

Saturday, April 8, 2023

APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY IN ROME, ITALY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE MEETING ON THE 13TH

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

As Mother of the Sepulcher, I am waiting for My children, for those who will still have to be resurrected in spirit for this time of transition, when souls live and face unexpected and incomprehensible situations.

For this reason, with all the holy women, the Mother of God deepens in Her perpetual prayer, to ask the Son of God for Grace, to grant the spiritual resurrection for all those who need it, especially for those children of Mine who left the Path of Christ.

But this is also a mystery for the entire human mind, because only God knows the moment and the hour that this will happen, to grant spiritual resurrection to My children of the world.

Today, on this special day for your Heavenly Mother, as a special day for all the followers of Christ, I come on a pilgrimage with you to Rome, following the same path that your Heavenly Mother followed with the holy women and Joseph of Arimathea, bringing the Sacred Relics of Christ for all of Europe and the whole world.

And on this path of spiritual and inner pilgrimage, your Heavenly Mother reignites the Inner Centers again, those that the Spiritual Hierarchy has governed from the beginning; since it was granted to the world to have the Inner Centers of the Hierarchy present on the surface of this planet, so that all souls, in their diversity and in their paths, find through the Inner Centers the impulse they need to live redemption.

For this reason, we are here today, and everything is transformed again, so that the universe takes advantage of each moment that is lived to grant souls, who have not yet been spiritually resurrected, the Grace of liberation.

And after all the itinerary lived in the Holy Land, an inner pilgrimage towards the Relics and Holy Places of My Son, your Heavenly Mother returns to accompany the world through this Work, donating the Christic codes of love and redemption in the souls so that everyone has, once again, the opportunity for redemption.

I want you to contemplate for a moment all the stages that you lived in the Holy Land, because this will be poured out as a Grace in the consciousness of humanity.

You, My beloved children, are part of this Project of humanity on the surface. When a soul of Christ takes a step towards Him, all of humanity receives that impulse, even if it does not deserve it.

How far does the infinity of God's Love go, that your Mother, tireless and eternal, continues to walk together with Her children, together with the sacred people of Israel, today spread throughout the planet and that must be imperiously prepared for the Return of Christ?

But to be in the face of the great moment of the arrival of My Son, you need those Christic codes to be able to understand that event.

No one could be in front of the Return of Christ as something common or transitory. For this reason, through My Son, I come to offer the world the codes of the Sacred Relics of the Redeemer that, in these last days, through the Sacred Week, were highly exposed for souls on a spiritual and internal level.

For this reason, I am here. And today, through Israel and Italy, I create a bridge of Light between the sacred and between the apostolate. Because from all those who contemplate the Sacred Relics of Christ in the Holy Land, the impulse of the apostolic and missionary life can be born so that the Codes of Christ are shared with humanity.

Dear children, Rome has been the site of many historical events. The successor of My Son, Saint Peter, was here and in this place, he lived his great surrender to Christ. As a good Mother, I wept for that moment and even on My pilgrimage with the Sacred Relics together with the holy women and also together with Saint Joseph of Arimathea, we were here with Saint Peter to encourage him and so that he could carry forward that great task that My Son entrusted to him, of opening the doors of Heaven for all hearts through the Christic life, through service and love for others. And this was fulfilled, just as it was foreseen by Christ.

And now, I am here to complete this moment with you, aspiring that after this Sacred Week your hearts will have lived an inner experience that enriches and strengthens your spiritual journey so that, starting from this new cycle that will begin after the Sacred Week, your paths are more mature and defined.

Because Christ still expects you to accompany Him to support the planetary cross and this, dear children, is not something symbolic, but deeply spiritual and true. Thus, He will know when He will be able to return, because He needs his apostles and followers to be ready.

Who will accompany Him when He is here, on the planet, in everything that the Master will do at that moment?

This is nothing imaginary nor is it a fantasy, My dear children. The King of the Universe will touch the soil of this planet with His Feet.

He will reunite the tribes of Israel spread throughout the planet and will call them to meet with Him again, for His Voice will be more than thunder and His Call will resonate more than this material universe, and He will ask you:

"Companions, what have you done with everything I have given you?"

And so, the Prophecy of Christ will be fulfilled again through the parables that He taught everyone.

Will you be ready to answer Him at that moment?

Now, you will be able to understand the importance of inner preparation and attunement; because, as it was said by the Lord Himself, My Beloved Son will not announce the day or the hour that He will arrive, He will appear in a way never seen before and His signs will be impactful and not tenuous.

Those who never believed in Him will be able to believe and everything will be unmasked, because His Law that no stone will be left on stone will be fulfilled again; and that moment needs to be supported by everyone, especially by those who have defined themselves as His apostles and disciples, the apostles and disciples of the end of these times.

For this reason, He sends Me here, to Rome; and thus He sends you, as He sent the apostles, to various regions of the planet to bear witness to His Love, through example and not so much through words, to bear witness to His Truth through the example of your transformation, and not so much of your appearances, to bear witness to His Path through your faith and not your fanaticism.

The path that My Son indicates to everyone is very clear and free of secondary intentions. The apostolate of the end of these times is also something unique, because it is the apostolate of the transition of the end of times, of a well-marked before and after for the entire consciousness of humanity.

I wanted to bring this Message to all My beloved children, because I come to close everything that has happened in this recent Sacred Week.

The Plan of the Hierarchy is on the table. It has already been evenly divided. Now, who will take their part and be that fundamental piece that the Hierarchy needs? So that, in this time of the Rescue Plan, the Spiritual Hierarchy is able to carry out Its operations and everything that is yet to happen beyond the chaos of the planet, beyond the conflicts or confrontations between nations and peoples, beyond all situations, known or unknown.

This is the time to concretize the commitment and for the apostles of Christ, who appeal to follow His Path to the end, to stop remaining on the periphery and focus on the center of God's Purpose.

I know that what I am saying cannot encompass all of your consciousnesses; for this reason, I must perpetually pray that you are wide awake. That is what My Son has imperiously asked of Me; thus, in each new stage, you can live what Christ offers you out of love.

I would like to end this Message, My dear children, by thanking all those who prayed for the Mission to Israel and also those who will continue to pray for the Mission in Turkey.

The Middle East urgently needs the doors of Mercy to be open to that region. Let us continue praying, dear children, for all that the Hierarchy needs to materialize in that region of the planet.

Thus, My beloved, you will be able to confirm, at this moment and in this cycle, how far the Work of the Hierarchy has reached, from the emergence of the Figueira Light-Community to the present.

I am grateful to those who continue in faith and who aspire every day to drink a little more from the Source of My Son's Love to learn to go through these unknown and difficult times, to learn to surpass themselves in love.

In the name of My Son, as Mother and Lady of Israel, I thank you for everything that has happened, because today the sparks of Light of the Internal Retreats of Christ are kept ignited in the Middle East by the efforts of the apostles of Christ, by all those who dare to say yes.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who blesses and loves you,

Mary, Rose of Peace

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.