SPECIAL APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, DURING THE CONSECRATION AND CEREMONY OF INSTITUTION OF THE FIFTH BRANCH OF THE GRACE MERCY ORDER, THE HELPERS OF THE DIVINE MERCY OF JESUS

Mother María Shimani de Montserrat:

Welcome everyone to this very special meeting with Our Lady.

Before beginning the prayer, I wanted to make a simple comment.

You know that Our Lord, when He was incarnated as Jesus, never made a spiritual difference between men and women, because He considered beings as souls, as monads, as servants of the Father and of His Plan. It's just that during that period there were many formalities that had to be followed. And today, in the same way He did 2000 years ago, He respects the evolutionary schools of each one of us and tries to transmit a universal message so that all souls can receive and accept it.

He deeply respected the customs and the laws that the Jewish people had at that time. For this reason, His spiritual connection with all those women who loved Him and followed Him was somewhat hidden so as to be able to work calmly, and so that they would not be rejected or repudiated, but rather accepted and could freely live their spirituality. Thus, little is known about those connections.

In these later days, the Divine Mother, in Her daily Messages, began to reveal very hidden details about what happened with the women of Jerusalem. They are details about the true spiritual connection that many women had with Christ, and of how they united their hearts, their souls, their spirits to His Spirit, and committed themselves to serve Him, to be His female apostles up until this time.

What is it that Our Lord did in these last days? How did the consecration we are going to experience today come about?

He wants that same connection of heart and spirit, those same codes to be able to express in this time, in all those consciousnesses that have offered themselves to serve Him and His Mother.

With this consecration, He intends to attract these codes, which are in the planetary consciousness, and place them in those consciousnesses that today have offered themselves to serve Him in a simple way, unexpected by some of you, almost without intending to for others, so they can resurface within you and are able to be expressed through service, devotion, an almost imperceptible forward movement of one who serves in almost the last place.

Silent devotion and service, the inner ministry which those women experienced, that apostleship is what He wants to attract from the Universe so that it can re-emerge here among all of us.

So the idea is that you are able to receive these codes with humility and with much gratitude, because you will be representing the apostleship that for more than 2,000 years many women have experienced, anonymous women who had no intention of being recognized, but rather, just wanted to experience silent and humble service to Our Lord.

Today, you're going to formally confirm this intimate experience between you and Christ, between you and Mary. You're going to formally confirm this spiritual union so that you are able to serve Him in a humble way.

That service is very important at this time because what you're going to do, as Helpers of the Divine Mercy, is essential so that other consciousnesses are able to receive what they need. It is an offering so that other consciousnesses may be able to be consecrated, blessed, baptized, renewed. And that task, imperceptible to many, is absolutely essential so that this may happen.

So each one, in the task they are to do because of the commitment that they have been able to make, will be integrated into this great task of the Sacraments, of the preparation of the altars, where the energy coming from God is drawn to, to be distributed among all those present and also among all those who participate through the TV screen, because people open their hearts and remain very connected in the face of all that can be expressed through the Ceremony.

So we, as the consecrated, welcome you to this consecration Branch that complements, collaborates with and assists in the entire task that the Order carries out.

We invite you to open your hearts and that you take your steps without fear, because this is only the beginning.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús transmits the Words of the Virgin Mary:

Today, I come clothed in the Mantle that you have placed upon yourselves, for this humble consecration to Our Lord.

And so, today, through your 'yes', I am founding the Fifth Branch of this Order, which is the Helpers of the Divine Mercy of Jesus, who will wear a wooden Ring on their left hand with the spiritual symbol of this Order, making vows of prayer, of unconditional service, and the main vow, which is that of Mercy, in order to bring to the world and humanity what the world and humanity so much needs.

You will wear the same Spiritual Ring that the Holy Women of Jerusalem wore, who were assembled by My Son and by Me to allow this task of Mercy, this Mission throughout time, to triumph.

You, dear daughters, are part of a story that is being written in the Heart of God, about something that will soon be known worldwide.

You are the tip of that lance of Love that begins to pierce the world so that it may be healed, and, thus, all souls.

My Graces are with you today, and without knowing or understanding, many gave this great leap toward the Heart of My Son, whereby, through Me, He announces His gratitude to you.

That My Beloved Son feels grateful for the souls that serve Him is something incalculable that goes beyond this universe and your spirits, gratitude for bringing peace, for bringing the good and Mercy so that souls may be healed in the simplicity of prayer and in the hands that work to serve the King.

Today, in this consecration, you are crowned by the angels who watch over and guard the souls in this sacred purpose of experiencing the redemption and conversion of the heart.

I invite you, dear daughters, at this new step, to be witnesses of all that you experience, with humility and detachment, to testify that faith and trust in My Son can do all things up until the end.

So it is, dear daughters, that I open the doors of My Heart to you, to welcome you and take you on, knowing you will be part of a congregation that is transforming over time and is learning, through its mistakes, to love Jesus.

God does not seek perfection from you, nor splendor. God needs you to incarnate the spirit of humility which the world lacks and which causes it to be far from the Love of God.

Today, I consecrate you as a part of the people of God Who is in the Heavens, formed by the Blessed and by the angels that eternally praise the Father.

We will sing to God in gratitude for this Grace, knowing you will be the beginners, the first disciples and apostles of Christ, who come from this humanity, wounded by so many errors and so many misconceptions.

Today I want your souls to assume the vow of being chalices for receiving the love of Jesus, which must transcend forms, ideas, actions and all limits so that His Kingdom on Earth may triumph through the souls that trustingly give of themselves to His heart.

Thus it is, dear daughters, that by me assuming you, my Son will be accompanying you in His Glory, teaching you daily how to divest yourselves of all that is old so that, finally, within yourselves may be born that which is new, that which is part of the Gifts of God, of His Holy Virtues, His Designs and His Will.

Today you will be blessed by the water to purify your bodies, so they may be renewed.

Today, you will be anointed by the consecration oil, just as those who surrender time and again to Christ are consecrated and anointed.

Today, a new door will open in your lives and consciousnesses, a door that will guide you to My Heart, because My Motherly Heart is the portal that will always take you to Christ.

Rejoice and cry like the Holy Women at the foot of the Cross, for having found their beloved spouse, Whom they had not seen on their paths for such a long time.

Today, His Mercy penetrates your hearts so that your souls may be vivified and be Light in the world, a world that suffers in the darkness.

My Beloved Son has need of Helpers of His Divine Mercy because, even though it may not seem so, a part of humanity is in agony because of its own evil.

Be participants in this inner communion with the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus that I bring to you today, and, whenever you feel it, repeat: Lord, I Trust in You.

Because in spite of what should happen, Jesus' trust in you will be unbreakable, and that means a spiritual responsibility toward God and His Kingdom.

Let this Grace bring you atonement and renewal.

Let the Grace of the Heart of God ignite you with mercy and pity for the world.

So be it.

Mother María Shimani de Montserrat:

When we decide to live for God, we begin to receive many opportunities that at first seem insignificant, they may even seem like a way of spending time doing things different from our ordinary lives, and, little by little, the Christic codes begin to imperceptibly enter into our consciousnesses until we begin to observe our lives and feel things we didn't feel before.

Our preferences and our moods begin to change, in prayer we begin to find a way of being, and, in this way, slowly, we are led by something invisible that goes pushing us to make decisions and feel things.

Until one day, in a complete cry of our soul, we take a step, and then we can no longer go back, we don't feel like going back. On the contrary, with a little bit of fear, we dare to take another step, and see there had been nothing to fear.

And so we go ahead taking step after step, and today we are here, saying a 'yes' that will become something very important.

Mary doesn't miss any opportunity and this allows us to trust that She, Who knows everything, sees everything and feels everything, reached out Her hand toward us. And so we squeeze Her hand, close our eyes, and allow ourselves to be carried forward. Now we'll see where we are taken.

The only thing I can say to you is have no fear, because although this is a spiritual commitment, it will cause you to make some material decisions, that you'll be more disciplined or more responsive to the service you provide, that you better understand the scope of the task.

Open your heart to these records of having accompanied the Master at some time and allow yourselves to be carried away, lead, surprised, because nothing bad will happen.

Those who have physical husbands, don't worry, because there's no contradiction. You will not be deceiving them, and Christ will not feel deceived by you.

Live this experience in peace and with happiness. With inner joy, let Christ love you and learn to love Him without any fear, without any concern, because the place He occupies within your spirits is unique.

The Hierarchy truly wants this instrument which is the Order to be something very important for humanity, and we must live it with great humility, and especially not held in our minds; just humility, sincerity and our hearts.

That will be the way in which, as Mary said, it will be a congregation that is learning through its mistakes to be able to be an instrument of the Divinity. So you're going to enter into a learning process that moves along through its mistakes, like all of humanity.

Welcome and thank you very much.

Thank You, Mother, for all that You give us!
