

Friday, January 12, 2024

WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Go, child, to the aid of souls who suffer, souls who, in the loneliness of their heart, carry the weight of hopelessness, despair, discouragement, souls who are searching for a meaning to their own life and have need of help to find the Light of Divine Purpose again.

Go to the aid of souls and give meaning to your existence through service, prayer and the Sacraments, which lead essences to a return to their divine origin.

Go to the aid of souls, listen to the hearts that suffer, remain by those in need of support in order not to fall into the abysses that are so close to their feet.

Through true prayer, hold the hand of the Children of God who need to return home. Be a bridge so those souls can find the path to the Celestial Dwelling Place again.

Go child, go to the aid of lonely and forsaken souls, those who committed to Christ, but have become lost in the murky and rough waters of the end of times.

Let your heart be an island of salvation, let your spirit itself be the bridge and doorway so those in need of rescue are able to be helped. This is what you are called to live today.

Through the emptiness of yourself, allow Christ to use you as His instrument, because the only things that will rescue souls in this time are Unity and Love. These are the two keys that turn on the Light of an inner world that is in darkness; this is the hand that reaches out to a soul imprisoned in deep abysses.

Thus, through the virtue of service, practice the gifts of Love and of Unity, because souls have need of rescue and of Light in this world that is being extinguished from the inside out.

In times of an ever greater chaos, be a bridge of Love and Unity for souls.

You have My blessing for this.

Your father and friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph