

Sunday, June 12, 2022

MESSAGE OF THE ETERNAL FATHER, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF CZESTOCHOWA, POLAND, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

When your heart is afflicted by all that you see and all that you live, it is a sign that you are losing your trust in Me.

But listen: I would never condemn you for your errors or for your faults, I would only show you, as many times as necessary, that you are losing sight of Me, and that, for different reasons, you are distancing yourself from My Hand.

Tell the world that I Am Merciful and that I do not measure Justice with a ruler.

Tell everyone that I have the Heart of a Father who feels and lives with sorrow all that His Children of the Earth choose and do.

Eternally, I have My Arms extended to the world and today, few, very very few, can perceive that.

My Love continues on as a mystery because souls choose other loves. But, in truth, I say to all that I Am simple, that My Love is deep, because without Love, I could not Be your Creator, That One who contemplates life from the Infinite.

For this reason, tell everyone that I wait for them, that I understand them, that I know how difficult the spiritual battle of these times is. But also tell My Children that I have hundreds of angelic armies for each one of you.

I have so much to give you, that you would never be able to measure or understand it. My Love and My Providence are not a standard, they are not a condition. My Love for you is an immeasurable self-giving.

Tell all that I feel them closely, and, even more, I feel all when they lose My Gaze, the Gaze of a Father who knows you from within, a Gaze that does not judge nor punish.

The punishment that the planet is living is generated by yourselves, My Children of all of humanity.

In My Kingdom lie the treasures and the happiness that I promised to you from the beginning, but souls, many times, do not recognize Me through all the signs that I give them.

Today, you are before a civilization that is spiritually and physically sick, a slave to vices, the pleasures and the ambition of wanting to possess and extract the resources of Creation.

I did not give you the planet for you to contaminate it, and to be indifferent while you contaminate and hurt the very Kingdoms that are at the service of spiritual balance. Not even the water itself that you drink from the entrails of the Earth is pure.

I know that the mind of the majority of My Children is focusing on survival. But I assure you that the solution exists, the resources from Heaven and from the universe exist for you to regenerate, both inside and out.

What are you waiting for?

Do you think it will come from Heaven?

No, it will not come, My Children. The solution is within yourselves. You have all the tools and means to do so.

You have learned to conquer, you have learned to destroy one another, you have learned, through the harassment of My son, the angry angel, to take your own life.

Throughout the times, many have wondered if the inconvenience or the inflection of Creation took place in the rebellion of the fallen angel, and I say to you: "Yes, it did," because it was at that moment when what is known as the learning of all Creation truly began.

That was the great moment, and it continues to be so, up to today, when compassion and infinite patience were tested, beyond all errors committed, from that moment up to today.

"However," you might ask Me, "Father, was there an error in Your Divine Project?"

No, there was not. What did occur was a feared disobedience to the Higher Laws, and this has been so since those times.

When your life is disoriented, even in what seems to be the path of spirituality, you must stop, confess that you cannot go on any further by yourself. From this sincere act, all may be reversed, the Light may be found in the depths of the abyss.

Now, when a consciousness makes a mistake, or stumbles on the same error, it is not healthy to live in guilt, because no results will be achieved. To feel guilt is to fail to recognize oneself as a Son or Daughter of God.

The healing of this situation lies in trust and in faith, which are impulses that transform all and redeem all.

The world is now in this guilt and in this self-punishment

For this reason, I ask you to make the correct effort so that many more may abandon this vicious circle of guilt and of feeling like a victim.

Be intelligent and embrace the cross with gratitude. Because, when there is no gratitude, the personal cross becomes very heavy, when there is complaint, there is no spiritual liberation.

Come out of this state and you will help the ingrained world indifference no longer be the cause of so many evils and uncertain situations.

This is the so awaited end of times. There is no other time in which you can live. Accept it.

My Son, the Redeemer of the world, promised you the Great Consoling Spirit. Here it is, I Am that I Am.

I Am this Infinite and Immeasurable Spirit that loves you and illuminates you in the current planetary dark night.

Do not allow yourselves to be pushed around by whatever you live that is uncertain. Nothing will prevail over My Love, because My Love comes to heal you, it comes to make you return to the House of your Eternal Father.

May you today feel your heavy chains of sin dissolve so that original sin may be liberated from humanity.

May you today feel your heavy ties dissolve so that the world may finally be liberated from duality.

Because My Beloved Son promised you His Return, and this so awaited Return is close. Believe in this.

Keep vigil and pray so that you can recognize Him.

May the Eternal Light of the Source bless you, protect you and support you.

May spiritual healing be a reality, the path to the definitive reconciliation for all of humanity with the Kingdom of the Heavens.

Today, I make a will of My Words.

I love you infinitely, more than you can conceive.

Your Eternal Father,

Adonai