SPECIAL MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS FOR THE 120TH MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

First Message

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I rejoice in the sacred reencounter with My spiritual family of Aurora.

Despite the critical situations of the planet, despite the times of tribulation, My Presence is here today to bless you once more, through My Light and My Peace.

How many inner storms you have gone through during these last three years! And how many tribulations humanity is facing today!

And today you are here in the name of My Love, just the way you are, just as I can contemplate and know you, regardless of any imperfection, regardless of all the great spiritual or inner desert.

Today you are here in the name of My Love, and thus, I congregate you around My Divine Spirit, the Consoling Divine Spirit of God, who, in this final time, tries to flood souls with His Love. However, souls do not listen to Call of God, souls listen to the sound of wars and bombs, and to the catastrophes of nature.

This is the time that had been foreseen for humanity to live, a very unknown time for all, yet a time filled with opportunities and Graces for the hearts that are open to inner transformation so as to achieve redemption.

Today, I am standing upon sacred ground, the ground that has witnessed the descent of the Mother of God, who brought Her Message of Healing to the whole world. And today, I Am also a witness of all this, all the Legacy that the Hierarchy has transmitted to you throughout the ages, and the time has come for the synthesis of this Legacy to be lived.

Therefore, companions, you are also called to live this spiritual synthesis, in which you must meditate, for a moment, upon all that which the Hierarchy has done in the last few years, preparing you for this time of tribulation, and preparing many of your brothers and sisters to go through tribulation.

If I brought you a different promise, it would not be real. I bring you the truth of these times, which is hard to go through for many of My companions. But do not forget that I have granted you the gift of faith, so that you may continue to be My witnesses of Love, of this Christic truth that can emerge from each heart and spirit. This will help you to live this cycle of definition, because each cycle will bring you a new definition and a new step.

And now, after all that that has been learned and lived through Our Sacred Hearts, the time has finally come, companions, for each one to live the mission they have come to fulfill on Earth, so that this is no longer just a promise, but a reality, the reality of living the Will of God the way it is written for each essence of the planet.

Despite the painful times which humanity is going through, this is the moment for you to cling to Me, to be instruments of My Mercy, so that My Divine and Unfathomable Mercy, which is so necessary in all parts of the world, may spring as an inexhaustible fountain for all thirsty and needy hearts, for all the nations in the world that are going through their own tribulation, for the peoples, cultures and religions that are also going through their tribulation.

This is My Message of maturity that I give the world. I have told you once not so long ago, that you are at the same moment as the holy apostles were some time after My Ascension to the Heavens. This is the moment that each one of you will be facing, that of doing what I need you to do, of living what I need you to live, of manifesting what I need you to manifest and concretize on this material plane.

Because My Word, which are the Words of God, must not remain just held in the memory. My Words must be life in you, so that your lives may be in Me and I may be in you, even in spite of the time of the great planetary purification, in which, through your own eyes, you can see the reality of humanity, realities that are very painful and traumatic, in which hundreds of souls are at spiritual and material risk.

Therefore, now more than ever, your hearts must unite to the Supplicating Network. Your lives must be prayer itself, in your acts, thoughts and feelings, and in the innermost depth of the essence of each being.

This will balance the scales of Justice on the planet, in the face of so much imbalance and wickedness, and so many outrages in the world, in which the blood of the most innocent and pure continues to be shed, and this has a great weight before the Law.

For this reason, I tell you once again that your lives must be a prayer, an untiring conquest day by day; try it at each moment and each step. In this way, the Law of My Grace will be more present in the world, and My Unfathomable and Infinite Mercy will act and intercede before the grave errors of the world and humanity.

Uniting to the Suppliant Network is the premise of the apostles of the end times.

Uniting to the Network of Adoration of My Eucharistic Body is the priority of the apostles of the end times.

Because the evil energies that circulate on the planet and that cause whole nations and peoples to succumb, and destabilize the elements of nature, all these interferences must be expelled, so that balance may reign in humanity and, above all, on the consciousness of the planet.

I come to speak about all this for the last time, because the teachings have now been transmitted and shared, and now is the time for My apostles to be mediators between humanity and God, just as My Merciful Heart is the mediator between your souls and God. While this does not happen, innocent souls will continue to suffer, wars will continue to take place, and the imbalance will be greater.

However, even if in the end of times, you see things that you have never imagined or never thought of, do not be afraid, do not be disturbed, because the hour of the Return of the King is already written. This will be fulfilled, and I have told you that this is not very far away.

And through these last meetings with Me, I am preparing you so that, at the great moment of the planet, at the most definitive, the culminating hour of humanity, you may remember all that I have told you throughout the times and years.

Out of love, I want to tell you that My Divinity, My Soul and My Spirit will always bless you, but they will not force your own transformation, the need for change in your lives that I have. Because if you are here today, listening to Me, this is not by chance, which does not exist for God. What does exist is a cause, which, although it is unknown to you, has a Greater Purpose, a Higher and Infinite Purpose.

Aurora, throughout the times, has offered, on behalf of the planet and humanity, to be the Great Spiritual and Inner Consciousness that impels the revelation of the end times, impels the definition of hearts, impels the revelation of the prophecies and last Words of the Hierarchies.

This is why Aurora has come from very far and, in this last phase of the end of times, it will complete this last stage of its universal and planetary task. The Hierarchies are preparing for this.

I wish that you may always live in goodness and in peace, in the absolute trust in My Heart, knowing that this is a time of great efforts, not only material, but also spiritual; knowing that this is a time for each one of you to face your own reality, not fear it or retrogress, but rather go through it with bravery and courage, with a touch of Divine Hope so that agony may not establish itself, but rather that the great higher impulse of transformation may take place in as many souls as possible, toward an encounter with redemption, to live the encounter of inner healing, of liberation from the ties and chains of oppression, through a profound acceptance of My Mercy.

This is what I can give you, My Mercy, every time you need it and invoke it. Because the promise of My Mercy is to save the world and liberate humanity from its own captivity.

This is why My ardent wish is that, in this Marathon of Divine Mercy, your hearts may be converted into supplicating hearts that unite to the Network of Mirrors of the Universe, so that the great Spiritual Hierarchies may intercede again for this grave planetary situation, so that the Light and Love of Christ may triumph, and souls may no longer suffer, because they make My Heart suffer.

As My Mother told you the last time, the door to Christification is open for all those who want to cross it, without knowing what this Christification is.

And through this Marathon of Mercy, may weapons be silenced so that peace may be established, especially where it does not exist, especially where it is not felt and where it is not lived. Because the one who is in peace and lives in peace is in the Kingdom of the Heavens, even while living on Earth.

Now, I gather Myself in the hearts that open the doors of their souls for Me to enter, live and rule through the holy celebration of the Eucharist, which you will celebrate today, in My Name and for My Name, for the peace of those who do not have it, and in the name of the Light in the places where it no longer exists, above all the Light that has dissipated from many hearts.

We will celebrate so that the Divine Hope may descend and this Marathon may be a Marathon of supplication and glory, in which all the guardian angels may intercede and work to unite consciousnesses, reconcile hearts and protect all families under the Mantle of the Celestial Father.

Aurora,
may Your Light reign, despite the darkness.

Aurora,
may Your Sacred Sword cut the bonds with evil,
so that the souls in the world
may be liberated from spiritual captivity.

Aurora,
may Your Light be reborn in the thirsty hearts.

Aurora,
may Your Healing be fulfilled in those who aspire to find you.

Aurora,
open the doors of consciousness,
so that all may achieve relief and peace.

Hail, Aurora of the Lord!

Amen.

I thank you for this loving and simple welcome. I thank all servers who live here and sustain, day by day, this Center of Love through the efforts of their hearts, through the giving of their lives, through the surrender of their hands to build a Divine and Higher Plan, which many still do not understand.

For this reason, I bless the bravery and courage of the consistent in Aurora.

And do not forget that, despite everything, I Am always there, in the silence of the stars, in the sunrise, in the prayerful and adoring heart. I Am there, because I Am that I Am.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

Place your hands in a sign of reception, to receive the blessing and Light of Christ, Our Lord, and thus enter into Communion with His Divine Consciousness.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
