

Friday, August 15 of 2014

WEEKLY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Be resigned in face of the offenses, in this way you will humiliate yourself and you shall reach the path of transformation, looking first at your own self and seeing in the other the Love of My Heart.

For this reason find in the path of tests the signs for the conversion of your sins and the liberation of the consequences that they leave in the spirit of those of Mine.

Lean away in the face of the offenses that many commit and out of love for Me reflect in your step, wherever you go, the unbreakable harmony that I can give to you in this time. Find in every humiliation the total void of your person, and let that the higher power of your consciousness transform the material life and guide the spiritual path.

Imitate Me at least in all that I have done for you and for your brothers and sisters, in this way you shall see in the path of your purification the opportunity of redemption and surrender that I give to you in the name of the Will of My Father.

Stay with Me on this cold night under the silence of the moon and of the stars. Stay with Me in joy, as well as in the agony that many unjustly cause Me out of ignorance of the truth that is approaching, and that many do not see for themselves. Stay with Me in the silence of the Garden of Gethsemane and accompany Me in the Passion that today I offer to you, and that I show to the greatness of you Christic inner being.

For this you need to decide to where you will go. My Love is absolute, powerful, and compassionate. It is My Love that offers to assist you in the path of the new Cross and of the Passion that millions of hearts make My Sacred Heart suffer.

Be encouraged to find My Comfort in weakness. Your spirit is strong enough to sustain that which I give to you from time to time. You will lose nothing in this life; work without tiring for Me and for your brothers and sisters, so that you may soon live the emptiness that will take you to find the humility that you so much seek outside of yourself.

But the key that I give to you is not that which you desire; My Key opens the doors to new dwellings, kingdoms unknown to your being; kingdoms that your soul aspires to live with Me. Let Me be that which I so much expect in you. I will only be able to work when, in the center of your temple, your lower being will step aside so that I may pass and take power of the throne.

Liberate yourself from the forms and from the control of life. There is nothing more strong than the love that I have given on the Cross for you, and for the world. I invite you now to think over My Offer.

Under the Light of God, be blessed, and harmless.

Thank you for seeking the Flame of My Redeeming Love!

Glorified Christ Jesus