SPECIAL MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS TRANSMITTED IN FATIMA, PORTUGAL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE 110TH MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Companions, there is no other reason for Me to come to the world other than to heal the humanity of these times, in the face of all that it lives, day by day, in all circumstances, situations and motives.

But I know that many do not understand what that means to your Master and Lord, and humanity keeps becoming sick in various situations and experiences, placing at stake its path of evolution and, many times, its path of awakening.

Today, through the solemn silence of My Heart, I tell you all this so that you may meditate and reflect. Do not expect the world to change quickly overnight.

Do not forget that your God, through His Beloved Son, incarnated on Earth through a humble and simple Woman, in a simple manger, so that all could see that God Himself is humble and prodigious.

If it had not happened this way, companions, the Work of Redemption and Peace would not have been possible. A Work that continues to be alive in these times and will continue to be alive through the adherence of all.

Around you, you see a planetary situation that is more critical and difficult by the day, but you also see, within yourselves, your own inner situation, and how sometimes you do not know how to deal with your process of transformation and purification. But I can tell you that I have given you everything and a little more, and that the Father has given this permission to Me, because I knew that you needed it.

While the time of planetary emergency becomes more acute in humanity and on the surface of this planet, I invite you not to forget Who I truly Am, so that you may not forget the reason why I still speak to you and I appear to give you My Message, which is the Message of God.

I know that the human condition many times confuses and accelerates events, you will be able to see this by yourselves in these crucial times. But I invite you to place your gaze in the hope that will be coming on the great day of My Return to the world, when your Master and Lord will witness the Universal Judgment.

At that hour, what will you be doing?

And how will you be able, by yourselves, to face this Judgment, which will come not to condemn and punish you, but rather it will come with wisdom to show you the reality that in many cases you did not want to see nor accept?

For this reason, I have had the intention, throughout the times, to give you My most precious Treasures, knowing that many of you, at some moment, could fail Me and not be aware of the true meaning of being by My side to accompany Me in this universal task, which does not correspond only to this civilization, but also to others.

But I do not come here to point out to you your ignorance or your little determination to take the definitive step to accept, once and for all, that there is no other path. I did the same a very long time ago for a more primitive and spiritually precarious humanity.

But you are not part of the same moment at which the humanity of the past was running a great risk of going astray and of destroying itself. Now, the events are graver, in the same way that the decisions that you take in your lives could also be grave and not have a return.

I want you to understand that, after these years of Apparitions, from 2013 up to the present, I have patiently worked for the redemption and sublimation of your consciousness. Even more, I have lovingly worked through My Instructions and Words so that you might make them a part of you, make them a part of your lives, just as the Love of God became Flesh in the Heart of His Son, in the most terrible suffering of the Agony on the Cross, in absolute loneliness, when I came to know that even My own companions of the past had abandoned Me due to fear and fright.

However, I tell you all this again because there truly is no longer time, and We will repeat this until you definitively understand and accept it.

Because the day and the hour will come when I will not be able to be by your side. You will have to be alone, albeit with God, in trust, living the great moment of transition of humanity and of the planet, seeing the darkness and obscurity around you, just as your Master and Lord saw them in the Garden of Gethsemane. And all this did not make Him step back, because He left His Heart empty to accept to drink from the Chalice that the Father was offering to His Son.

Today, before you, I show you My Altar, the Altar of My Spiritual and Planetary Priesthood. An Altar that has not emptied itself, because there have not been postulants to drink from the Chalices that are before your eyes. This lesson and teaching that I am bringing you is not emotional, but rather profoundly spiritual. I might say it is similar to the one that your Master and Lord experienced through the angel of the Garden of Gethsemane.

I know that, just as has happened in these recent times, the human condition has placed many of Mine, and especially those whom I have most loved up to today, in problems, in situations that have wounded the trust of My Heart, because they have consciously moved away from Me.

But to you, I say the same that I said to My apostles at the Last Supper: despite everything, love one another, just as I love you, and even more.

Today, I tell you that I will continue on with My Redeeming and Merciful Work, with those who, by themselves, have realized the meaning of being with Me in these final times and in this spiritual conjuncture of the planet, when all is at risk and in danger.

This is why, with My Gaze turned toward the ground, and just as My Holy Mother said to you on the last day of this past year, I say to you that the seals of the Apocalypse are fully opening. And I know that many are not aware of what this means at this moment.

I will never place upon you a cross that you could not carry, it would not be Christ.

I come here not only to share the bread and the wine, transubstantiated into My Body and My Blood. I come to share, with the obedient and those who have their hearts empty, My pain for the world, so that, in silence, it may be transmuted and liberated, with the goal that the most lost souls may have the Grace of rescue and redemption.

This is why I want you to know that My Will is written in the self-divested souls, in the souls that work every day on their own rendition and surrender. I cannot write My Will in disobedient souls, nor in souls that resist.

I will not busy Myself with this, nor will any other Hierarchy, for you have been aware, from the first day, of the meaning of being with Me and, although the flesh is weak, the soul can be strong and brave, it is capable of following Me in fidelity.

I continue to lose priests in the world. Who will be capable of uniting Heaven and Earth, Earth and Heaven?

It is not possible for priests not to exist in the world. Many believe they are priests, but I do not need their power or their ambition, I need priests who live the mystery of the Cross and of the Calvary. Priests who, just like Me, your Master, are capable of giving their lives, just as I did on the Cross, so that souls may avail themselves of God's Love, a Love urgently needed in these times, as many are disoriented and lost due to the things of the world.

Who will be worthy of perpetuating My Legacy until the last days of the Earth?

Who will be capable of truly consecrating their life so that I may work wonders in souls?

I do not come to look at your defects nor at your difficulties, for I know them all. I come to seek what you can truly give Me, without requirements, without conditions, without resistances.

This is why I have so few friends, faithful friends. And this is not a complaint on My part, it is a reality.

Being with Me is more than wanting to be with Me, it is more than obeying My Will and carrying it out.

Being with Me is something that goes beyond being in the Plan and being a part of My armies.

Being with Me is being close, without fear of mistakes.

Being with Me is being in transparency and not in lies.

Being in Me is being just the way you are, without thinking of what they will say or comment.

Being with Me is emptying yourselves every day. It is not to disobey the Law so as not to wound yourselves, it is not to waste My Call, because I know that if many have gone so far as to be with Me, it is because they have heard My summoning on the inner planes.

But who, if not Me, will rescue your lives and save your souls?

How is it possible that there are souls that do not want to be with Me so as to be with others?

This reflects the fact that the love that these souls have for Me is fragile and miserable.

Because I come to the world as a Messenger, to fulfill the Aspiration of God, which you do not know and which is the Aspiration that the Eternal Father may write His Will through your lives and, above all, through your souls.

Even having been Merciful to humankind, and above all, to you, it seems that to some this has not been enough. This signifies not understanding what Divine Mercy is. It implies not having placed oneself under the Rays of the Blood and Water of Christ, so that I might protect you and safeguard you from My enemy.

Therefore, this is the last time that I tell you this, because it is an Instruction that applies to all, without exception. Do not play with your destiny, because you do not know it. Do not miss the opportunity to enter Paradise because of your human feelings.

What will happen to all those who were behind you, waiting for the opportunity of love and redemption?

I say this to the undecided, undefined and fragile souls, because if their confidence had truly been in Me, nothing would have happened. The souls in the world would not go astray, because there would be no motive or reason for that to happen.

Finally, I would like you to know that there is a lot to do and that My Spirit is ennobled in all those who truly make the effort of surpassing themselves every day and, above all, make the effort of having their own lives be part of the salvation and redemption of the world.

I once told you: knock, and the door will open. And this door has opened to all, but, with grief and with My Gaze turned to the ground, I want to tell you that this door, however much you knock on it again, will not open once more. I say this to the undefined and ignorant souls.

The Treasures of the Father must not be wasted nor must His Gifts and His Virtues be wasted.

2023 will be a year of strong experiences that you must benefit from to mature and grow definitively, because My first Aspiration this year is that you may live the vow of fidelity and never again dare to put My Projects of Salvation and Mercy at risk.

With this, I do not say that you will cease to be imperfect, that you will cease to be tested, or to experience spiritual tests. With this, I tell you that, by being in fidelity, you will be able to go through a heavier storm than the one the apostles went through on the Sea of Galilee, in the Presence of the Master.

I would like the next Marathon of Divine Mercy to be prayed for the maturity of the New Christs, for the definition of those who still have not taken the step, for Mercy and Peace in this humanity.

Although some run the risk of wounding the Heart of God and the Heart of Christ, I come to give you My Blessing so that you may understand the infinity of My Redeeming Love.

One last piece of advice: protect and take care of one another, be capable of saving others and of running risks for their evolution, although this may be difficult or unbearable, because while you do not make My Love triumph within you and in your brothers and sisters, you will have many tests to go through.

Lastly, honor and give value and recognition to all that I have given you, so that the Law may not strike the undecided souls, the undefined souls.

May My Mercy transform Justice into Love and Compassion.

I give you My Peace for you to live and spread it.

My Heart is ready. What about yours?

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
