day and brings to their brothers and sisters the Divine Breath that nourishes the souls so that they construct the new humanity.

I love you and I bless you, My dears.

I am always with you,

Mary, Mother and Queen of Transformation and Peace
