

Friday, June 29, 2012

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, MOTHER OF THE DIVINE CONCEPTION OF THE TRINITY, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Do not fear being before God, He loves you. My Son contemplates you and I protect you under My protecting Mantle.

God knows your skills and virtues, Christ knows the power of talents and My Heart assists all those who, with love in the heart, call Me.

For this reason, dear children, may the joy of living in God and of giving yourselves to God prevail within you today. Every mistake the world makes can be forgiven. Therefore, look back no longer, see the celestial hope that emerges on the horizon.

Just keep your hearts open so that the Holy Spirit may fill them and purify them. It is necessary, My children, to keep the heart pure so that the feelings and thoughts before God may be pure. Do not be afflicted by how much you see that still needs to be transformed: the life of consecration is eternal and everything begins now.

Be carriers of the joy of My Maternal Heart because the world needs relief and you can help with prayer. Elevate your consciousnesses to the Door of the Heavens and ask with compassion for Mercy, My Son will hear you because His Rays are still over the world.

Build with your hands the bridge towards the prayer of the heart.

If you have fallen, I will lift you.

If your hearts are discouraged, I will make them joyful.

God is everything for your lives, God is Love and Truth for your hearts.

Today, stay in Jesus because His Sacred Heart will alleviate you, and It will repair you with His Compassion.

Accept the time of Mercy that is still left and be brave praying soldiers willing to consecrate your lives to the God of Love, the Only One for all.

I hear your prayers when they are born in the essence of the heart.

Rise, as Jesus said, and do not become faint.

Be spirits in transformation.

Thank you for responding to My call.

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity