SPECIAL MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS TRANSMITTED IN NERJA, MALAGA, SPAIN, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE 112TH MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I speak to the hearts of all, on this night that withdraws, yet is illuminated by the Presence of the Living Love of God.

I have called you here and you have responded to My call, and for this reason I thank you. Even if you do not deeply understand what this means, I do know what it means and what it will represent in the next stages of the Plan of Rescue in humanity, in the next tasks that your Master and Lord will carry out in Israel and, through Israel, in the whole Middle East.

Because in truth I tell you that tonight, by being with Me and able to enter My Merciful Heart, you are again living what you lived with Me in the past, when your Master stepped with His Feet on the surface of this planet, to preach, heal and cure, to announce the Good News, which, in these times, I hope will echo beyond the material life of the planet, beyond all ignorance and indifference, because My Voice and My Word echo when souls live Me and feel Me, when hearts trust Me.

This is why tonight I Am here with you and with the world. I Am here for all refugees and exiled, for all those who tragically disappeared in Turkey and Syria.

But today I assure you that all those souls are being contemplated by the Eternal Father so that they may achieve their path of liberation, and also their path of reconciliation with the Heavens, because the Eternal Father has listened to the prayers of His children, of all those who, in these times, decide to respond to His Call, in the face of the tragic planetary reality.

However, once again, through the ocean that lies before you, I bring you the reflection of the Great Mirror of God's Love, the Eternal Love of the Source, from which all of you come, and so do all your brothers and sisters. The Supreme and Immaterial Source which is being forgotten by the world, due to indifference, due to the wars, due to the lack of religiosity or all spiritual connection.

For this reason, through My serving and paternal Presence, I come to congregate all My sheep, call them by their names on the inner planes, because the moment of the final times has come, when all My companions must be firm, available and whole, to sustain with Me this moment of the great Armageddon.

However, do not despair nor be frightened, because if you trust the Mercy of My Heart, nothing will happen to you. If you faithfully follow My precepts, you will be protected from yourselves and, just as I did to My apostles in the Sacred Cenacle, in these times I will send the Holy Spirit of God to guide you and lead you toward the concretion and the experience of living Divine Will, a Supreme Will that is also being forgotten and, in some cases, is despised by the men and women of the Earth.

But when I return, I will show the whole world all that they have abstained from living with the Eternal Father. Because the signs that I will give will be concrete, and all that is kept as a treasure on the inner planes will be revealed, so that the signs may redeem the planet and human consciousness. Because it is the time for these signs to begin to descend upon the whole world, upon those who are asleep and have not awakened, and those who must again find the path of redemption.

This is why this is the time of immediate preparation. This is the hour to give all for the Plan, so that this Plan may be concretized on the surface of the planet, even if this begins to happen in the smallest things, or in the transformation and rehabilitation of your lives.

This is what the Eternal Father needs in these final times: that souls may decide to be His Great Mirror, that the lives of His Creatures may reflect His Divine Attributes, in the face of a world that, more each day, moves away from the truth and loses the path toward the Kingdom of Peace due to living everything that is petty and indifferent.

This is the time for your eyes and the eyes of your brothers and sisters to open, so that you may understand that, through the current planetary situation, a change in consciousness is necessary, and also in the material life.

For this reason, I am here once again, not only to bring with Me to the Heavens those who have died in this Mediterranean Sea, but also to warn the world and, above all, Europe, that it must mend its errors and correct all its indifferences to those who suffer and are subjected to slavery, because this planet, which the Eternal Father has given to you, has a Spiritual and Higher Purpose that has not yet been fulfilled.

Therefore, companions, it is time to mend the errors and live the change. Once and for all, it is time for peoples and races, nations and cultures to consider themselves as one spiritual family, because although this may seem distant to the majority, it is not so for your Master and Lord.

Thus, dedicate your life to a life of service and prayer, do not allow uncertain doors to keep opening on this planet. Through your prayers and your act of surrender and sincere self-giving, you may maintain the doors of Mercy open for humanity, because otherwise the world will continue to be purified intensely.

I only want you to grow in wisdom and understanding, because I do not want to see anyone else suffer and have to endure that which this world does every day, outraging the Laws of the universe, moving away from Love and Truth, failing to fulfill Divine Will.

For this reason, I will raise again, upon the ether of this planet, all the merits that I attained through My Public Life, My Sorrowful Passion, My Death and Resurrection, through My Presence in the Holy Land. For not only does the Middle East need it imperiously, all of humanity also needs it, because if I do not carry out this task in Israel, humanity would be headed toward a dead end, and no one would manage to remove it from that place, not even the angels.

Therefore, you must continue to pray for this great mission in Israel. I invite you to be with Me, in heart and in essence. I invite you to accompany each step of your Master and Lord during the days of the Holy Week.

In this preparatory Lent that you are living, I also ask you to truly live it, with introspection, with deep reflection and penitence, for the great indifference that the world lives, for not being able to see the Light of God.

In this way, you will finish your preparation for the culminating times to come and nothing, absolutely nothing will take you by surprise, because what you may have to live in these final times will only impel you to be the New Christs. These Christs are the ones that My Eternal Father hopes to see present on this planet, within this humanity, converting all through faith and prayer, selfless and simple service that may erase, once and for all, the stigmas of this planet, and heal the still open wounds of this humanity, stricken by wars and conflicts, inequality and also by the madness of that which the modernity of these times offers, leading the majority to live an artificial god.

But do not forget, companions, that the Blood that I once shed upon the surface of this Earth has a price, it has an incalculable and inexhaustible value. And it is this Powerful Blood that you must invoke and aspire to spiritually receive so that your lives may be healed, redeemed and liberated from error and sin and, through a powerful communion with Me, you may be born again and renewed.

Therefore, may this Lent be a conscious Lent, which may spiritually prepare you to enter the Holy Week. In this way, you will be able to accompany Me, as I need and expect, in all that which your Master and Lord will do in Israel and, through Israel, in the whole world. Thus, your hearts will be ready and in the place where I want them to be.

May you receive My blessing tonight, just as My apostles received it many times, and in each place that I had visited, in each space where I had preached, in each heart where I had worked a miracle in the name of the Eternal Father.

I want your lives to be a miracle of love so that this miracle in your lives may transform the world. Many more souls can achieve the Grace of being worthy of this miracle of love, just as you are living it.

I anoint you with My Spiritual Light, and in this month of March, I prepare you for the Holy Week. Know that this month of March will be the month of the great preparation, as has never happened in the history of humanity and in any other Holy Week. In this way, you will understand the importance of all that I Am saying to you at this moment. I Am here, also for this reason, so that this Purpose may be fulfilled as it is written, and you may once again be partakers in the Mercy of God, which humanity and the planet need so much.

I thank all those who are present, for having worked with the souls and essences of the refugees.

In the next Marathon of Divine Mercy, I wish for you to wholeheartedly pray to the Sacred and Unfathomable Heart of Jesus, for all those who are discarded and oppressed, for those who have disappeared on land and in the oceans, for those who do not have the opportunity to live hope, in themselves and in their families.

Pray for all this and thus you will relieve My Heart of the evil spirit of indifference.

May Mercy convert miseries.

May hearts receive peace and may everything be renewed. Just as it is renewed in the Heavens, may it be renewed on Earth, and just as it can be renewed on Earth, may everything be renewed in your inner worlds. For what I wish the most in these times is that you may be part of the Kingdom of the Heavens, just as the angels and blessed ones are a part of it.

I withdraw into the hearts that adore.

I Am strengthened in the souls that pray.

I renew Myself in the hearts that serve.

I make Myself present in those who commune with My Body and My Blood. In this way, I establish the Light and the Love of God.

I thank you for being with Me tonight, and although it is late at this moment, know that your Master and Lord, in the deepest nights, would make His great decisions, elevating His Gaze to the Heavens or seeking, in the infinite, upon the horizon, the Presence of the Eternal Father, to feel His embrace and His solace, because it is He who comforts us and renews us through his Love and His Truth.

I thank you and once again invite you to pray during this Marathon of Divine Mercy, for all that I have asked of you, with the honesty of My Heart.

May Africa, Europe and the Middle East be blessed, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
