

Sunday, March 4, 2012

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, MOTHER OF THE DIVINE CONCEPTION OF THE TRINITY, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Dear children,

Smile from your hearts and radiate joy to your brothers and sisters. Healthy joy heals the wounds that many hearts carry in their lives. The path of joy, which is necessary in these times, is built through prayer. Souls must quench the thirst of My Son through the communion with Him, through prayer and the joy of the heart.

For this reason, dear children, today I call you to revere God with joy and in constant prayer. In this way the world will be able to be converted again under the Will of the Eternal Father.

Dear children, the joy of the heart will lead you to live a true humility that will in turn conduct you to the purity and to the transparency of each one of the intentions of life. Remember, My children, that the world must heal itself through the call for Mercy that prayer can generate when souls cry out for it. The path of joy will bring hope to your lives, a hope that many of My children lose for the lack of faith in the heart.

You are My columns of peace, through each group of prayer. I invite you to propagate joy in hope, in prayer and in the devotion of each one of your hearts to My Immaculate Heart.

Be strong in Me and in My Son. Extend your arms towards Christ, because He will receive you in His Eternal Paradise of Love and Peace. All you need, dear children, is to call My Son with the heart. He will listen to you and will answer you through His Holy Peace.

Thank you for responding to My call.

Peace in the hearts and peace for all the children that seek it.

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity