SPECIAL MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE 120TH MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

Second Message

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

As an ocean of Cosmic Light, I come to the world, to have souls become immersed in the great Essence of God, so that, in this Infinite and Eternal Essence, souls may find again the path toward their origin, toward the first Law and toward the first Purpose that created them in this sacred immaterial universe.

In union with this Eternal Essence of God, may the souls incarnated in this world find the path of return to the House of the Father. Through the secure door of My Heart, they find again the Principles that emerged and came forth in the Origin, for the manifestation and expression of each divine essence.

For this reason, I place you within this universe of Light, which was the first to emerge and become manifested before the Law of Creation, before all existed in the sacred mental universe. And in this material universe, that Light of the Divine Origin was what manifested itself before did the Creator Fathers, known as the angels and archangels.

And today, because of an emergency and a great necessity, humanity is in contact with this unknown pattern, which is an Attribute of God. In truth, it was His first Thought, before His Project manifested itself in the dimensions and on the planes of consciousness.

It is in this Light that you will manage to be nothing. You will become immersed in the void, to be completed by the Sacred Matrices of the All.

I know that today I Am speaking to you through symbols and analogies, but open your hearts so that this Law, which today descends upon the planet for the first time, may touch what is most supreme in your spirits, so that they may be filled by this Higher Light, which slowly transforms all forms and principles, converting them according to the Will of God.

This is how it is possible to correct this Human Project, through a minimum representation of humanity that says 'yes' to the Call of the Master.

But today it is not just Jesus the Christ that is here with you, but the One who is speaking to you is His Face of Ascension, that Face that was able to touch the Higher Spheres, and was welcomed by the great Masters and Hierarchies to begin to live the Spiritual Government.

Because My Spiritual Government begins to concretize itself and become a reality first in the hearts of the anonymous beings, of all those who are devoted to Me, and do not fear the righteousness of My Laws, because what I promise to you for the next life is something very great. It is in no way similar to what you live here on Earth, in this world of afflictions and sadness.

I, as the Son of God and the Second Person of the Most Holy Trinity, incarnated among the men and women of the Earth to announce the Good News, carry the Cross of the sins of the world, endure, suffer and die for you, and then resurrect in Glory on the third day.

You must live the same school, but a school of first dying to yourselves, to all that in which you believe and that you know, to all personal and individualistic convictions.

To attain the Kingdom of the Heavens in the next life, you must not only become detached, but you must also become divested of yourselves. You cannot bring the burdens of this world to the Paradise, because your spirits learn, in this school of redemption, to fly quite high, like birds, so as to merge in the Light with the Divine Essence of the Father.

This Light, which I bring you today from the Creative Essence, was the same that inspired the first twelve main archangels to design the Plan in this material universe. A Plan that first had to be permeated by the mental and ultra-terrestrial forms so that it might follow the principle of the Good and of unity, something that is not lived in the world today, and this unity and this good are not seen in all places of the Earth.

Therefore, companions, so that this Divine Light of God's Essence may permeate the most corrupt particles of your beings and of the beings of the Earth, and for the corrupt to be transformed into what is incorrupt, you must first take the steps toward the total surrender of attaining the emptiness of yourselves, and of living the different degrees of renunciation, which is not about sacrifices or sufferings, but rather a gradual divestment that will free you from the concrete and corrupt forms, which you know as spiritual ties and prisons.

Today I present to you this apparently abstract Message so that your minds and consciousnesses may come out of the normal form and may enter the great geometry of what is immaterial and unknown, from which all eternally emerges and manifests itself.

All this, and much more, through the Divine essence of God, is what your Master and Lord found when He ascended to the Heavens.

And through the sacred ministry of the Eucharist, through the institution of the Body and Blood of Christ for souls, these first Matrices descended so that, after two-thousand years of spiritual and priestly exercise, souls and hearts in this end of times could have the Grace of receiving, on this day and for the first time, this spiritual impulse that My Ascensional Face brings. In this way, everything will have the opportunity of redemption, so that you will always know and remember that there is a way out beyond the lesson being learned or the school, beyond what it means and represents for you.

This is the ocean of the Divine Light of God, which invades and blesses the orbit of the Earth today, so that all beings of the Earth, all of this humanity, may receive the Grace of redemption, which perhaps they do not deserve, because all this is for one reason: for Love.

As this Law, which acts today through My Words, is unknown to you, this is as far as I can go today, because all has its time and moment for God. Although the schools among you are so different, the Light of the Divine Essence of God is not selective, it blesses all creatures without exception.

Lastly, I want to tell you, so that you may meditate on it later, that it was this Light of the Divine Essence of God that granted My Resurrection, and transformed Me into an Immortal Being.

All those who in the past, participated in the reappearance of Christ after His Death and His Resurrection, had the Grace of being before this Light. Therefore, I declare and explain to you that I told Mary Magdalene not to touch Me when she saw Me and recognized Me, because I had not yet ascended to the House of My Father.

Before manifesting Creation, God first thought of His Light, preciously permeated by His Love and His Unity, so that souls and above all essences, might learn to spiritually drink from His Fountain every time it was necessary. Just as today you are before this Light, which comes to bring understanding and wisdom for a wounded world.

Because when I return, the main spiritual bases of the Project of God must be pre-established in souls, in all those who throughout the times, regardless of their religion or belief, have received My Christic Love from the East to the West.

I want to thank you for solemnly sustaining this moment. Because God is not only grand and powerful, God is simple, He is close, He is a Father and a Friend, He is a Shoulder on which you can always lean and the Hands that you can always hold, to feel His Love and His Strength.

And now, let us celebrate the Holy Eucharist, so that souls may again have contact with this Creative Light.

Remember your origin and beginning, the path of emptiness, but the path of the Whole, where unity based on Love and the Truth can be lived.

I thank you.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
