

Saturday, March 4 of 2023

APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS IN NERJA, MALAGA, SPAIN, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE FIRST DAY OF THE 112TH MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I am not seeking what is perfect or wonderful within you. I am looking for the true honesty of your heart which, united to Me, may reflect in your life and in your consciousness. I said this to the apostles and today I say it to you, companions.

I do not need your lives to be perfect or realized. I need your lives to surrender to My Feet, just as the holy women surrendered to the Feet of the Master and did not seek anything for themselves other than to please and adore the Lord.

Therefore, empty yourselves once again before Me, at this moment, and keep in mind, at this time, how many wonders God has accomplished in your life and in the lives of your brothers and sisters. How many Graces and treasures He has poured out through the Presence of His Most Beloved Son on Earth and, even more, He has multiplied His Graces and prodigies in the hearts of those who are Mine.

For this reason, in this difficult hour of the planet, I ask you: empty yourself of all before Me once again and allow Me to anoint you with My Light. Allow Me to embrace you with My Love so that you may become nothing, but rather be all in the Eternal Father. Just as His Child is in the Father, so the Father is in His Child.

In this void in which I invite you to live, I also invite you to divest yourselves of that which oppresses you or torments you, because your Lord, the King of the Universe, knows all the spiritual ties that souls live. He knows all the chains that bind you. And nothing is impossible for the victory of your Master and Lord, because for the one who is with Me, and I Am with them, I assure them that they will be liberated, and each step of life will be a learning experience, it will be a lesson and wisdom lived so that, at each moment, you may learn to grow in love and in truth, because I need you, in these times, in love and in truth.

But so that souls may be in this love and in this truth, they must be empty of themselves, just as your Master and Lord was empty of Himself in the Garden of Gethsemane, at the moment of His Condemnation, in the judgment of the pharisees. At each step to the Calvary as well as in the Crucifixion, your Master and Lord was empty of Himself so that it might be God Who was suffering for you, because I want you to know, once and for all, that the Living God suffered for you on the Cross.

He descended from the Source and from the Universe to save and rescue you. And the powerful Love of the Living God made itself so small and insignificant that He was born in a manger, where His adversaries would never think that God could be.

Thus, the Love of the Father, through His Son, defeats the powerful, humbles the arrogant, divests those who waste their riches and gives His most precious spiritual treasures to the poorest in heart, to the most humble within. And through His Presence He ennobles and elevates those who recognize His Sidereal Name: Adonai.

I know that the cross is heavy for many, but I assure you before this Mediterranean Sea, where I deeply pray for the wounds and outrages brought about to the most innocent, that there are worse crosses than yours, because, thus, I can help you carry your own cross, without your perceiving it.

But in these final and challenging times, I need you to help Me carry the cross of the planet, because many do not want to carry nor bear it due to the fear of what they will feel or suffer.

But do not forget what I once told you, that I do not come here to ask for new crucified, because the Living God has let Himself be crucified for you, so that you might be liberated from evil. I come to seek victims that may be postulants to My Love. I come to summon the victims of My Merciful Love, who time and again not only recognize the Presence of the Lord in life, but also recognize the power of His Blood and His Water, infinite streams converted and transubstantiated into sublime and powerful Rays of Divine Mercy. Time and again, I untiringly offer this Divine Mercy for the liberation of souls from all spiritual slavery, as well as from the hells of this world, which engulfs many.

By the power of My Blood shed at each step of the path to Calvary, I come to demonstrate to you the Lord's sacrifice and sacred surrender through His most absolute silence, which defeated enemies, those who were against the Plan of God.

And although My apostles abandoned Me at the most culminating moment of My Life, when I needed them the most, I was spiritually consoled and sustained by the holy women who, in their own prayer and ecstasy, internally helped the Lord and anointed Him with the most precious oils of the Holy Land, preparing the Lord's sepulcher, because they clearly knew about the day of My Glorious Resurrection.

With this fact that I bring today to all of you, I invite you to live the Ray of Resurrection, because each one of you will need it in these times, to learn to begin anew, every day, despite the learning experiences and lessons of life, despite the clashes and interferences.

Through the Ray of Resurrection, I come to teach you about the power of transcendence and renewal, something that your own Master lived at the sepulcher, on the third day, after having resurrected and having been adored and recognized as the Living God by all the angels of the universe.

I want you to carry this impulse in your hearts and essences so that, with courage, bravery and determination, you may learn to overcome the end of times, because there will still be a lot to go through, learn and grow internally, and I will support you so that you may live new Christic experiences.

When you feel that the tension is too ardent or the pressure seems too big, remember that you will be before the great step of Christification, because they are gradual and mature steps for those who decide to go through them.

Thus, I make the New Christs emerge, not only because they remember My Presence in this world and in humanity, for it is an indelible and inexhaustible Presence, but also because My apostles dare to walk by My side at each new summoning, regardless of the consequences or even of their families.

I once promised that I would give all to the one who would give Me all, and I would take care of each member of their family, because everything is important to Me, even what seems small and invisible.

Thus, I make you understand that God is present in that which is simple and true, that His Power and His Majesty hides in what is humble and austere, and that His Love reveals itself and shows up in those who are true and honest in heart. In this way, He manages to embrace His creatures, sustains them, guides them and leads them to the fulfillment of the Spiritual Purpose.

Thus, the Eternal Father renews Himself through souls and hearts and this planet, seemingly lost, can re-create itself through the hearts that surrender in trust to the Lord and accept to live His Greater Love.

On this new night, when I meet you on the top of Malaga's mountains and before the Mediterranean Sea, witnesses of the greatest pains caused by war, invasions and conquests experienced at this location of the planet, and for the hundreds of boats that have crossed this sea and have been discarded, I come to grant a spiritual atonement so that the errors committed against the poorest among the poor may be forgiven through your 'yes' to follow the path of the Lord in sacrifice for those who do not live My path, for those who deny My path, for those who do not live My Word, for those who do not want to awaken.

May your 'yes' be for each one of them, so that their lives may continue to receive Graces and be blessed in the innermost depths of the spirit and of the consciousness, a place from where they will find the inner strength they need to live their learning experience on this planet.

Thus, I will slowly gather the flocks of the Lord, from the four cardinal points of the planet, until the time and hour comes, which is not so far, for My Return to the world, because in a short time it will cease to be a promise and it will be a reality.

And on a night similar to this, before the Mediterranean Sea, you and your brothers and sisters of the planet will be able to be witnesses of the Glorious Return of the Lord. Some here, on this physical plane, and others on the inner planes; all will be participants at this great promised moment, just as the angels will be witnesses of this universal event.

I consciously prepare you for this day, and I will absolutely not forget anyone, because all has been foreseen by the Eternal Father. I Myself remember those who no longer live on this physical plane, their loved ones and the loved ones of all of humanity who, for some reason, have lost their life and died in the hope of finding the Promised Land.

Tonight, My Merciful Heart illuminates this night, just as this Moon illuminates the whole world with its disk of Light, faithful witness of God's Presence within you, witness of the Grace that descends through My Words and for the redemption of the entire human race.

Keep praying during these days to relieve My Heart and know that I will joyously be waiting in Israel, in the name of all your brothers and sisters of the Work and of humanity, because I assure you that Israel will mark a turning point for your lives and the life of the planet, as My Christic Codes once again manifest themselves to the whole world.

This is what will mark all of you as My self-summoned. This is what My Eternal Father will recognize when I return to the world.

This is why I Am here, for this cause, so that this may be fulfilled in you and in your brothers and sisters of the whole world, so that you may awaken those who are asleep and truly love those who hate you, so that those who take revenge may be forgiven, so that those who have not been rescued may be redeemed. All is being counted and foreseen by the Lord.

At this hour of the dark night of the planet, have faith and move on. My promise is fulfilled in the silence of your hearts. It is there where I want to live forever within you, it is there where God needs us all.

Now, under this sidereal and universal night, when the stars are witnesses of the Passion of Christ, but also of His Ascension into the Heavens, into the Universe, may all consciousnesses who live in the cosmos contemplate this moment of Spiritual Communion. In this way, all these consciousnesses who live in the firmament, in other galaxies and stars, will be able to learn from this moment, which I have given to you with so much Love, through the institution of the Eucharist.

Enter the inner Cenacle with Me and consciously live the Sacrifice of the Lord again, so that this world may attain peace, so that this world may put violence aside, so that nations may be freed from impunity, and the poorest and most simple may no longer live in inequality, but rather in equality, with the aim that the Kingdom of God may descend to Earth.

In this starry firmament, on this moonlit night that embraces you, I not only leave you the blessing of My Spirit, Soul and Divinity, but I also leave to you your origins, alive in this universe, so that you may make the commitment of bringing this moment to the universe, which is the place where you come from, the place to which you will return someday to finally merge with the Immaterial Source.

I thank you once again for accompanying Me on this solemn night and enter the Spiritual Communion with Me to once again prepare the inner temple for the Communion with the Sacred Son who opens the doors of Israel for you to enter into the New Jerusalem.

Let us also pray for this cause and this mission. This is the least I ask of you.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.