

Tuesday, October 13, 2015

APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY IN CALI, COLOMBIA, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

In this time, I want you to be My ambassadors of Peace, so that My Heart may travel the world through your hearts and essences, which are clear in the Eyes of God.

I waited a long time to be here today with you. I prayed and adored My Son, so that on this day, I could fill your hearts and the hearts of all your brothers and sisters of this country, who in spite of the consequences, never lost their faith in My Heart nor in the Most Sacred Heart of My Son.

But if I am here today, dear children, I am with all the Americas; I am with each one of you, bringing a piece of the Heaven of God, so that your lives may be sanctified through the Presence of My maternal Spirit.

Today, a great knot was untied by My merciful hands, and this was offered by your hearts through the prayer of the heart, which unites all your spirits with Mine, to thus concretize the Works of Peace.

If I come to this part of the world to proclaim with My Voice from Heaven, for this dear Colombia, it is also to seek, from your hearts, a continuation of your groups of prayer, which will be essential in these definitive times.

Finally, today My Heart does not cry. My Heart is glad on seeing hearts with such significant responses.

I deeply want the Heart of the Father, dear children, to be pleased on seeing your hearts filled with love and with prayer.

I want this spiritual impulse that I bring you today, dear children, to not be lost in your lives, but rather that your paths can be Christified in the name of the Lord.

Today I come from the universe to assemble all your souls in this greater task that, over the last months and through your intercession, we have prepared together so that all of this, on this holy day, be possible here in Colombia.

I would like to return here someday, because I know that here I can find simple hearts receptive to the Call of God and to this proposal of living peace in the end of times.

While on the other side of the world, many hearts are martyred and annihilated, I come to give you the spirit of My Grace so that your lives and families may testify to the Presence of God in these times through the Sacred Hearts. And if your hearts are consecrated today, you will be speaking a great 'yes' to the whole universe, and a new door will open so that other souls, through you, are able to reach My Heart.

My Son thirsts for you; I also thirst for your love.

Every day, throughout time and the centuries, I come to seek brave hearts that can help Me to concretize this Work of co-redemption.

Dear children, today My Heart leaves you a blessing, opening a new door to the universe so that your lives may recognize spiritual life; because today the time has come for your great awakening to this Divine Purpose that many do not want to see because of the great commitment it means to work for God and for His Plan of Redemption.

Today I come to bring relief to your hearts. Today I come to bring joy to this nation. From Heaven, a Ray touches the Earth through My maternal Presence.

Today, I unite this place with Fatima, so that all your spiritual life of prayer may be a great mirror of Light that reflects upon the world to release evil from the Earth and all the consequences of the chaos.

Persist, My very dear children; I come here to help and guide you. I come to bring you the state of My Celestial Peace because it is what your lives most need; it is what your souls wait for so as to be able to live in God in these times, in spite of the critical consequences that many of your brothers and sisters bring about in humanity.

Through My Most Sacred, Pure and Immaculate Heart, I pour out the Mercy of God upon you so that your faults may be dissolved and you may be consecrated again, in the fullness of My merciful Heart.

But today I am not alone here; your angels accompany My Celestial Presence. Today, with gladness, My Spirit celebrates with you and new seeds of Light are sown in your hearts.

Do not cease to water those seeds of Light with your prayers. Talents must sprout in each of you so that this Marian Work may expand throughout all the Americas, and all the Americas may be a great pillar of Light in the end of times.

In this place, in all these American peoples, are held precious relics of Light, potentials of the Holy Spirit that are kept in the spirits of all creatures, and beyond you, in all the Andes mountain range.

Imagine, dear children, how much spiritual abundance awaits you, how many divine keys can be given to all when your hearts and minds simply open to the conception of the universe, to that divine union with the totality of the Creation of God.

I come to bring you, dear children, a message of hope, not only to you, but to the world.

Pray, dear children, not only for your precious Earth, for your sacred people that have held the memory of the love for God.

Pray also for Venezuela, pray also for Ecuador. In this way, dear children, you will be opening the doors even further so that the angels of each nation are able to work through your hearts and manifest, in these times, the Purpose of God in each of you.

That is to say, I need you to be firm, resolved, so as to be able to follow Me in this call which I proclaim today in My Sacred name and the Love of My Son.

I know, dear children, that today you would like to tell Me many things, but My Heart knows it all and feels it all.

Keep My Words in your hearts, for I always listen to you. I contemplate your needs and pleas and, as a response of the Love of God, today your Most Holy Mother of the Universe is here, in Cali with all of Colombia, as a response to your request.

Do you understand, dear children, what that means in these times?

Do not fear, dear children, to be able to face your errors, so that these may be purified and transformed. Remember that in each of you there exists the Purity and Essence of God.

Awaken to that Purity that the Sanctuary of Lys-Fatima lovingly pours over you today, in your lives and all the lives of the world; freeing you from the prisons on the planet, from captivity, from the wrecks that many hearts of Mine are experiencing because of not being able to find peace and the simplicity of the heart.

But in your sacred land there is no lack of simplicity. You are simple. Thus, as your Mother of Divine Simplicity, I come to ask that you accompany Me on this journey, in this call that I make today to a world without peace; in this way, you will gladden the Heart of the Celestial Father, which is very injured by your brothers and sisters of the Earth.

Now, petition Me in the silence of your hearts.

I bless you all the time and visit your homes, when you open the door of prayer to Me. I rejoice when I see you praying with Me. I rejoice when you sing to My Heart, because it is the Heart of God.

As a sign of all this greatness of the universe of My Heart, today, in the Presence of the Holy Spirit, I again consecrate new children of My Immaculate Heart, which on October 13, show God that the Original Purity will not be erased from hearts, but rather will triumph until the New Earth.

Angels and archangels unite with this moment and the Spirit of God enters this nation to bring peace to hearts, to free souls, to fill hearts with the love and unity of all the Celestial Universe.

In this way, beloved children, today, in your hearts carry the sign of My maternal Love.

While I am here with you, I am with all of Colombia and with all the Americas, united with My praying children for this purpose of achieving peace, the peace of the heart.

Today, let the children who will be consecrated come, representing this sacred land, the Colombia of My Love.

I am waiting in silence, dear children, for you to assemble in this oratory, the Oratory of My Heart.

Feel My Peace, the sublime warmth of My Heart. Feel the breeze of My Spirit that fills you completely, feel God through My Divine Spirit, feel all of Creation, all of nature through the angels. Feel the protection, feel the Love that heals all things and redeems all things, feel My kindness which unifies you. Feel My Spirit that renews you, feel My Peace that illumines you to new horizons, feel the absolution of God, feel the Original Purity that unites you to all as a single brotherhood.

In this profound feeling, let your hearts be glad for being today with your Celestial Mother, Who loves you, heals you, unifies you and renews you in the perfect Purpose of God, Who reveals your true mission to you in this end time.

And today, having you all with My Immaculate Heart, I come here to call you to peace, so that you may be carriers of My Peace, and so that you never forget peace.

I come here, from Heaven, to thank you.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Sing with gladness and gratitude.

All are My children in the Creator Universe.

And today, I bless these holy images and all these sacred objects, so that they may be the perfect symbol of the union of souls with God and with His Purpose of Love.

Thank you, Colombia, for all that you give Me!

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

To close this meeting, we will give tribute to the Virgin Mary with the Hail Mary of Colombia, to thank Our Lady, the Queen of Peace.

Song: "Hail Mary."

Mother María Shimani de Montserrat:

Thank you, Mother, for all that You give us!

Until later, Colombia!