

Friday, April 6 of 2012

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, MOTHER OF THE DIVINE CONCEPTION OF THE TRINITY, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Dear children,

Today, Holy Friday, is the day when once My Son withdrew from the world to be restored in the Lord. Today I invite you to the quietness of your hearts so that together We may accompany the Redeemer in His Sacred Hour.

My Son needs you during the passage of His Cross, My children. You must be at the side of His Heart as good sheep that accompany His priestly ministry of the Passion. Come to Him, dear children, and embrace Him strongly as I did, walking at His side in silence, in an attitude of great surrender for the world.

Dear children, I am reminding you of the Passion of Jesus because your hearts must love the Will of God above all things. If you are in My Son, He will take you by the hand to the Celestial Father. For this reason, My dear ones, on this most holy day, meditate on the Mysteries of the Passion. Each one of your hearts must withdraw in My Son today so that you may meditate on how important the surrender was that Jesus carried out for all of you.

In the vigil of the heart and of prayer you will be collaborating with the world that still does not live the Passion of My Son but, rather, lives in its own pain, the pain of an injured world that, through Christ must be forgiven and reconciled. Therefore, My children, since each one of you belongs to this humanity, it is up to you to help so that a greater number of souls may be permeated by the Merciful Light of My Son. And this will happen through the act of the merciful prayer on the part of humanity.

Humanity must pray very much to be able to receive the Graces of Conversion and Forgiveness. This is why My Immaculate Heart guides you in this school of prayer.

Thank you for responding to My call.

In the Sacred Hour of the Passion,

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity