APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY IN FATIMA, PORTUGAL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Just as the Light shone in the humble Grotto of Bethlehem, a profound eternal Light shines in the essence of each of My children.

Although at this planetary moment the Sacred Project of God, that Project that was thought of by the Eternal Father, is being put at stake by humanity of the surface, in spite of all circumstances, in spite of all the situations that deviate humanity from Supreme Will, despite everything, My children, there is a profound Light in the essence of each of My children, an eternal Light similar to the one that emerged in the humble Grotto of Bethlehem, in the Incarnation of the Son of God.

However, today, I come as your Heavenly Mother to remind the world, to remind souls that, despite all error and darkness, this eternal Light can never be put out, because from it comes not only that which God expects from each creature, but also in the eternal and profound Light of each one of My children is written the path and the trajectory that they must follow after this incarnation, with all they have learned and lived on this planet.

Therefore, let humanity not forget this eternal and profound Light that is alive in the essence of each of My children, the essence that is illuminated and nourished by the Essence of Christ. Thus, fulfilling in this universe the Creative Principle with which My Own Son may make of His apostles the Christs of the New Times, who will receive the spiritual and universal Legacy so that, after this transition of the Earth, humanity may be repopulated with new principles, attributes and codes.

However, do not think, My children, that this is very far away, because if the Return of My Son is very near in these times, the moment is also very near when humanity will be liberated from spiritual captivity, the chains, the ties and all oppressions that places consciousnesses on a path that is far from God.

Therefore, at this moment, I come to spiritually rebuild all that My children need so they may not only live their path of awakening and elevation in these times, but also be placed within the Commands of Christ, following His Will, listening to His guidance and concretizing that which, in these final times, He has thought of to prepare this Earth, to prepare the inner worlds, for what is to come, what is wonderful and is to come from the Universe when this spiritual captivity on the planet may finally end.

This is why, My children, I do not come today to contemplate what you have not done right. I come at the request of My Son to contemplate the eternal Light that God has given to you since the origin of your consciousnesses, in the sacred spaces of this universe, where the Project of God once began. This Project, although it is old, is alive, because it must still be fulfilled in those who dare to live their awakening.

The greater number of souls that awaken in these times, the greater will be the interventions of the Spiritual Hierarchy to dissolve and placate the events of the Armageddon.

Do you understand what I am saying to you?

To be part of this moment with the Hierarchy is unique, not only for that which you can live or experience, but also for what you can get to know or discover about that which is kept as a mystery in this cosmos.

Many have come to the Earth as fallen stars. After such a long time of so many lessons and tests, many of these stars have converted and transformed into a part of this spiritual and eternal firmament, giving a living and concrete testimonial of the conversion that Christ has made in hearts, bringing them to the path of Love and of the Truth.

Therefore, My children, you must not lose heart at this moment. Although the events on the planet become more serious or precipitate, you must not lose heart, you must not stop. There is a Greater Life that awaits not only you, but also your brothers and sisters on the planet.

I want to tell you in clear Words, My beloved children, that there is something that awaits you beyond this material and concrete life. And that which exists beyond is not only spiritual or immaterial. It is also a part of this material universe.

Therefore, the Hierarchy, throughout the times, has been preparing you for this moment. You could not be facing the revelation of a mystery if your inner worlds were not in the correct vibration. This is why purification is necessary, because if the Little Child, the Son of the Father, was purified in the Temple to live His Great Task, could the Law of Purification be unnecessary in this universe?

The Law of Purification has been distorted by what is understood at this moment. Purification is a process of liberation. It is the first step of the school of transcendence. It is the great spiritual opportunity for hearts, before God, to become free from the ties, the oppressions and from the suffering in which this humanity is submerged.

In the Law of Purification lies the Light of the Divine Essence, and souls and the inner worlds can find it when they decide to face it and not resist it. Just imagine what would have happened if the Son of God had not undergone purification.

Could the Project of the Father be mistaken?

No, My children, not only did the Son of God undergo purification in the Temple, but also the Chaste Heart of Saint Joseph, as well as your Most Holy Mother, were purified during that event.

I know that today I speak to you again about a mystery, but there is no better way to understand My Words than placing them in your hearts.

Pray, meditate, and become interested in having the revelation of what is kept in the Mystery of God, because life, My children, does not end here.

Our Work on this planet has a special goal: that incarnated consciousnesses may achieve the steps of ascension in daily transformation, in daily effort, in the determination to convert their consciousnesses into that ardent, deep and eternal aspiration that the Celestial Father thought of before your origins.

Therefore, it must be clear for you that this is the cause of your incarnation. Thus, for a moment you may feel and imagine what the Hierarchy feels and see from the souls of this world that are far from the path of the Truth, that have closed the door to their own Spiritual Purpose.

But now your Heavenly Mother has the last chance, through Her Word, and especially through Her Presence, to give the Grace of the spiritual awakening so that souls may not only correct their paths, but also become postulants to be New Christs, so that they may be in the place and at the moment My Son needs them.

Your only dwelling place is in the Kingdom of the Heavens. Each moment that is lived in this world, each moment that you experience or each place where you may be is merely a transition, it is a learning experience and a lesson of humility.

Beloved children, it is above, in the Creation of the Eternal Father, it is above in this Sidereal Universe, where your true being is, where your true face shows, a face that many humanities have known for a long time. We will work until as many souls as possible achieve this, until those who are most asleep awaken from this universal lethargy.

This is why We bring the Light of Our Divine Impulses so that they may be not just Words, but rather eternal and inexhaustible Decrees so that the souls that listen to them time and again may be transformed, knowing that in the Sacred Instruction of the Hierarchy you will always have, before yourselves, the opportunity to change, a change that will surely lead you to transformation and redemption.

If My Son managed to transform the apostles into good people, to convert them into His apostles so that they could cause His Work to be perpetuated throughout the world, what could My Son do with each one of you?

There is only one reason for all of this: you must learn to trust so that you may learn to love. And may this Love, which is not mundane, but rather the Love that emerges from the Source through the souls that serve and surrender, help you day by day to reflect the Love of God in your works of service and charity, with just one aim: for the relief of suffering, of the suffering that we see in this world and on this Earth, the suffering that paralyses and enslaves hearts.

Our Voice, Our Word and, above all, Our Divine and Consoling Love come to break this chain of suffering, so that souls may be liberated and attain peace, the joy of feeling loved by the Eternal Father. Because He, as their Father who is in the Heavens, and who is in their hearts, always has His Arms open to all, because He is Merciful, Kind and Prodigious. When you suffer, when you fall, when you distance yourselves from Him, it is because you forget not only His Love, you also forget that He is sheer Mercy, Untiring Source of Compassion.

This is why I come today not only to celebrate the Nativity of the King of the Universe, to celebrate the Nativity of all Inner Christs, those who confirm themselves day by day through their 'yes'. I also come to lay on My Serving Hands, as the Mother of Universal Healing, to radiate My Light and My Graces upon My children, asking the Celestial Father to bring healing to the deepest and most unknown wounds in the hearts of the world, so that all My children may attain the happiness of being in God.

Unite to Me and let us work to fulfill this Aspiration of God: that souls may smile and attain the happiness of being in God, so as to be a part of His Sacred Kingdom.

May the Light of the Inner Christs be perpetuated at this moment of the planet.

Nourished by the Essence of Christ, may this Light of the Inner Christs grant the Grace of liberation and peace to the souls that need it the most. In this way, the chains that tie souls to suffering and pain will continue to break and the perfect Flower that God created will spring from each inner essence, through the origin of each one of His Children.

Contemplate, in your inner world, the Flower of God, and thus attain your freedom.

I will see you next December 31 when, through the Kingdom of Aurora, the Spiritual Hierarchy will close this year with a deep act of meditation and reflection in the face of all that is happening and, above all, in a profound act of offering to God.

This act will be offered through the fruits that souls have lived in these times. The spiritual fruits and the sacred treasures of the hearts that still keep the Project of the Father on this planet alive. The fruit of sacrifice and the surrender of love from the heart are pillars that sustain His Project on this planet.

Thus, through Aurora, in unity and omnipresence, the Mother of God will grant Her maternal blessing, preparing with Her children the next steps that Christ will take in North America and in other places of the world.

Let us pray:

Lord,
may the advent of the New Race be fulfilled.
May humanity be able to express its archetype.
May the word be alive and build Your Temple.
That Your Mystery may expand within us and true existence be revealed to the world so that we may gather in Your Name and glorify Perfect Unity.
Amen.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

We will sing a song at the request of our Most Holy Mother. A song that imitates the 'yes' of Mary, which She invites us to live in these times. The song is called "I say 'yes'."

And through this song we will affirm our 'yes' to Mary, in Her Heart, for all that Christ needs from each one of us, affirming that through our 'yes' the Lord will concretize His Victory.

I thank you for responding to My call!

May the Light of the Nativity of the Lord illuminate the world and especially Ukraine with Love and Peace.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
