APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS IN PRZEMYŚL, POLAND (BORDER WITH UKRAINE), TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS FOR THE 118TH MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Like the Light of God that descends to Earth, I present Myself to you again and, through you, to humanity, so that they may listen to the Voice of God, which resounds from the innermost depths of His Creation, so that souls may attain Light, so that nations may live the Will of God, which was foreseen from the beginning.

However, I know this is not happening. Just like Us, you see it in the daily life of this humanity and of this planet, because the great time of the Apocalypse is being fulfilled, and no one will be able to escape this, companions.

This is why, throughout the times, We have called you to live a state of perpetual and true prayer, while making sure that a day does not pass without praying, because the word of prayer will always guide you, even if you walk amidst darkness and tribulation.

I come here as the Great Witness of God's Mercy for the world.

I Am that One Who was nailed to the Cross with My Arms extended upon the wood, in the greatest agony, which no human being has ever experienced. I did not condemn you, I supplicated for you. This is why I surrendered Myself for you so that you might have life in abundance, through the merits achieved by your Master and Lord.

However, despite so many Apparitions and Messages announced by Our Sacred Hearts throughout the centuries, few are those who have responded to the call of God.

This is why, during the month of April of this year, I called you to accompany Me to Israel, and you were able to closely experience My Holy Land, which, also until today, is guarded in trenches and weapons to be defended from its enemies.

However, what is the limit between what is superficial and what is profound, between what the human being may feel and what they can express?

God the Father has dedicated His Life and Existence, from the beginning of this Creation, since the first humanity on the planet, for all to know Divine Life in depth. Even more, He surrendered and gave Himself for you, so that you might learn to recognize Him, so that you might learn to adore Him, so that the faith of each one of you might be an inexhaustible source that never comes to an end.

This is why I repeat to you again that very few have understood God's Call. And today, under the Unfathomable Light of His Mercy, through His great channel of Mercy in Poland, once again I present myself in the Name of God to try to bring souls to the essence of Divine Life, in which evil and impunity are not practiced, in which the promised happiness of the Kingdom of the Heavens exists, in which there is no anguish, pain or suffering.

After what I suffered on Mount Calvary, following what I experienced right after My Death on the Cross and in the Holy Sepulcher, I can tell you, companions, that the human being on this surface has lived extreme experiences that many of My children live today through exile, conflict and war, through persecution due to their religion and faith.

Because in truth I tell you that you are a Project on this planet, originated at the beginning to be a unique Project, and thus to be one spiritual family. If this had been understood by the humanity of surface, many things that happen today would not happen.

This is why we must descend from the Heavens time and again, because humanity is always on the verge of becoming lost, of falling into an abyss without return and bringing millions of souls to the same state, without imagining what this truly means.

This is why I Am here today once more for Ukraine and for those people who also live war and are not in the news in the world, because their suffering and pain are hidden.

How is it possible, companions, that after I shed Blood and Water on the Cross, and the surface of this world was transmuted and liberated by My own Blood and My own Water, humanity continues to live like this, under the evil spirit of indifference and impunity?

This is why the moment of the Universal Judgment will come, something that humanity does not know. But I do not come here to speak to you about what will happen in the world, because you have heard this from Me many times. Today I come to speak to you from the entrails of My Mercy, which are spiritually open so that souls may enter the ocean of God's Mercy, just as you enter the ocean of My Love today.

I come here to be a witness that Love exists and that, regardless of what humanity may do or the errors it may commit, this Higher Love can never be defeated, dissolved or extirpated from the Heart of this Creation, which is the Heart of God. Because evil reflects great disobedience, an illusory capacity to live one's own will and decide one's destiny by oneself. Sooner or later, companions, souls suffer, because they resist living the Will of God.

All beings on the surface of the Earth are here, in this school, to learn to love and forgive. I have given you the example of My Life, without conditions and in an intimate and spiritual way.

I instructed you through parables, so that your minds might understand the essence of the Message. So that, with everyday and simple examples such as those that exist in the parables of the Gospel, all beings without exception, regardless of their schools and experiences, could learn to live in Higher Laws. But even so, many do not live in them.

This is why I present Myself as the Merciful God, so that errors may be mended and sins may be transmuted, errors and sins incited by My adversary through the souls of the world, especially those who do not live any degree of consecration.

Who will be with Me on the day of Universal Judgment, to bear witness of salvation and Mercy to the most lost souls ?

I taught you that you should not fight against the enemy, but rather you should overcome it through Love, the Love that converts the heart hardened by its own suffering and pain. Love will always be the Light of Life.

This is why humanity loses this Light in these times, by wanting to abort unborn lives and outraging the Laws of Creation. And this is not part of a religious thought, but rather the science of the ethics of life, of having a minimum capacity of discernment, that if a consciousness destroys a life that was not born, it destroys its own life and essence, distancing itself from Love and Truth.

This is why I tell the world, especially families, for the last time: take care of your children, be good, watchful parents who guard your children. Do not allow the evil influences of these times to make of your children objects that are not of God, expressions that are not of God, running the risk of causing the souls of your loved ones to die.

But this will not happen through imposition, but rather through the living word of love, which, in an incessant and uninterrupted way, repeats as many times as necessary out of love, so that the souls of your children and loved ones may have the Grace of being before the Truth, which is permeated by God's Love, rather than by a justice that is imposed on hearts for them to change. See the science of language and the mystery of the Creator Word, which, simply through one word, can transform a lost heart.

And do not forget to pray for those who suffer from wars, because this world wants to create more senseless wars and, in this way, create more suffering and more pain in humanity.

Although My time with you in this final cycle of the times is coming to an end, collect all the fruits that I have given to you through My Words, drink from the inexhaustible Fountain of the Love that springs from My Merciful Heart for all souls.

Bring souls toward My Mercy. Do not judge. Do not punish. Do not use authority, because Authority is in God, through His Wisdom and His Science.

Be Merciful. Do not forget this, because the world distances itself more each day from God's Mercy and places itself in its own justice and impunity, because God's Justice is Love, not punishment.

Tell the world that this is not God, so that the errors made by many thinkers and writers, even those of religious life, may be corrected so that the world may know the God of Love and Life. Because He knows that you will fall again, but God will not judge you. A father, a good father, knows that his children will try, and He patiently waits for them to take the definitive step toward perpetual communion with His Heart.

There are so many treasures that wait to descend from the Heavens, that humanity, enveloped in its own conflicts, does not even perceive that Heaven is above their heads.

Seek at night, in the great stellar firmament, your star of origin, and tell God:

Lord, here I am,
this is how I am.

I surrender to You in trust
so that, through this imperfect life,
You may reflect Your Love.

May Ukraine and the enslaved nations of the world be blessed once again. Extending My Arms, as the Redeemer of the world, through My Hands and My Heart I illuminate humanity so that it may someday attain communion with the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Now, together with Me, companions, let us pray to the Angel that guards the Eucharistic Body of Jesus so that, in the chalices that are at My Feet today, your offerings and sacrifices may be deposited, in reparation of the Heart of Jesus and of all Tabernacles of the Earth.

Let us pray together, as one voice and one heart:

Most Holy God,
Source of Love, Light and Life,
receive our most sincere offerings,
in glory to You, O Glorious Creator!
Amen.
(6 times)

I will leave you now with a part of My Life, reflected through the Holy Eucharist, through the same impulse and the same Light that I instituted in the Holy Cenacle, for all priestly life on the planet.

Let us pray for the priests, so that they may remain steady in their office and in their service for souls, so that they may be light in the world, love and charity.

May the Light of My Spiritual Priesthood accompany you.

Go in peace.

Your hearts have been purified.

Peace for Ukraine and the world.
