WEEKLY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF ASUNCION, PARAGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

You are mine, for Me you have been born and from you I want all, the soul and the heart. In this way I will be able to fulfill My Commandments.

Blessed are those who seek My Source because they will never be thirsty.

The Water that springs from My Heart is like a rain of graces and blessings for those who in My Name wait in patience and gratitude.

I remind you of the union with My Heart all the time that I can, so that you may not lose sight of the meaning of the call and of the opportunity that I present to you for this time.

That one who with their heart opens the door of their house will be dining with Me, will be living the principles of fraternity and of grace.

That one who opens the door of the heart to the Great Master will be uniting himself to the universal force of Love and of Mercy. It is by means of this union that I form the new Apostles.

Infinite Graces for opening to Me the doors of your hearts. My Piety will let you know the greatness of Love and of Unity, attributes that your consciousnesses must incarnate internally.

Blessed are those who can avail Me for these critical times in which peace and love, healing and hope are lacking, it will be by means of the most simple of heart that I will be able to work before My Return.

For such purpose I ask you that in honor of My Most Pious outraged Heart, the one which I present to you today, that you pray with Me the Rosary to the Seven Agonies. In this way by means of the merits that I achieved on Earth as in Heaven, these may be able to be poured upon Africa. This will alleviate the great spiritual crisis and illness that many innocent souls are living.

I wish to combat by means of the strength of your prayers, supplications and sacrifices, the horrible martyrdoms and consequences that many African hearts are facing because of Ebola epidemic.

My Mercy wants to reach to all of them. For this to happen I have come to ask to all of those who listen to Me to be aware and to feel love, pity and compassion for all of those who die unjustly.

If you truly pray to Me, imploring the Sacred Heart of Jesus, I promise to raise to Heaven all of those who suffer hell in this moment. In this way you will help the Immaculate Heart of Mary to triumph again in humanity.

Under the Glory of God that protects and embraces you, be blessed.

Thank you for listening to My Heart

Merciful Christ Jesus
