Monthly Message of Saint Joseph, transmitted in the Marian Center of Figueira, Minas Gerais, Brazil, to the visionary Sister Lucía de Jesús

Dear companions of My Chaste Heart,

There is no use repeating that these are times of emergency in the world.

Our Words must reach the whole planet. There must not be even one soul that does not know the Presence of the Messengers of God in this place ⁽¹⁾. For this reason, today I ask that you disseminate Our call without fear, without being ashamed of proclaiming your own faith, without fear of not being accepted or recognized by those you respect and love.

Just hold in your consciousness that everybody needs to wake up, that there will no longer be any time for the illusions of life because prayer will be the only way out for the planetary situation.

Do not think about what beings will feel, do not worry about what the minds of the people in the world will manifest; simply glimpse the need of souls to be reconciled with God, of praying and of uniting with the Plan of the Creator.

The immediate response of consciousnesses upon entering into contact with Our Words does not matter. What really matters is that the seed of light will be planted within the beings, and when they come to the moment of real need, they will have something to resort to: they will remember those valleys in Brazil ⁽¹⁾ and also that refuge of peace among the orange groves ⁽²⁾; they will remember the mountains that hold the Holy Spirit of God ⁽³⁾ and also those that safeguard the future of humanity with the Codes of the Child Jesus ⁽⁴⁾, so they may be placed in the little ones of this world.

Announce to your families that your lives are no longer the same; announce to your acquaintances, announce to those unknown to you who are in need of peace. Announce to the rich, announce to the poor. Announce to the healthy and to the sick, to the young and to the old.

Let the future of the planet find the essence of peace in the hearts of the youngest, and may those who leave this planet, the eldest, carry the discovery of love wherever they go after this life.

I make this request of you because souls must not miss the opportunity of experiencing love, since this is why they came into the world.

Let the doors of the hells close before the prayerful response of all the hearts that awaken in time.

Let the Perfection of God, which exists within all creatures, not be exchanged for the innumerable capital woes that the enemy sowed in the human consciousness.

I call on you today to be true apostles of Christ, without fear or shame, even if you seem mad, let it be the holy madness expressed in your hearts.

Let your loving and fraternal actions be the testimony of Our Presence in the world. Let your capacity to forgive and to be reconciled with others be the proof to human eyes that God is among humankind, through His Messengers.

Thus, today and every day of your lives, go, serve, be reconciled with your neighbors, ask for forgiveness, serve those who hate you, love those who persecute you, pray as the priority in your lives, as if prayer were water without which you could not live.

Disseminate, announce to the world the Message of God, of peace and transformation, the call to awakening and redemption, through His Messengers. Something will resonate in the human consciousness, as long as you are sincere in all that you do.

Before proclaiming with your mouths, live with your senses, with your intentions, and with your heart all that you aspire for beings to know. Be carriers of peace and hope for this world lost in illusion.

Let us not allow a part of the Heart of God to be extinguished.

I love you and I bless you always, so this blessing may come alive in all the spaces of the human consciousness.
