At the bottom of the Hill of the Redeemer Christ a big group of around two thousand five hundred people was gathered. The procession with candles started at 6PM with prayers and songs.

When we arrived at the feet of the Christ everyone sat down and the prayer started to wait for the Divine Mother.

Around 7:40 there was a silence, the bell rang three times and we heard: "Moment of Apparition, let us contemplate with the heart".

Standing, Friar Elias contemplates the area where the Divine Mother appeared and then he starts to transmit the words that She says to everyone.

Friar Elias: The Divine Mother says:

Calm your hearts when I am present, I bring you the Kingdom of My Father, the path to My Son.

Dear children, today I bring you a special Grace, a Grace for this time, which is called the Grace of Redemption.

I invite you to be with Me daily, not one day must go by without you being in Me.

Dear children, the world is not well, all your hearts already feel it. Because of this, unite in prayer, plead with your voices to Heaven so that My Father can hear you.

Dear children, I am here persisting with the presence of My Heart, My hands and My arms are open so that everyone can come to Me.

Dear children, it is possible to stop living in the mortification and the affliction of the heart, but for this drink the Grace that I am bringing you. This is the last fountain that the Father is making Me pour. For this hear My Voice, dear children, answer God's call.

For this to happen, My dears, you also need to be in the arms of My Son and in the arms of My Father. I invite you to walk with Me, I will lift you to the Throne of God so that you can be not only in My Father but also in My Son who awaits you day by day in prayer and in silence.

Dear children, it is time to dedicate some time to My Son. He needs you whole, in trust and fidelity, so that you can follow the path He has been building for centuries through the presence of His Sacred Heart. His Heart is the Heart of God, a faithful and true part of the Kingdom of the Father. For this reason, dear children, do not stop looking to Heaven even for one day.

Transmit My words to your brothers through your prayers and a true example of living consecration and faith.

Dear children, I am here to bring you My Heart, but there are many of My children who still do not accept Me because they place their hearts somewhere else. My Light and My Peace, what else can they do?

I trust that you will help Me consecrate all the hearts to My Immaculate Heart, to My Father's Kingdom of redemption.

Redemption will be the key, dear children, for this free your lives of all conflict, all pain, all lies and all that is not faithful to our Father. I hear you dear children, I observe you, I see you, I accompany you closely during all these months that have already passed.

Dear children, know that God calls Me but My Heart will remain on the Earth to guide you all, especially at the time of temptation and of the trials each nation will live during the Justice of God.

There is time, dear children. Run, run, My little ones! Place yourselves under My mantle of Peace. Know that the thread that will unite you with Me is prayer, the true prayer of the heart. In some moments I hear you, in other moments I see you far from Me, that is why each moment of prayer matters. Dear children, know that not only will you be converting yourselves but also your brothers and sisters who are on the other side of the world.

Dear children, I am here and My faith persists on your hearts, as does My call. I send My echo to the world so that everyone can hear Me and contemplate Me as a real Mother who guides your paths straight to My Son, a faithful path to redemption which starting today I invite you to travel sincerely with Me.

Yes, dear children, My Son will answer you when He returns. For this, My beloved ones, gather your hearts, gather your beloved ones, your families, your relatives so that everyone can pray with Me before the trial that the world will live. If everyone prays with real heart, not only will you be in My Peace but I can also intercede, as I have been doing for a long time, so that the souls do not get lost.

What more do you want from life?

Dear children, you only need to be in God. Unite, unite with Him, call Him, so that you can see Him close.

Dear children, remember that you must return to the Kingdom of Heaven where you must live in absolute peace. But I only know, dear children, that you will understand it when everything has passed and the world can be redeemed.

To those hearts that still resist I ask you, dear children, that you break them with prayer so that My Light can come in, I can penetrate them with My Heart of Mother and they can go back to living in God.

Today I bring the scapulary in my hands, a symbol of protection, a symbol for your conversion. Dear children, know that each sign I give you comes as an aid for your hearts, for humanity, for the world.

Each symbol I give you is an alliance with Heaven and this does not belong to humanity.

Dear children, accept every sign with the gratitude of the heart. In this way you can elevate your hearts and your little souls will make you understand the mysteries of God that are revealed at this time to all those who want to see them, not with the mind but with the real heart, pure essence you must discover for this time of purification.

Carry each sign with gratitude, as an alliance between Heaven and Earth, between My Heart and your hearts. Today I bring you this scapulary again so that you remember the Graces I pour not only on your hearts but also for all your brothers and sisters who have not awakened as devoted souls of God, of My Heart and of the Heart of My Son.

Each sign has something to be discovered. If you carry it with gratitude and love and pray with Me, you will understand. Your hearts will make you feel what I give you with so much love from the devotion of My Immaculate Heart.

The souls need instruments which they can cling to. That is why I bring you this symbol, so that you can carry it with love and courage, accepting the redemption of the heart and the opening of your souls to the Kingdom of My Father, where I want to take you.

Dear children, remember that all those who have not accepted My call also need prayer. So pray, pray, pray with the heart so that the Grace can descend on all My children, those who are farthest from God and need My Light, My Maternity, My Peace, My Love, the Light of My Heart. I want to light the paths of all those who are in the dark and for this your prayers are of great help, to be able to intercede before My Father.

If you hear or know that someone is sick or imprisoned or that someone made a big mistake, do not offend them, dear children. A way to testify that My presence is on all of you is to pray and plead for this soul, for its conversion, so that a small cell of this being can come close to God and God can approach them.

Today I am accompanied by Joseph (Saint Joseph). Dear children, remember that he was My faithful companion who peregrinated with Me to Bethlehem, preparing the birth of My Son who is today the Redeemer of the world.

Follow My Son. If you live in Him you can see with truth all that He wants for each of you.

You must be not only pure children, but also companions of the Redeemer who will light the flame in all the hearts. For this, trust in Him and follow the path that My Heart marks to His Presence.

There is something that I promise to those who open up which is irradiating My Peace and My Love as a step to conversion, to the opening of the heart, to liberation of the guilt and pain that tie My children to this world. For this, at this time I will emanate My Love, the Light of My Heart so that you can feel it and receive it and your little hearts may be consecrated day by day to the power of My Immaculate Heart which will be the support for this time, the only way everyone can follow to My Father, but first to My Son.

For those who at this time are enduring pain and suffering, let us pray.

Everyone repeats the following prayer a few times:

Immaculate Heart of Mary,
path of protection and guidance,
thank you for all that You give us.
Afterwards we hear the canticle "Mary of Nazareth".

Friar Elias: The Divine Mother says:

Be patient, be loving, be peaceful so that in truth you can be in My Son and His Holy Heart can be in you.

Dear children, in this time of Grace I only ask you to pray with Me and to not lose hope because there I will be when you open the door to Me and then the Lord can enter, through Me, in each of your lives. Dear children, accept this Grace with reverence and gratitude so that your hearts can feel My call as something fundamental for this time of changes.

May peace be for everyone in this time of transition. Accept the flame of My Faith, raise it to the Heights and walk with courage, joining your hands with My hands to arrive at the Kingdom and in this way you can bring all your loved ones to the Kingdom of the Father.

Rejoice your hearts and live in My Peace because My Peace is unknown to those who have not accepted it. Accept this alliance with My Immaculate Heart and I can tell you, dear children, that your little souls will be as roses that will surround My Heart.

Thank you for answering My call.

For the protection of the Holy Spirit, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

- End of the Apparition -

To end the Apparition we heard the canticle "Mary, Virgin, Mother".

Mother Shimani: Now Friar Elias will make a report of what he could see and perceive during the Apparition.

Friar Elias: First, let us pray.

The group prays Hail Mary a few times.

Friar Elias: Before the Apparition we were filled by a special Grace.

Almost at the end of the prayer, a sky opened up and choirs of angels appeared. They held shields in their hands. These shields had the letter M engraved and above it there was a Christian Cross. Afterwards a special angel appeared who was blond and tall, wore a white tunic and seemed to be a regent angel, a higher angel. When he appeared all the other angels looked at this angel, praising him in deep silence.

This angel showed a heart and in this heart there were two keys positioned as a cross. It seemed that this heart was hurt, it was not the angel's heart, he said it was the heart of Christ. He carried it with tenderness and offered it to humanity.

At one moment the angel stopped, looked at the Earth and said the following:

"Love and praise the Heart of Christ that is constantly afflicted by humanity's lack of understanding."

This sentence was repeated three times, until the Heart lit up, grew and was poured on us. Then this angel announced himself as Gabriel and retreated to the Sky.

At one moment, before the Apparition, other angels appeared and they looked down, as if they were looking at their feet. They transmitted that humanity needs to be more humble, each of us, and in humility place itself before God so that He can help us, especially in the changes that will come. This was one of the signs the angels gave us.

Sometimes the angels cut the ties with swords they carried in their hands. These ties rose to Heaven, they were as thick and heavy ropes. As they cut, more light entered the Earth.

Afterwards Our Lady appeared, bright with joy. She brought in Her right hand a scapulary that She held with delicacy. She offered it while She talked to us.

At one moment She opened Her arms and on Her left and on Her right sides two great roses were drawn. In this moment the choir of angels praised and glorified Her and as a special Grace She threw many rose petals on us. When these petals reached us and touched our heads, on some they converted into very sacred flames.

Today the Lady came with a white mantle, a sky blue tunic, a tight belt and beads in Her hand. Her face was very alive and clear, She had a light, fresh, soft smile that allowed us to see Her eyes and Her transparent gaze clearly.

She brought with Her presence a Sky that was projected on Earth.

As she told us, She came accompanied by Joseph who brought a more paternal presence. He followed the whole Apparition in silence and his presence, his paternal hand was softly placed on some of the people who were present as a blessing.

During the canticle "Mary of Nazareth" the Divine Mother walked on top of us and irradiated Her energy of Peace and Love as She promised.

Before She said goodbye, She made another request. She asked that tomorrow at 10AM we all come here to the Redeemer Christ to pray with Her. She called this prayer as a Grace of Liberation for all those children who do not follow the path or do not accept the path of the Celestial Mother.

So, She said this prayer tomorrow morning will be important for the planet. In the afternoon we will have the Apparition in the Hill of the Apparitions in Figueira. She said tomorrow She would give us all this special Grace.

Thank you.
