MESSAGE FOR THE APPARITION IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, TRANSMITTED BY MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Receive in your hearts, My breath, the last you shall receive before the great time of tribulation.

Know how to recognize My presence in your hearts because in a future time I will only be able to pray for My children and to observe them and, in this moment, My dears, you will feel My prayer touching your essences.

Those ones who build the path that leads to My Immaculate Heart through prayer will know how to be united to My Universal Consciousness, even when I may no longer be able to reach this world as I do today.

My beloveds, all I come to build within your beings will only have its true repercussion after this life.

Know that the fact of being beside Me will not make you free from obstacles and difficulties that the world imposes to its inhabitants. But the one who prays will see the upcoming events as someone who does not belong to this world. And even if they are supposed to live things known as sufferings to the common humanity, they will not feel that way, but rather they will find in everything the opportunity of imitating My Son and learning from Him about true love.

My beloveds, I will not take you away from this world when the moment of the final test of your lives comes, but I assure you that the one who may persevere on the path of true prayer shall not perish by the planetary misfortunes.

I want you to know that the time of purification has already began within each being and that now is the moment to learn to withstand the storms that you live in your own interior so that in this way may you learn to overcome difficulties when they come to the whole world.

My Children, you must not fear, you must prepare yourselves because the one who is well prepared to take a test does not fear to be before it.

I come to the world in this time because I know about the great need of the hearts. Learn to feel, in My daily presence, the urgency of the planetary moment and the infinite Mercy of God Who sends Me to the world one more time to rescue and awake the consciousnesses.

I am throwing the last nets into the sea of this world in order to take to the boat of salvation all of those who lose themselves in the waters of illusions and emotions of the life upon the Earth.

Dear children, with love I ask you: pray with a devotion that you still do not know. Do not permit prayer to become a common routine of your days. Know how to pray with the clamor of your spirits.

May you know, in each moment of prayer, how to feel the need of the world. May you know, in each moment of prayer, how to transcend the limits of your own bodies, of tension and of inertia, to which the current planetary condition leads permanently.

Remember that My eyes and My Heart are attentive to the praying hearts of the world and, before the smallest door that may open, I can rescue those who are truly suffering because they have lost their union with God.

My beloveds, study My words, practice them and do not forget them, not even for one single minute. My Divine Word comes to build the fortress that you will need in the times that will come.

I bless you today and always and await you in prayer.

Your Mother, Mary, Rose of Peace
