

Friday, March 28, 2014

WEEKLY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

If you are tired of carrying your own cross and if in some moment the worries of life are greater than your efforts, trust in My Divine Mercy.

If your will sometimes is greater than Mine and your opinions and ideas become mixed together, trust in My Divine Mercy.

If your love is as meager as your weaknesses and make your little heart to suffer, trust in My Divine Mercy.

If the steps that you take towards Me are sometimes converted into tardiness and endless delays, trust in My Divine Mercy.

I Am that Infinite and Pious Love that may help you and tirelessly encourage you to walk, to make you live and be reborn in the darkness, because whoever follows in My Footsteps will never lose the way.

Do as Zacharias who, among the multitude and without knowing Me, sought My merciful glance. You must know that I never forget those who are prepared to live My Path. I am everywhere, I Am the Breath of the Spirit of My Father that wanders around the dwelling places of the good ones.

Follow Me in trust. I Am the Source that will quench your bitter thirst. Open the door of your heart to Me every day and I will say to you what to do in the difficult hours.

Stay with Me because My Mantle will protect you from the intense cold of the night.

Stay with Me by My side because My warmth will burn as a Fire of Love in your heart.

Stay with Me because My Light will embrace the expansion and the course of your paths.

Stay with Me because My Eyes will illuminate the paths of your life.

Stay with Me so that I may embrace you strongly and make you feel that in sacrifice is found love and liberation.

Do not stop being with Me because I wish to accomplish My Project in your little life.

Stay with me in trust and only say yes to Me.

Under the Light of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for living in My Eternal Heart!

Christ Jesus of Salvation