APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY IN THE CITY OF BRASILIA, DF, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

From Heaven I have come to caress and love your hearts.

In this month, dear children, My Presence in Fatima is remembered again.

It has been a year, dear children, since I spoke to you of matrimonial consecration so that the importance of the Sacrament could be awakened in your hearts.

In this month, dear children, I come to remind you of the purity of Lys, which continues to permanently beat in your hearts, and which expects to promptly emerge in your lives. It will be that purity of the heart, dear children, that will always lead you into finding peace. For I deeply wish, My children, that your lives be able to be united with God so that you may promptly find the path to Paradise.

I know, dear children, that many souls despair far and wide on the planet. Thus, dear children, offer this prayer to God, all these prayers you have pronounced to My Immaculate Heart.

I come from Heaven, My children, to establish the Kingdom of God in your lives, mainly in those who have lost it through their superficial life. For God hopes, My children, that your repentance is close, so that you may live in the forgiveness of Christ and open the doors of your lives to redemption.

Today I come crowned by the stars of the universe. Today My Heart celebrates a special day. So take My Words, My children, and carry them in your hearts so they may be able to continue working in your lives, and especially that your inner temple be rebuilt.

I bring peace to the world every day, but very few souls truly accept it.

When you truly pray from the heart, beloved children, you will perceive where your lives are; for God needs you to be attentive and available so that He may carry out His Works of Mercy in this material world. When you abandon your material life and create cenacles of prayer in your homes, I will be able to be among you, My children.

My Heart is a supreme Grace; thus, I come to pour out this Grace upon you.

Beloved children, do not waste any more time. The great moment is approaching humanity and this is no longer just words. Open your eyes to the Voice that comes from Heaven. I have always been your Mother since the beginning and I hope to be so until the end.

Work on your repentance, My children. Serve your brothers and sisters from the heart, and in this way, your problems will be solved. You will not have disturbances in your lives and will again find the path of hope and of faith.

I need for you, beloved children, to define yourselves as My soldiers of the end of time, for I wish to have many armies available in this world so that My voice can reverberate throughout the times.

Just like in Fatima, beloved children, I come to bring a Message of warning: always seek the purity of your heart, in this way, My Son will forgive you, and there will be no stains or sin in your lives, nor will you be united with other things that are not of God.

For this reason, beloved children, wake up to the voice of My Heart. My Love is being transmitted, at this moment, for all, and it does not matter, beloved children, in what place of the world you may be. God granted Me universal omnipotence so that all My children of the world could not only come to know the power of My motherhood, but also the power of My sublime Grace, which wishes to be poured out into your hearts all the time.

I bring you, My children, a Message of preparation and of hope. Step out of the paths upon which you walk. Today, My Immaculate Heart opens a celestial door and all beings of prayer, the mirrors of prayer in the universe, are ignited to bring the codes to this unredeemed race.

But I will not tire, beloved children, until I fulfill the promise I made to God, your Lord. My Son has asked Me to come here and God has allowed Me to be here, among you. Understand, dear children, that this is the work of the Mercy of God.

While I speak to you here, many souls are lost in the world. Be ready to truly pray from the heart. On this planet there must be ardent flames of prayer so that I may place My Mercy and, through your hearts and your works of peace and of charity, I may pour out Light upon the world and from the abysses remove the souls that are lost as a consequence of the deceit of My adversary.

Thus, beloved children, listen attentively to what I say to you. My voice is reverberating in your essences so that, with promptness, a change can occur in your lives.

I need you, beloved children, in this great cenacle of prayer that you have built today for My Immaculate Heart, which received the honor and the glory from you. If you want miracles in your lives, change soon and you will then be deserving of receiving them.

In this time, live purification. My hand is close to your hands to lead you on the path of redemption. All I wish, beloved children, is that you be able to understand what I ask of you. I do not come to ask you for difficult things; the goals can only be reached when you simply work from the heart.

Today, I am here in Brasilia, but I am also with the whole world; observing, contemplating each of your petitions with heart and soul. Lift up your pleas to My Heart at this moment.

Remember, beloved children, that I am your Universal Mother and I want what is best for your lives. In these hearts I find many wounds that must be closed; I only need you to say 'yes', so that the universe is able to work within you and the Laws of God be able to be fulfilled in each of your hearts.

Let this month be dedicated to deep prayer; for in this time, I am in Brazil because I find hearts receptive to My call, that accomplish My designs in a humble way when you simply experience My Message and pray with Me as much as possible. This world needs it and so do you.

Feel My Original Purity, which I placed in Fatima from the beginning. Through the angels of the Kingdom of Fatima, I have brought the opportunity to find redemption to the world. Thus, I bring you the same Message, My children, because I need you to be able to experience it. When you are already experiencing it, without resistance or control, open to the purity of the heart, I will have the permission of God to reveal other things to you which will be necessary for your spiritual life. In this way, you will be mature, firm in the Word of God, servers of God available in the end of times.

Who will decide to achieve this goal?

Your Heavenly Mother comes to Brasilia to have you come to know the Law of Love, which is broadly forgotten by everybody. Without love there is no charity, no miracle, no change, no path of redemption. Seek that love and you will find the door of purity.

Our Sacred Hearts are ready to help you. You are in time to go across the threshold to the Celestial Kingdom, taking just one step is enough; and to receive, in your hearts and souls, all that you need in this era that God has foreseen in His Divine Thought, because you do not know it, but if you open from your heart, you will know it. Christ thus wishes it and My Heart thus aspires, so that the New Humanity can be born, which must first be born within you with the change of the material life, taking on new commitments to Heaven, for example, with prayer.

In this way, My children, you will be protected and will not deceive yourselves nor be deceived, because God and We will guide you until the final mission which God has written in His Heart for each of you.

Think, beloved children, about all I am saying to you.

Today, I am especially here to remind you that I am your Mother, the Mother of Hope, of Mercy. See a true example in all this Work, on this sacred and immaculate night in which the most sinful receive My consolation and My love, and are freed from imperfection and impurities to find a more open path to Christ, to reach the goal, the primary goal, the original mission of each being.

Thus, I am that special Star for you, I am the Mother of the Divine Verb Who pronounces the Sacred Word so that you may remember, beloved children, that everything begins and ends in God when one truly lives in God and does not seek preferences.

There is nothing more important in this time, children, than achieving a spiritual life, a life of prayer, a life of peace. In this way, you will be different people in a short time and the results that My Son placed in your lives will be at the service of the Creator; but you will no longer control them, because the true virtue of the soul begins through union with prayer. That is what I teach you in this time, so that your lives may enter into meditation and find the correct path among so many uncertain paths that are experienced by humanity.

I am the Door to God. Who wants to enter, through My Heart, into the fervent fullness of love and the fortitude of faith, which is what souls need for defining their paths and finding the true reason for having incarnated in this life?

My Spirit fills you, I am the Queen of Peace.

Beloved children, to achieve purity, I will give you a simple but true practice which all souls will be able to do, without restriction for anybody; all can accomplish this aspiration of My Heart. Pray, every day, especially during this month of May, remembering the Sanctuary of Fatima in your hearts, so that the angels that live there come into your lives and your hearts be placed in the essence of original purity.

For the consecration today, in which My hands will be laid on new children who will be consecrated to My universal Mantle, My immaculate protection and My call; I will also consecrate your lives, giving the blessing of the Eternal Father and of His Supreme Son, under the protection of the Holy Spirit.

I want you to open the doors of the Kingdom of Lys in a special way, for My Grace wishes to give an opportunity to those present.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

Our Mother is calling the Children of Mary who are to be consecrated.

Concentrate, because I am still present.

Song: "Lys, Mary, Lys."

In the omnipotence of the Spirit of God, I consecrate these children of Mine, in the name of all My children of the Earth that must wake up to original purity and find again the path to infinity.

In this way, beloved children, My deep aspirations of a Mother will be accomplished, because I will have recognized that you have responded to My call, in these times of tribulation.

Thus, I bless these sacred images that each of your hearts and your families have brought to My altar, which on this sacred night, remember My virginal Presence as the Mother of Jesus, the Mother of the New Humanity, the Mother of the World.

I bless you, beloved children, under the luminous sign of the Cross of My Son, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I thank Brasilia for having responded to My call. My Heart is always among you; that is My true reason for being here, that you find again the Kingdom of God, the Kingdom of Peace, the Kingdom of Faith and the Kingdom of Mercy.

I thank you!

Prayer: Universal Mother (in Portuguese).

Glory to God in the highest and peace to beings of goodwill.

Children, I love you and will always love you. Go in the peace of My Son, singing to Lys.

Song: "Lys, Mary, Lys."

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

Brothers and sisters, we wanted to end this by sharing with you that today Mary, on this May 8, brought us the Kingdom of Lys, the Kingdom of purity and love that is in Portugal.

Today, a year ago, we did a pilgrimage with Mary through Europe, where She also visited our brothers and sisters who are there. Today, simply and symbolically, Mary united Lys with our heart. That Sanctuary of Fatima that beats all the time and all year.

So we want to invite you to respond to this call of Mary of praying united with the Kingdom of Lys-Fatima, and to take this instruction that She left us today to meditate, and these Graces She poured out over our spirits.

Thank you all for having accompanied us!

We will thank Our Lady; thank you, Divine Mother, for all that you give us!
