MESSAGE FOR THE APPARITION IN THE CITY OF SAO PAULO, BRAZIL

TRANSMITTED BY THE MOST HOLY QUEEN OF PEACE,

IN THE CITY OF RECIFE, PERNAMBUCO, BRAZIL TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA

My beloveds:

It gives joy to My Heart to be able to come to so many places of the world at the same time; in this way you may understand how infinite is the Mercy of God that will never leave His creatures unaided.

My Heart comes to the world to bless the lives, convert the souls and transform the destiny of beings. I only ask that you give Me the permission to do it.

My children, why do you fear My presence so much, if the only thing I bring to your lives is the Light, the Peace of My Kingdom? Nothing bad will happen to the one who accepts to follow this path outlined by God.

I am not here to form new religions. I am here My beloveds, so that your little beings may understand the Kingdom of God and the Celestial Mysteries a little more, because a majority of beings walk through the world in complete spiritual darkness and My Light comes to illuminate their paths.

My children, I do not want to create a new Church, but I want to bring to My Heart those who were not able to understand the teachings of My Son. The Divine Messengers are renewing the Faith of this world, so that you may understand that the life of the spirit is much more ample than that what you all know. Just open yourselves from the heart and permit Me to come to your lives.

If you follow Me in trust, even if your eyes cannot contemplate the end of this path and you do not know what you will find in the next turn, little by little, you will be able to discover the greatness of this work that My Heart is building together with the Most Holy Hearts of Christ and Saint Joseph.

My beloveds, your souls will soon be able to see how Majestic is the construction the Lord is creating in the interior of His creatures. But today I say to you that there are still very few who truly want to follow this path and who do not mistrust, not even for an instant, what I am building in this world.

It is necessary to have, in this time, a simple and humble heart, because those who recognize that they know nothing let themselves be guided and will come more quickly to the Eternal Temple of God.

Today I ask those who were afraid, to follow My steps - those that humbly hold these Celestial hands that are extended to the world - and that, instead of suffering for something that has not died, discover how alive and ample has become the teaching, and embrace the joy of the permanent renewal of their lives and of the possibility of sharing in the Redemption with many souls that otherwise would not have awakened.

I want to give thanks from the depths of My Immaculate Heart to all of those who from the North to the South of this country are opening the door of their homes to receive My dear children and say to them that, in truth, you have opened it to Me and that it is I who is entering more profoundly not only in your homes, but also in your lives and in your souls.

Receive with love My blessings.

I thank you always for coming to meet Me and to answer with love to My Call.

Who loves you always, Mary, Mother and Queen of Peace
