Daily Message transmitted by the Virgin Mary, Rose of Peace, in the Marian Center of Figueira, Minas Gerais, Brazil, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

Dear children,

Although the deepest wounds of the planet are at this moment being shown through the chaos in this world, My Immaculate Heart protects and safeguards all the children that cry out to God in heartfelt sincerity.

Thus, your Heavenly Mother is interceding, at this moment, for all the innocent souls and for the most sinful souls who draw the violence of the elements of nature to the world.

Today, I am placing each one of them in My Arms of a Mother, so that their deepest nuclei may be safeguarded by the Love of My Motherly Heart.

Although the world is collapsing, I will always be with you.

Although the world seems to be falling apart, I will always be with you.

Although catastrophes, wars, unjustly spilled blood exist, I will always be with you.

Although the violence of the end of these times is unleashed overnight, even during the three days of great darkness, I will always, always be with you. For I came and come to this world to recover what is lost, what nobody wants to take care of in this humanity.

I am determined, at least, to allow My Heart to triumph in the inner worlds of the inhabitants of North America.

It is My mission and My destiny that the most imperfect and lost souls, that the peoples, cities and nations broken by the wave of the intense purification may have an opportunity and gain a Grace from My Heart.

There will be no element, catastrophe or physical or inner disaster that will stop Me; because I Am the Mother of your Master and Lord, I Am the untiring seeker of the love and prayers of souls.

When that alliance is consummated between you, My children, and your Universal Mother, when you live the same love and the same service that your Celestial Mother lives, I assure you that the planet may shake or sway, but the love between us will be inextinguishable; and I will receive your love and service in each moment to present it as an offering of sacrifice of humanity.

Do not hesitate, do not waver, the Lord is merciful and consoling with everything that is happening today in this world.

Believe and reaffirm the Coming of Christ in yourselves, for it will happen in spite of what takes place.

I leave you in My Motherly Arms, now and always.

Who blesses you, with the holy sword of the Archangel Saint Michael,

Your Mother, the Virgin Mary, Rose of Peace
