APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS IN THE ALPS, FRANCE, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE SECOND DAY OF THE 109TH MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Today you can be closer to Me, on the top of these mountains of the Alps, where My Sacred Heart gathers all Hierarchies in solemnity and devotion.

Today, you can be closer to Me to accompany the deep feeling of your Master and Lord, Who, from the top of the Alps, attracts to the world the Kingdom of God, in the face of an outraged and wounded planet, in the face of the violated Kingdoms of Nature, mistreated and wounded by the humanity of the surface.

From the top of the Alps, My Sacred and Eternal Heart comes today to contemplate those wounded in war, all those who escape terror and persecution.

This is why I place all in My Arms, especially those who are wounded by war, hurt by weapons. Because their souls are lost, as they are fighting for something that does not make sense. And this brings serious consequences due to the lack of peace, leaving a great part of humanity in an uncertain dimension.

But trust today. All your prayers pronounced and offered to My Sacred Heart fill the Kingdom of the Heavens, good prayers of My disciples and friends, so that this world may receive one last opportunity, an extraordinary and undeserved Grace.

Because here, upon the surface of this planet, the Eternal Father knows that there are many innocent and good souls that have come to this world to embody and live the experience of love and forgiveness, who have come to be a part of the Promised Land, that Land that was announced by My own Eternal Father to the people of Israel.

For this reason I Am here today. Not only as the Lord of the Night, but also as the Lord of the twilight, Who invites you to retreat in the Temple of My Sacred Heart, to implore together with Me to the Eternal Father, so that His most high angels and archangels, as well as all the guardian angels, which untiringly serve the souls of this planet, may intervene on the inner planes of consciousness to dissolve and destroy the plans of evil.

My Sacred Heart and My loving and humble Gaze still feel and contemplate the suffering of this planet and humanity in its diversity. And this suffering affects many souls in these times, because not only do they distance themselves from God, but they also submerge in a deeper and more difficult suffering.

But today, from the top of the Alps, I bring you the table of salvation, the Law of My Divine and Unfathomable Mercy for the whole world through the expression of the Rays of My Sacred Heart, for all those who wish and aspire to be under them. In this way, they can be in communion with Me and, by being in communion with Me, they will be able to be in communion with the Source, the Sacred Source of the Eternal Father.

In this cold Winter that the planet is living, from the Inner Enclosures of this place, where the Hierarchy also sustains the balance of the planet, the sun of hope and faith begins to rise and emerge from the depths of the planet, a state of divine and cosmic consciousness that the Spiritual Hierarchy grants to the souls that believe in My Mercy, so that all hearts may have the Grace of overcoming the end of times and the planetary transition, knowing that they must still overcome many barriers and obstacles in this material life, knowing that they must live with a vaster and deeper patience so that, in the face of each planetary event, their consciousnesses may not lose sight of the Law of My Compassion.

In truth I tell you, companions: there is no other solution for all that happens in this humanity. This is the time for My apostles to live and express the Christic Love that will allow them to overcome themselves every day. That Christic Love will also allow them to place others first, as something more important and essential, and to understand the suffering of others, without judging or condemning them. My Christic Love will also allow them to be close to those who are denied and rejected by their brothers and sisters.

This is why I tell you again that there is no other way out. In the Source of My Merciful Love you will find the spiritual and inner strength to do so and, someday, just as it happened to my apostles of the past, you will realize that in fraternal love the Sacred Spirit of Brotherhood will spontaneously emerge.

From the top of the Alps, and in this final Message that I emit to the whole world, during this cold winter afternoon in Europe, I come to implore and ask you, Children of My Father to definitively live in Christic Love, because many souls known and unknown to you, suffering hearts and lives, need forgiveness, love and redemption.

In this dark night that the Earth is going through, may you know how to sustain the incandescent flame of the Divine Purpose. May you know how to truly express the spirit of My Peace so that more regions of the world may not be touched by darkness. May humanity not keep submerged, because in truth I tell you that I cannot bear this any longer.

In a place similar to this, on a mountain similar to this, your Master and Lord was crucified, killed and buried, surrendering even His last drop of Blood so that this planet and this humanity might be considered by the Project of God as a feasible Project for this Creation and this Universe.

United as brothers and sisters, united as servers, united as members of this Order of the Brotherhood, I grant you protection, care, sustenance and inner union with the sacred treasures of the Hierarchy so that this world may no longer lose light or love. And, even more, I grant you the merits of My Sorrowful Passion, so that peace may not be lost in this world and you may not forget that you are brothers and sisters of one people, brothers and sisters of this humanity, a sacred project of the old people of Israel.

Now, I retreat in the Eternal Father, just as you can retreat in the Lord to keep praying with Me in the coming times, for all that the Hierarchy must still carry out in the Northern Hemisphere and in the rest of the world.

I thank My missionary children for opening the doors in Asia through Thailand. In this way, more nations of that region of the planet can receive My Mercy, through those who simply say 'yes' to Me and walk as My last apostles in this world so that, through love and service, they may announce My Return to the world, which is near.

I love you, bless you and give you My Peace again so that, through Me, through the sacrifice of the Son of the Father, you may commune with God in unity, love and brotherhood.

I thank all those who made this sacred task in the Alps possible, responding to the request of My Celestial Mother.

I invite all to accompany with the heart the sacred task of the Mother of God in Garabandal. In this way, all the Inner Centers of the Northern Hemisphere may be lit up and expand in their emblematic spiritual and sidereal presence, so that souls may receive the spiritual treasures of the Brotherhood.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
