

Friday, October 24 of 2014

WEEKLY MESSAGE OF the Glorified CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN THE Marian Center of Aurora, Paysandu, Uruguay, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

If you still do not dare to walk barefoot by yourself, follow the simple path that I am indicating to you; for I will wait for you by the ocean of Mercy, to remove your shoes from yourself and wash your feet through My Forgiveness. Do not turn your back on Me.

I am calling you to truly go on pilgrimage with Me through the apostolate and the word. It is not a parable that I bring you today; it is the true mission which My Heart reveals to you in this end time.

I know that you are already tired of yourself and also of so much suffering. There are greater sorrows that I have not yet made known to you. Therefore, surrender and listen humbly to what I tell you today.

Do not seek to understand all things, the true fruits are kept in the simplest of hearts. They lack nothing.

If you want to be My beloved disciple, be like John the apostle, surrender in trust to the power of faith and allow Me to remove all your secure structures.

What will you lose when you stand before Me? What will you gain if you remain resistant?

I Am the Greater Light that sprang from the Heart of God. I Am that Spring of Life that never ends.

Keep me in your heart and you will be another consciousness.

It is no longer time to wait to mature, it is time to transfigure your little cells.

I have the power to set you free. I have the cure for your shortcomings. Just make sure you are following the right path.

I call you one by one, so that, one by one, you may respond to Me.

Under the Grace of God, be My apostles.

Thank you for transfiguring your lives!

The Glorified Christ Jesus