APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, IN FÁTIMA, PORTUGAL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELIAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESUS, DURING THE 116TH MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

Purify my soul, Lord, so I may be worthy of receiving Your Word.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The time of My withdrawal is being fulfilled.

Now, My companions, you must be fishermen of souls, servants of the wounded hearts, helpers of those who suffer. Thus you shall bring My Love to the world, just as I brought My Love to you through the end times.

Now, that you already have the Book of Love of those in White Garments, it will only be to fulfill what is written; because you will see the fire of this world burn, you will see the seas rise, you will see wars happen and conflicts arise in the world, you will see things you have never seen, you will hear things you have never heard; but your hearts cannot tremble.

This is the time for you to live in strength through My Love, through that untiring and infinite Love that I have given you in every Presence, in every Message and in every encounter.

You must learn to walk in this darkness, just as your Master walks to take souls to the Heart of God and rescue them.

You shall be the definitive ambassadors of My Peace.

That is how you will accompany the Hierarchy. You will be guided in the footsteps of the Hierarchy. And, through an effort that is incalculable, your hearts will serve God, just as your Master serves the Eternal Father from the emergence of His Immaterial Source until the present day.

Now, who will be with Me to the end? Who will await My coming? Who will recognize the Master?

You must be ready for that moment, because there will be signs in the sky, symbols will appear on Earth. Blessed will be those who know how to read those signs and interpret them through My Heart, because My Heart is the House of God and it is the House for each one of you, the safe dwelling of courageous hearts, the safe temple of determined hearts.

The Book of Love, that I have given you still has some blank sheets. Who else will offer to be a pencil in the Hands of God so that He may write through each of your lives?

Who will be those last ones, announced in the Apocalypse, who will be gathering and forming part of the 144,000, the ones who will prepare My Return to the world?

Therefore, allow your hearts to continue to be transformed. Do not be afraid of change and transformation, because nothing can happen to you, only good things will happen that will make you see life differently.

But, the ones who have the key to your hearts, so that the hearts can open and be transformed, are you yourselves, who may or may not open the door for Me so that I may live in you, just as I lived in many saints and servants, throughout the times and centuries.

Therefore, when I am no longer here, I will be in your hearts, so that you may be in Me and you, being in Me, will be in the Father and, thus, the Father will be in you, fulfilling His Holy Will.

Now, you will understand that this is the time of decision, because there is no more time left, there is much less time left than there was until recently.

God needs to reflect His Plan on Earth and this will be through Mine.

What is kept in Heaven can only descend to Earth if there are bridges through the hearts; because they are treasures that cannot be seen with physical eyes, only the soul of each one can recognize them when it is in communion with Me, to be in communion with the Eternal Father.

Those treasures, called the Sacred Tools of the Hierarchy, are what will define this Apocalypse. And for this intervention of the Hierarchy to become a reality, hearts on the surface of the Earth must be determined to sustain it.

Therefore, I spoke to you yesterday of the history of which each one of you is a part, with Me and with the Great Brotherhood. For this moment cannot remain only in the mind; this moment must descend to the heart so that the heart may make it its own, the soul may make it its own, and thus it may be a reality and be concretized.

Just as today you have the Book of Our Love, your guardian angels have in their hands the Scroll of your commitment, written by the Lords of the Law.

That Scroll will be opened in these times and each one will recognize, for themselves, what they have signed directly with the Eternal Father. For on the final day all will be known, nothing else will be hidden and all eyes will see it, because this is written and so it will be fulfilled.

That will be the moment for your Master and Lord, when through a painful agony of His Heart, He must separate the chaff from the wheat, the good ones from the bad ones, so that the redemption of humanity can be established and the moment of the great beginning of a New Civilization, free from sin, guilt, sickness and death.

For to be in the Promised Land, Land that will descend as the New Jerusalem, it will not be necessary to die again, it will not be necessary to suffer and endure, because I will come to renew the world, just as I renew your hearts, today in this sacred promise that I will fulfill, being face to face with each one of Mine.

These are the deepest confessions of My Heart, which the courageous should know how to keep in their hearts, just as your Master and Lord keeps in His Heart many treasures, especially the treasures that I can contemplate through the transformation of souls.

Because this confirms to the universe, again and again, My victory; not only My heavenly victory, but also My victory on this planet, in each one of those who say 'yes' to Me.

Now, the time has come to make the life of each one of Mine sacred again through the sacred exercise of the Eucharist, of the transubstantiation of the bread and wine.

Today, I will offer this Sacred Eucharist, which will be officiated by My priests, for the sacred treasures that I have kept for each one of the young people of this world, the ones who will renew the end of times, the ones who will give peace to the world through their union with Me, through their trust in Me.

Therefore, you must always support them, accompany them and sustain them, so that they can fulfill their mission in this incarnation, a group mission, just as it was with the apostles.

Let us celebrate.

I thank you for being here today and for having completed these ten years with Me, in which I have formed a great spiritual family, extended throughout the Earth through all the souls and all the hearts that love and have faith in Christ.

In spite of your moments or your challenges, in spite of the purification, never ever lose hope. The hope will be what will save the world, hope will be what will bring peace to the peoples and the nations, and to every inner world.

Hold on to the Hope of Jesus, so that you may be strengthened through My Faith in these end times.

And before I celebrate with you and for you, and through you with the whole world, I want to reveal to you the first decision that the Spiritual Hierarchy made in this month of August.

For the prayers of these last ten years, for all the prayer meetings that have been experienced and especially for the sincere offering of each prayerful heart, I will be with you for a while longer, on the 5th of each month and the third Friday of each month, so that My Mercy may continue to triumph in each human heart.

Through the clamor and supplication of all those who pray in this Marathon of Divine Mercy, the Father has granted Me this Grace that today I share this Grace with each one of you, fruit of the merits of My Sorrowful Passion and fruit of the efforts of all those who pray, of all those who continue to clamor without tiring and without stopping, of all those who have faith in Me.

Friar Elias del Sagrado Corazón of Jesus:

And at the request of Christ, preparing ourselves for this consecration of the Communion, let us sing a song that, according to Christ, represents the story of each one: "Todo lo que viví,"

Let us celebrate.
