MESSAGE OF THE ETERNAL FATHER FOR THE 99TH MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY, TRANSMITTED ON MOUNT SUBASIO, ASSISI, PERUGIA, ITALY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

I will come, together with My Son, through the sunset. Through My Son, I will bring the New Cycle and the emergence of the New Race.

You are a part of My Universal Matrix, you originated through My Project, through the Project of My Will.

All that I have created is for you, not for you to transgress it, not for you to conquer it, and not for you to impose upon it, but rather for you to revere it, for you to make it sacred, for you to make it blessed.

But this part of Creation, to which you belong, is what experiences the greatest transition of these times. My children, who are My creatures, have become blind, and they can no longer see Me nor perceive Me.

Therefore, I send the Messengers to all who are at My eternal service, at the service of the Father's Plan, at the service of Creation. I have sent to Earth many angels and great Hierarchies so that throughout the times humanity would hear the Word of God and fulfill it.

But what has happened at the end of these times, for humanity to be submerged in chaos?

Since the surrender of My Son in the Garden of Gethsemane, He already knew that this time would come for all of you, for this human generation. This is why, when I speak to you about coming through the sunset, it is because this time is approaching and it is very near.

But first, you have to be in eternal communion with Me, by means of the Legacy of the Sacraments that My Son taught you with so much Love. But many of the Sacraments have suffered sacrileges, have suffered great offenses and irreverence.

It is through the good and sound apostles that My Son carries forward His Plan, so as to comply with the Plan of the Father.

It is not in great things that you will find Me, but rather in what is most small and most simple, and you, My creatures, already know that.

For this reason, I had decided, a long time ago, to be born in a small manger so that the world could understand that God does not believe He is powerful, but rather that God is humble and small, to the point of having been born in a humble place, in a humble grotto, so that the men and women of the Earth could recognize the Living God within themselves and again raise this wounded and hurt humanity.

But today, I come with the Most Holy Trinity, with the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

I come in this Trine Unity to tell the world that it still has some time to change and mend its errors, to repent and make penance, to become free from itself forever, to be able to find, in the near future, the arrival of My Son, the Return of the Redeemer.

From the top of this mountain, I emit this Message to the whole world, so that you may know that I am close to all, and that, in the silence of My Presence and of My Heart, I meditate upon you, I meditate upon the coming times.

Humanity has exchanged Me for the god of technologies, for the god of modernities, for the god of discarding, of indifference, of the lack of love and brotherhood.

However, I still keep My Proposal and My Purpose firm through all the Sacred Hierarchies that have evolved throughout this universe and in others, and that bring to the world an inner impulse of renewal so that, on the surface of the Earth there may exist at least a small group of consciousnesses that represents the New Brotherhood, the Brotherhood that must emerge on this material plane, so that the three planes can count on available, noble and whole servers, to carry forward the re-creation of this Creation. And this will take place through the surrender of hearts, through the service of souls, through the willingness of the spirits of this entire universe.

In this way, you will connect with Me, through a great network of inner, deep and non-transferable light. A network that unites consciousnesses, souls and also hearts which, although they may not be totally awakened, are a part of these profound nuclei of My Divine Life.

I bring you, through this Message, an opportunity of awareness, but I also bring you the Grace of Peace, because I know that you need it, because I know that many of My children are far from Me and do not want to hear Me, and they do not even want to feel Me or know Me.

I ask you not to stay with the image of the God of Justice, but rather with the Father of Mercy. A Father that has known you since the origins, since the Source, from what is most profound and eternal of Creation, from where you came so as to be able to serve Me in this world, on this planet that I offered to you, with much Love.

Now, you can see, with your own eyes, what you have converted this sacred home into, this blessed Creation, this special planet among so many planets of the universe.

Do not miss the opportunity of concretizing the Project of God and of making the necessary efforts for this to be fulfilled.

But there is only one premise for this to take place: it depends on each one of you for this to be carried forward. A few consciousnesses will not be enough to carry forward the next humanity.

I ardently wish, from the depths of My Spirit and My Heart, that many more souls, many more consciousnesses of this world may be a part of the New Race.

Although the moment you are going through is the hardest of all, it is the most obscure and even the darkest, I invite you to place your gaze, like these mountains of Mount Subasio do, upon the top of the horizon where the Light of the Sacred Sun of the Eternal Father comes, to be able to illuminate your paths, to be able to bring wisdom for your consciousnesses, to be able to lead you towards My Peace.

What I created at the beginning, since the origin of the first civilizations, was a rich and fruitful Earth, an abundant Earth, with fruits and with nature, with Lower Kingdoms and with much life, much life and much light. But, My children, the creatures of this planet have destroyed it and keep destroying it.

Thus, the consciousness of this planet, the soul of the Earth, is giving birth, but is it also screaming. And this Earth, this planet, trembles and shows its fury for all that its children have done to it on the surface. It is time to repair this situation, not only with good actions, but also with awareness, with determination.

I bring you, beloved children, the Love of the Father, the Love of the Son and the Love of the Holy Spirit.

I bring you the opportunity of following a path of obedience, humility and peace so that you can find, on this path that I am offering to you, a path of redemption and love, a path of renewal and peace, because souls follow a path of distraction, a path that leads them other ways that are not My ways, that are not the Paths of My Will.

While this keeps happening, many more souls, really many more souls, will miss the opportunity to serve Me, to know Me and even to love Me. For this reason, the sacrifice of a few represents the great effort for those who do not do so, for those who are ignorant, who are unconscious, who are distracted and who have lost the path towards My Heart.

With this Message, I bring to you, My creatures, not only a call for awareness, but also the awakening. I do not speak of something religious nor spiritual, I speak of what is most simple, even of what is most concrete, which is where the change of all humanity must take place so that the soul of the Earth, the soul of nature, does not rebel against you.

Be peace-bringers of the planet, be servants of My Word, follow the steps that I indicate for you towards My Heart, and all will be renewed and healed.

I am your Eternal Father, Adonai, Emmanuel and Abba.

Pray with Me.

Prayer: "Our Father (twice).

And, although the boat seems to sink, although the storm may be stronger than your inner strength, and although the attacks of contrary streams may want to make you succumb, do not give up, because I will give you the Gift of Strength and of Science for you to know how to act.

My Protection is upon you.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
