

Friday, February 17, 2023

APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS IN FATIMA, PORTUGAL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, DURING THE SACRED CALL

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Heaven and Earth must be united through good and surrendered priests. This is the main Legacy that I have left for humanity and for the planet.

Since the days of old, there have always been good and surrendered priests: through the patriarchs, through the announcement of the prophets, through all those who, throughout the times, have given their lives to the Lord, not only to live the total consecration of their consciousnesses, but also to serve the Lord of the Universe.

God had already thought of all this, that this Human Project could unite to the Universe and to the Primordial Source through the presence and existence of good and surrendered priests.

Within all the tasks that exist on the spiritual level, the life of My priests throughout the world is the most persecuted and harassed, but the master key to overcoming all this lies within the total surrender of the priests to My Merciful Heart.

Throughout the times, I do not come to seek perfect consciousnesses. I come to seek the virtues and talents that I left within each one of them, which is what I need in these times to carry forward the emergency Plan of Rescue. For this reason, priestly consciousnesses has been spiritually attacked throughout the times.

However, I have given you several examples of overcoming. Through surrendered consciousnesses, I have given you the testimonials and the example of how self-transcendence attains union with Christ to carry forward this extremely important and sacred task. Through the priests of the world, and regardless of their religions and beliefs, regardless of their dogmas and institutions, this will allow the people of God to spiritually live the gift I have given to them.

I want you to know, companions, that without priests in this world, the world will perish. Without true and good priests, souls may continue to go astray in this world.

It is very important to Me that priestly life may reflect and mirror upon the planet the sacred treasures that I left to all souls through the Sacraments.

Tonight, I want the whole world to remember the Passion of the Lord. This profound and eternal Passion that Christ lived at the Last Supper, not only instituting the greatest Legacy of Universal Love through the Body and Blood of Christ, but also instituting the Spiritual Priesthood on the planet, renewing it through the surrender of the Lamb of God, which takes away the sin of the world and gives you peace.

This is why I give thanks because, within this Monastic Order, just as in other religious orders in the world, there exist conscious souls that pray for the priests so that My Christic Legacy may not disappear from this world.

Through all My priests, there is the bridge that unites souls to God, there lies the opportunity for them to draw near the Primordial Source and for all hearts, regardless of their sins and faults, to remember they have the Grace of being worthy Children of God. This is also a sacred task of priests in the end of times.

For this reason, I will return to Israel this year, to re-establish and re-build the planetary spiritual priesthood.

I ask all souls who pray for priests, all those of religious profession who live My Priestly Ministry, living it with devotion, faith and love, to unite to the Great Priest of the world, Christ Jesus. In this way, and just as it was 2,000 years ago, at this moment of planetary inflection, priests that still continue to live in Christ and for Christ may be spirits that receive the Legacy of Love and Redemption, through all that I Myself will offer to the world during the next Sacred Week.

I would like you to understand, companions, that there is no other way or solution. Because through the priests that I internally form when they truly surrender their lives to Me, I can work miracles, liberations, reconciliations and profound acts of Mercy in those souls that still have not attained atonement from God.

It will be priestly life, in the end of these times, that will allow souls to find the strength they need in times of emergency, through the living of the Sacrament as something unique and spiritual.

In this way, souls will be able to unite to My Priestly Spiritual Archetype, which is a living, eternal and inexhaustible state of consciousness that Christ Jesus radiates to the universe from the sublime heart of Andromeda, from where My Christic and priestly impulses can reach all humanities, beyond this humanity.

But I know that what I left to the world 2,000 years ago and through the Last Supper, having founded the apostolate to the world, is still a mystery or something unattainable for souls.

However, I ask you to love to discover, in these final times and through yourselves, the science of the Sacraments. For what I instituted 2,000 years ago must flourish again in these final times and especially in this next Sacred Week, because it will be the last great impulse that I will give to the whole world so that, through priestly life, souls may be ready and prepared to live the last and great time of tribulation, when all will seem lost. In such a culminating and unknown hour for humanity, the Light of God will return to the world through the Return of Christ.

And just as I have called you all by your names, I will also call My priests so that they may come to celebrate the Supper of Redemption with Me, together with the angels, blessed ones and beings of goodwill who, throughout the times, have valued the Precious Blood of Christ, poured out upon the world, bearing witness of the Presence of My Love in this world, through the sacrifice and surrender of My companions.

Thus, I will not only re-build the planet and prepare souls for the New Humanity; I will also come and seek My apostles, My priests, all My prayerful ones, those who live the spirit of contemplation, the seekers of peace, the adorers, all those who try to bring to the world healing for the planet, as well as those who reflect, through their lives, like a great mirror, the Grace and Mercy of God, such as those who guard and keep the Evolutionary Plan.

In this way, I will gather you, on top of a mount, but it will no longer be Calvary. It will be Paradise, the emergence of the New Earth on this horizon of the world. And together with Me, for the redemption of the human race and for the healing of this planet, everyone will again break the Bread, share it with their brothers and sisters, again eat from the Living Body of Christ, present within it, and they will drink from the Chalice of renewal and peace.

Through souls, I will renew the world and expel from this planet the forces of evil. And no nation will ever again rise against nation, division in families will no longer be known and no soul in this world will know what disease is, for they will have attained inner healing, which will come from the Cosmos to the planet through all those who attune with the Laws of Healing.

And the sign will be visible at the moment of the Return of the Lord, for I will come as the Supreme Healer, the Redeemer of the World, to return to you the peace you so much seek and yearn for. Thus, hand in hand with Me, you will enter Paradise and the Project will finally be fulfilled.

This is why we must pray with more fervor, with unknown fervor. Not with fanaticism, not with euphoria. Truly pray, from the heart, feeling each one of the words that are pronounced through the praying word.

Thus, through the merits of My Sorrowful Passion, those who have not repented will repent. And I will keep the door to My Mercy open for those who have abandoned and left Me.

At that hour, I promise you, each soul will be before their own reality, know who they are, know who they were and what they did in other times. And at that moment, they will have the opportunity to place their knees on the ground and ask for forgiveness, mercy and redemption, so that even their own origin may be re-established and recovered from all that once happened in other times.

For this reason, My Arrival will be not only in the world, My Return will also be in the universe. For this I am preparing you. Do not miss the opportunity to be with Me, because little time among you is left for Me. I have extended My time here more than had been foreseen.

Throughout these years, in these meetings, at each moment shared with My companions, the Father has allowed Me to stay longer than what was had been foreseen. For this is the moment for you to finish strengthening and be My apostles in action, not in theory. To be My apostles in closeness, in listening, in dialogue, in the opportunity to appreciate differences, in the Grace of living the sacred spirit of compassion. In this way, at this moment and under this planetary condition, souls may receive the last opportunity they need, with one aim: to again find the path to My Heart.

This is the reason why it is important to have priests in this world, despite the interference and clashes experienced.

The one who truly loves Me and does not exchange Me for anyone, shall not perish. This is a Law.

Therefore, before My return to Israel, when My entire history will be exposed and available for the inner worlds, correctly know how to drink from the Fount of Grace.

At this hour and in these weeks, I prepare you to enter the Sacred Week with greater awareness and determination, for I still hope that your lives may be My instruments on Earth.

At this hour, I commune with those who listen to Me in an open way.

I renew My Presence through all those who hear Me.

I pour out My Mercy through those who cry out for Me, because the great spiritual wounds of the planet must still be healed by the Christs of the New Times. This is a promise that I made to the Eternal Father.

You now have everything. I ask you for everything. And I hope you understand Me.

The hour is coming. The prophecy of John, the Apostle, is being fulfilled. It is time to act.

Now, we will celebrate My Legacy of Love, by re-living the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus, through the Sacred Eucharist, when all, once again, will have the Grace of being before My Christic Legacy, for the angels that will co-celebrate this moment will be able to place My Graces in your hearts.

Do not forget that I Am the Lord of Love and Life, and that I give My Life for My friends, just as I gave My Life on the Cross, at each step of the sorrowful Calvary. At each flagellation, I did not think of the pain, the agony or all that I was going through while I was being torn apart or hit, because they wanted Me to die before reaching the Cross of the Victory of Redemption; before being able to renew the Tree of Life.

Thus, I hope that not only the priests, but also all those who consciously unite to Me, will surrender their lives for Me. It saddens me to know, at this moment, that some of those whom I have called have abandoned Me, not understanding at all the power of My Love, for one reason: not having surrendered before Me.

For this reason, if you see that this happen to someone, do not judge nor criticize them. Do not condemn that lost soul. See within yourselves, with wisdom, love and compassion, how your surrender to Me is. For the contrary currents will come, the ground will shake, and you must be firm through My Love and your trust in Me. I Am with the one who is with Me. This is a promise.

Now, through the priests, I will allow Heaven to descend to Earth, just as it descends through My Word.

Now, I will allow My Graces to descend so that souls may be spiritually renewed and healed, so that the relief of suffering of the innocent may once again be possible, the relief of those who are experiencing chaos and still do not have the Grace of Mercy or of Peace.

May this moment be celebrated by each one of them, because I need it this way.

May each moment that you will live, from now on, in your spiritual life, in your moment of prayer or adoration, be offered for all that which your Master and Lord will carry out in the Middle East, during the next Holy Week.

Do it as I ask of you, and you will later understand why. The emergency demands it so.

Let us open the doors, at this moment, of the Celestial Church, so that the guardian angels may elevate the offerings of the souls that are present at this place and in other places, so that souls may re-live with sincerity the Passion of Christ through the Eucharist.

Thus, once again, each one of you will be marked by My Light and My Peace.

Let us celebrate.

I bless you, giving you strength, courage and bravery for the next stage, so that the Christ of the New Times may emerge in you.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.