APPARITION OF SAINT JOSEPH IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF THE CHILD-KING, RIO DE JANEIRO, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS, FOR THE MEETING OF PRAYER OF OCTOBER 19

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Life only finds meaning, children, when you learn to serve.

Life only finds meaning when, in service, you learn to love.

Life only finds meaning when, in love, you discover who you truly are.

Life only finds meaning when you learn to forgive and, through forgiveness, you begin to walk the path of redemption.

Life finds meaning when you no longer want to control it, but rather you let control be in God's Hand.

Life finds meaning when you no longer aspire to stand out before others, when you renounce false power and embrace the school of humility, when you embrace the school of renunciation, of emptiness, of absence of the ambition to stand out and of fears. Then, children, when all seems lost, you find true freedom.

And it may seem to you a painful path. Many souls fear the Grace of renunciation, many souls fear the Grace of emptiness, but it is only with an empty heart that you finally allow the Creator to fill you up.

And when He fills you and you become aware of the magnitude of His Will, you understand the smallness of human will, how you were enclosed in small aspirations, small desires, small thoughts, and that which God expects for this humanity, as well as for each one of you, is much greater. But it is not greater in the world's measurements of greatness. Your life perspective changes when you begin to know God, His Purpose and His Grace.

And I come here today to call you to this. I come to this small, simple place, where little by little the humility of God began to find its space when souls learned to renounce, when they seemed to be forgotten and lost, and pride was overcome.

It was there, children, that God's Purpose triumphed, and the Grace that He had for this sacred space finally began to emerge from the depths of the heart of the Earth, as well as from the Spiritual Universes. And little by little that Grace found its place in the hearts of creatures.

The planet holds many mysteries, just as the human heart holds many mysteries. Humanity does not know the consciousness of the Earth, nor does it know itself.

What should you do to be aware of this celestial mystery?

What should you do to plunge into Divine Grace and allow it to fill you?

The path, children, is trodden from the inside out. You will not see the Divine Will and Purpose manifested on Earth before they are manifested within beings. You will not see God's Will manifested in your lives before your hearts open to experience this Will.

While you strive to stand out from the rest, while you strive for a place of prestige, recognition in the eyes of humanity, you will not find your place, the one that only the eyes of God can see.

We are in a time of chaos, conflicts, abysses, in which the hells open within and outside of beings, in the consciousness of nations, in the depths of souls. And even so, I come here to awaken within you the gift of Divine Purpose, the gift of fulfilling the Will of God, the gift of serving and loving and, through service and love, finding the expression of this Higher Will. Because it is in this way, children, when souls awaken, that the planet begins to find healing.

Just allow My Words to resonate within you at this moment, because while I speak to you, I awaken you from the sleep of this world.

A new cycle is approaching for the planet, a cycle that for some will be of Grace and Mercy, and for others will be of chaos and justice. The way you experience life cycles does not depend on what happens in the world, but rather on what happens within you.

When the consciousness is awakened, it is in the right place, fulfills its part and peace reigns within it, despite what happens in the world. Consciousness finds the opportunities to serve, love, help others and the Kingdoms of Nature, to be a bridge between God's Heart and the material dimensions.

However, when souls refuse to learn about Love, they enter the Law of Justice to learn through suffering. But God's Love, children, never ceases to exist, His Love is inexhaustible, His Mercy is infinite.

Within souls lies the possibility of opening or closing the doors to that Grace. Within souls lies the condition to live cycles with Mercy or with Justice, because both Rays spring from the Heart of God to correct the world, to correct this Project, which must find its Purpose again.

Today I call you to awaken, to fulfill your mission, to leave behind, through forgiveness, that which has already happened, and begin to walk, from the inside out, a path of redemption.

Today I call you to build something new. Just as this Marian Center begins to be new, that same Grace is available for all the souls that will come here: the Grace of beginning anew.

This is the main gift that God grants to the souls that come here: that of being forgiven, to begin again. Therefore, allow a new cycle to begin on this day.

May the Grace that descends from the Father's Heart and crosses My Chaste Heart touch your lives.

May the Gift of Consecration permeate you, so that you may learn to serve all the Kingdoms of Nature, so that you may learn from the elevation of trees, so that you may learn from the harmony of flowers, so that you may learn from the silence of the oceans, so that you may learn from the humility of the animals, so that you may learn from the obedience of the elements, from the wind that blows under the condition of the Divine Spirit, so that you may learn from the strength of the mountains, so that you may learn from one another to love and forgive, so that you may be capable of living in peace.

Today I reconsecrate this blessed and sacred place, this land called New Earth, so that it may be truly new each day, and that souls may find renewal here.

Today I reconsecrate this Marian Center of the Child-King, so that here souls may learn that the reign and plenitude lie in smallness, so that they may intercede for the children of the world, so that they may intercede for families and for the lost souls, so that they may intercede for young people and outraged nature, so that, in the Spiritual Presence of the Sacred Family, the principles of universal life may awaken.

Let those who aspire to be consecrated as Children and Friends of Saint Joseph come here. Let them come closer.

Receive the Grace of consecration from My Paternal Heart.

Receive the intercession of My Spirit of Love.

I listen to your most sincere prayers; I know the depths of your hearts. This is why I tell you, children, not to fear finding yourselves. Do not fear God's Will. Do not fear His Purpose, because although fear is human, the Divine Purpose is the true expression of what a human being is. And it is the time and hour to find this Purpose.

Today I bless you, I renew you, I liberate you and consecrate you as Children and Friends of My Chaste Heart so that you may walk by My side. And I will guide you, so that you may talk with Me, and I will advise you, so that you may listen to Me in the silence, and I will speak to your hearts, so that in prayer you may intercede with Me for this world in pain, so that in service you may open with Me the doors of the new opportunity, so that in simplicity you may be with Me, recognized as My Friends.

Children, I love you, just as the Immaculate Heart of Mary and the Sacred Heart of Jesus do. May this Love fill you, transform you and grant you peace.

Bring water here to bless and incense.

Through this water, I purify you, wash your hearts, renew you and give you peace.

Through this incense, I liberate, consecrate and bless you so that you may be worthy of Divine Grace and Unfathomable Mercy.

I deposit in your hearts the little lilies that sprout today from My Chaste Heart, so that you may learn with Me to walk this path of transformation of the human consciousness.

And I thank you, children, for being here today.

May My Peace permeate your lives. May My Grace fill your spirits. May the Gift of Consecration be a reality for your souls.

By the power that God has granted Me, I consecrate you in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

And once again I thank you. Go in peace and transmit peace to the world.

Sister Lucía de Jesús:

Let us sing the hymn of our consecration, "Father of Souls," and thus prepare for the Spiritual Communion.
