Message transmitted by the Virgin Mary in Rosario, Santa Fe, Argentina, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, during the Vigil of Prayer

For this very humble meeting, I thank you.

You, My dear children, remind Me of past times, when My Heart lived here on Earth among you, so that through simplicity and humility, I could proclaim the Kingdom of God and rescue all the children of God through the sacred Word of the Gospel.

On this evening, I gather you all together in My Heart and as Lady of the Holy Rosary of San Nicolás, I again invite you to be renewed in prayer with Me.

This city is waiting for the Law of God. I ask you, dear children, that through Holy Justice, you proclaim the Divine Verb of prayer, so that My Heart is able to gather up your pleas.

On this evening, I come to ask you for simple things, but so important for these end times. I need you to build a strong temple of prayer and of peace in your dwelling places; in this way, you will help Me, dear children, to accomplish the Plans of God in these cycles.

Souls will be detached from evil and the enemy will no longer be able to work when you open the door to Me of sincere prayer; and in this way, your faith will be strengthened and your trust will be fully in God. Fears in your lives will no longer exist and hope in your hearts will be born when in your homes, through your families and friends, you build groups of prayer that can be lights in dark cities.

In this way, My dear children, you will allow Me to be able to come here and all parts of the world, so that from the Greater Source of God, I am able to pour out Graces over the most needy hearts.

On this evening, I thank you, dear children, for having prepared this place for Me with such humility, but with such rejoicing and gladness, so that through sacrifice, you are able to fulfill the Will of God. All your efforts, dear children, all your inner efforts generate merits in Heaven.

Thus, I invite you to continue onward, let nothing else bother or disturb you. Place yourself in My Immaculate Heart and you will find the Kingdom of Peace you so seek.

I need to work through your lives. My Son sends Me to the world to warn you, for the last time, that a great change is coming to humanity, and souls, in their totality, must be prepared.

I bring you, into your lives, a healing of the heart, which in truth you need in these times. Unite with My Mantle of Light. Place yourselves under My Mantle of Light and you will be irradiated with My celestial Graces. Create the bridge with My Heart through the Rosary. Thus, dear children, everything will be accomplished in this time and your hearts will be prepared to receive My Son.

I invite you to be laborers of the Plan, to dare to live the Plan of God in these times, mainly united in heart and soul so that God is able to manifest His Gifts and His Will.

Your essences, so sacred, hold important lights for this time, gifts that God needs to use to fulfill His Will in this time.

Today, I repeat all these things, My little ones, because I need you to be forerunners of My Marian Word. That you carry the Word of My Life like heralds of Light, which is My Message for the world, My maternal Love for all of humanity, the hope of healing all before the great time in this world.

United with My Heart, hold tight to My blessed hands. I will take you on clean and pure paths, clear and true, on which you will be able to build your lives, get out of pain and despair, and find a path of Mercy and of peace.

Dear children, I need you to be brave, hard workers and full of the Grace of God. With this, which is so simple but so true, you will help to change humanity. Dare to take the steps toward My Heart, to deeply know My Consciousness. I always pray for you and for your siblings.

Remember, dear children, that I am the great sacred Tree for this world, which gives of its fruits for humanity, for all the souls that need to learn and grow through the path of unity and fellowship.

Throughout these years, I have already taught you how you must do it. You need to practice My Message, embody My Message so it may reflect the sacred Rays of God in your lives that will be so necessary for many souls, souls that must wake up in Christ for this path of evangelization. We Divine Messengers are carrying out in all the world.

Dear children, tomorrow, an important meeting of planetary radiation awaits you for the whole world, through the Grace of God, Supreme Essence of Peace, Immaculate Spirit of Truth, which will attempt to be disseminated throughout the world by means of My Presence in this city.

It is not by chance, dear children, that I am here, in Rosario, to remind you of the importance of prayer. In this way, so sincere and simple, I invite the Marian Centers to be in vigil tonight, in prayer, for this mission that I will carry out tomorrow.

With much love and gratitude, I thank you for the service given, the selfless gifting of the Daughters of Christic Charity and the Mission of the Humanitarian Fraternity for having served the peoples of Brazil. Because most importantly, dear children, beyond the service and the charity, you carried My hands of peace, My hands of healing and of consolation to souls.

For this mission, and for those that will come, in the name of the Most Chaste Saint Joseph, I give you thanks, dear children, for having responded to My call.

May your lives be rosaries of Light.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

Brothers and sisters, we want to thank you for this opportunity we had today with Our Lady.

We want to speak to you about some things She has allowed us to tell you.

First, She came as the Lady of the Rosary of San Nicolás, an Aspect very well known here in Argentina.

And the second thing that happened is that She remembered this place, so simple, as Her old home of Nazareth, which was even more simple than this place.

In reality, what is it Our Lady wanted to tell us, as a Message, through this symbol of the house of Nazareth?

Today She was able to reach each of your souls, was able to touch your hearts and bring about a task She wanted to do with each of you.

So we leave this Presence of Mary in the hearts of everyone. That unbreakable faith that She transmits to us; that love that envelops us and protects us can carry us into meeting with Her, tomorrow, in the monthly Apparition of Mary.

We thank you all, those who accompanied us through Mercy Mary TV, and on this evening, we are going to keep the following image Mary showed us in our memory: She was offering us Her rosary of Light so that we would pray with Her and hold tight to Her rosary to be always sustained and supported by Heaven, and for bringing that Light of Heaven to this place and into our lives.

Today, during the prayer, during the whole practice of prayer, we were enveloped by the Heart of Mary. We cannot explain how this happened, but so it did.

The magnetism of the Love of Mary was present during the whole Vigil.

For all this meeting, we thank You, Mother, for all that You give us!
