

Saturday, February 18, 2012

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, MOTHER OF THE DIVINE CONCEPTION OF THE TRINITY, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

My soldiers of prayer and My soldiers of peace,

Today I invite you to enter into My Mantle of Love and Protection so that your souls in prayer may prepare the heart for the good and the new.

Dear children, today I call you to be under the Mercy of My Son so that your hearts may completely recognize the Love that He has for you. Also, today, meditate on the compassion that each of you must radiate to others. This compassion will be a source of love from the heart, and it must pass through you until it enraptures you like the Love of My Son.

In this way you will be like little hearts that will walk in faith and in the hope for a new world full of peace. In order for souls to change and consecrate themselves to Christ, they must convert their feelings into something pure and crystalline. If each heart emanated in truth a feeling of Pure Love, this alone would help in the liberation and in the rescue of many souls that need God.

My Immaculate Heart is polishing you so that each new day your hearts may illuminate the world a little more, because the majority of hearts live without the Love of God. As I want to reach all My children in the world, you must be living instruments in prayer so that the Promised Graces may give life again to many souls that are lost.

For this reason, dear children, the transformation of each one of your lives and hearts is very valuable. In this way, you will be offering yourselves as flowers to God, and the Lord, in His immense Love, will be able to intervene with His Peace in the whole world. Each change in life must happen by means of the Love of My Divine Father and under the protection of His Holy Hands. In this way, you will be traveling a path full of peace so that the simple changes may happen.

The true need for each heart is to redeem itself and to begin to love in a pure and more ample way so that all the consciousnesses will be able to be permeated by the Divine and Greater Love. So that the world may be born again, as humanity, all hearts must have the exercise of prayer as an act of reparation and Mercy for the life of each soul.

Live in the hope of Divine Mercy. If you live this in the heart, you will be transformed and once more the world will be free and it will be alleviated from the burdens that it bears. The Light generated by each prayer constructs the bridge between humankind and fraternity.

I am among you so that you may learn to live from the Love of God. In this way, lives will be renewed because they will be within the Universal Love of God the Father.

Courage and Hope until Eternity!

Who guides you,

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity